IMPROVEMENTS .- We paid a visit recently to Rhododendron, and for fear any of our readers Saloon, and are ready, at all times, to accommodate should be so ignorant of modern Geography as all persons who wish to indulge in the luxury of a not to know the location of Rhododendron, we will state that it is where the new Rail Roads cross the turnpike, one mile this side of Summitille. While there we took a survey of the new lotel now being completed by Dr. Jackson. This will be a large and comfortable building, and undoubtedly be quite a place of resort for healthseeking and pleasure seeking humanity. The Dr., as every body knows, is one of the best fellows in the world, and if any man under the sun can cure the " ills that flesh is heir to." and keep the blue devilsaway from a patient, it is he.

Snow Storm.-Last Monday morning we had quite a snow storm on the Mountains. What do you think of that ye tenants of the Valleys ?-But it is true enough, and winter is here. No one who has heard the blasts of Old Boreas for the past few nights could doubt his presence, and cheerful fires and great coats are looking up .as his sorrows, he adorns as well as disrobes -The trees he strips of their withered foliage, he bedecks with sparkling gems: the music of the birds and rivulets which he stills, he supplies by the jingling of the merry bells, and the free hearty gush of childish glee is only transferred from the sunny landscape to the well-warmed room. Yes, let him come, and let winters' festivities dance attendance upon his approaching foot-

The attendance was not very large, but the manoevering was well executed, and the soldiers looked well.
