THE WEATHER .- If "variety is the spice of of life," the present has certainly been a very savory week, for we have had a little of every kind of weather.

Then it snew, Then it their. And then it friz."

And now it is raining steadily and drearily .-Well, we need not complain, for the Summer was pleasant, the Autumn beautiful, and if Winter is gloomy, we can look forward to a lovely Spring. What a thing is Hope! In the darkest moments of life we look forward to ideal brightness that beckens us on-ever on! True, many of us chase the chimera until we sink into the grave, but Hope still lingers with us there!

CAPTURED .- Mr. Yingling, of Clearfield township, captured a large Black Bear, on his farm recently. What disposition is to be made of himwe know not, but would recommend that he be purchased by some of our Whig politicians, and kept as a "free show" for members of their party, in order to keep up their organization. Something desperate must be done to preserve the party, and we know of nothing better calculated tend. to do it than a continuation of the Bear dance.

SLAUGHTERED AND RACKED.—Several Cattle and several Cars on the Portage Rail Road this week. We did not hear any of the particulars.

COMPLETED .- The new Portage Rail Road on the Western Slope of the Mountain. The Contractors had a "jollification," at Summerhill one day this week, in honor of this event.

LARGE SALE .- We ask attention to the advertisement of Messrs. McGranns & Reilly, which will be found in another column. They will offer for sale a large stock of horses, carts, &c., and for securing bargains.

ATROCIOUS ATTEMPT .- We have been credibly informed of an attempt on the part of a husband to poison his wife, by administering arsenic to her, in small portions, during the period of her confinement. As the case is likely to undergo a judicial investigation, we forbear to mention particulars, or even to give the names of the parties; and will only say that if the facts, as furnished us, be substantiated, we have a monster living in our county, whose atrocity can scarcely find tract made between Peter Geer, late of White towna parallel in the Criminal calender .- Alleghani- ship, dec'd, (in his life time,) and Peter Tanalman

DIED

At her residence in Cambria township, on Monday, the 24th inst., Mrs. Teresa Scanlan, widow of John Scanlan, aged about 73 years. The deceased was endeared by her many virtues to a large circle of relatives and friends, and her death brought serrow to many hearts.

At his residuce, at Summitville, on Sunday last, ANDREW DONOUGHE, Esq., in the 45th year of his age. Deceased was a man of rare intellectual endowments, and of far more than ordinary poetical falent. We have seen poetry from his pen that would not have shamed a Burns or a Wordsworth in their palmiest days. Had his birth been heralded by a lucky star-bad he been blessed by a liberal education and efficient circumstances, he would certainly have left his impress upon the age in which he lived. May he rest in peace. J.

NOTICE.

A LL persons having claims against the Alleghe-ny Portage Rail Road, for services rendered or materials formisted previous to the 8d day of Nov. 1853, will report them to the Superintendent, prior to the 20th of Nov. 1853. The great difficulty that has heretofore occurred in the payment of the debts of this road, has been from the negligence of creditors themselves in failing to report their claims previous to the making out of the general report of the Superintendent. It is particularly required that the entire indebtedness of the road be now reported, so that application can be made for a sufficient amount to liquidate it during the ensu-season. All persons failing to present their claims, will have no assurance of payment out of the next appropriation.

JOHN ROSS, Superintendent. Oct. 28, 1853.

The establishment of Democratic paper in the Borough of Blairsville, Indiana Co., Pa., has been long desired by the Democracy of Indiana and Westmoreland Counties, and the encouragement that has already been extended, has indu- of all kinds, suitable for the season. ced the subscriber to undertake the publication of such a journal. He therefore, contemplates to revive the publication of the "BLAIRSVILLE RECORD," and will endeavor to make the paper interesting, not only to the political but general reader, and hopes that in the enterprise he will be sustained by the public. Believing that our State and National prosperty has arisen from the successful administration of public affairs by the democratic party, and the firm establishment of the principles and policy of that party will promote and ensure the happiness of the people, he will faithfully endeavor to sustain these views, and also adhere to the regular established usages of the party. Deeming it unnecessary to say more on this head, he only asks to be judged by the course of the paper.

The materials of the office will be entirely new and the paper will be of large size, and not inferior to any published in the interior of Pennsylvania. Considerable expense will be incurred, he therefore most respectfully solicits a share of the patronage of the public.

Terms.—One dollar and fifty cents per year if paid in advance, or within six months, after the expiration of that time two dollars will be charged.
