FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER. HENRY S. MOTT.

[Subject to the decision of the Democratic Convention]

We would call attention to a number of new advertisement in the regular advertising column -Book Agents wanted ; Administrator's Notice by James McDermit; Administrator's Notice by Wm. O'Keeffe, jr. ; Sale of horses, cows, waolas Nagle.

Snow in the East.

Mails due here from Philadelphia have been detained by the snow storm since last Tuesday morning, snow fell to the depth of several feet at Lancaster and Harrisburg on Tuesday night impeding the transportation over the Central Railroad. This misfortune has deprived us of our usual amount of news this week, but we hope a few days will regulate affairs again .-While people are snowed up down east, we have little or no snow here on the mountains "near the line of perpetual snow."

Attempt to break Jail.

The three prisoners now in jail in this place awaiting their trial for robbing the house of Rev Wm. Martin in Johnstown, attempted within a few days past to escape from Jail by burning through the partition of the room and on the Jailor moving them into another cell, they made an attack on him and might have escaped but for the timely assistance of another prisoner John Rouk. They were secured and ironed

Dr. A. J. Jackson,

Has requested us to state that he will return to this place, on Monday of Court week and remaining a short time. The Doctor is one of the best Dentists in the country; any person wishing to have business done in his line will do well to give him a call. Office one door East of Col. Heyer's residence.

New Arrangements.

It will be seen by an advertisement in another column that Messrs. Thompson & Brawley have changed the time of running their fast line of hacks. These hacks are fitted up to suit the most refined taste, calculated to afford the passenger ease and comfort, and we do not wish to flatter the drivers, but we must say they are perler can find anywhere.

Important Arrest.

The Lancasterian says that excitement has been occasioned by the arrest of Judge Vondersmith, and Gen. George Ford, by the United States Marshall for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and lodged in the Lancaster county jail, on the charge of obtaining pension monies to a large amount from the Government by means of fraudulent and forged certificates. They immediately sued out a writ of habeas corpus before Judge Long, and were admitted to bail in the sum of $2000 each for their appearace before the United States District Court which set at Philadelphia on last Monday. They were subsequently re arrested by the Marshal, and gave bail for the sum of $5000 for their appearance before the U. S. District court. Walter G. Evans, Esq. was arrested and held to bail in the same amount, this gentleman is the magistrate, before whom the alleged fraudulent acknowledgements were ry accuracy. To show the power of the gun the

We have been requested to state that a lecture will be delivered in this place, on Monday evening, the 6th of March, by JACOB CAR-TER, the celebrated Temperance Lecturer on the Evils of Intemperance.

We neglected in our last to notice that our old friend Peter Sweeny of Loretto, has permanently established himself in the Boot and Shoe business. Mr. S.'s reputation as an excellant Boot maker cannot be denied, and we would advise all who are in want of a good substantial winter boot, to call on Peter.

A petition has been circulated among our citzens in favor of both Pine and Conemaugh counties, making the Huntingdon and Ebensburg turnpike the division line

Nebraska Territory.

We find the following in the Council Bluffs Bu gle, of the 31st ult.

"A treaty with the Ohamas has been effected. The country north of the great Platte to be opened next spring. We have intelligence from the Treaty Ground up to last evening. The Treaty is closed with the Omahas, whereby our Government purchases a tract of country estimated at six and a half million of acres at ten cents per V. B. PALMER, the American Newspaper acre. The tribes are to receive a yearly annuity of the interests which amounts to $40,000 a year. The tribe is to receive protection from the Sioux and settle upon a strip of land north of the mouth of the Big Sioux. They are to evacuate their lands in time for emigrants to get in crops in the spring provided protection is afforded .-Major Gatewood has not been as successful in treating with the Otoes; however, they are ready to agree to all the stipulations except that of removing north. They wish to go south; we think, hovever, the Major will be able to overcome these objections and proceed to treat with the other tribes, and in a short time go on with his Chiefs to ratify the stipulations. A military post is to be established at the mouth of the Little Sioux ; further particulars next issue .-There was no Indian fight as heretofore reported.

Terrible Scene at a Ship Wreck.

The Liverpool papers furnish full accounts of Inspector-Joseph Bender. he wreck of the ship Tayleur, on the Irish coast, at the Island of Lamby, on the 21st of January, gons, household and kitchen furniture by Nich- having six hundred and twenty souls on board, of whom near four hundred were lost. One of the passengers saved thus describes the scene.

"A raft was constructed, on which great numbers of persons embarked; but it was drifted against the rocks and upset, when all on it perished. A rope was then conveyed on shore by one of the swimmers, and about one hundred attempted to gain the rocks by clinging to it, when the vessel suddenly fell over on her side, which slackened one end of the rope, and caused the entire of them to let go their hold. The whole of them were drowned. The captain, whose name Judge of Election-John Burgoon. was Noble, was saved, but the only part of his dress that he landed in was a flannel shirt. One lady had £4,000 in bank notes sewed in her stays; she offered £2,000 to any one who would save her life, but in vain. She also was drowned. A child of five months old is saved, and both parents are drowned. A German emigrant saved his child's life by bearing it in his teeth from the wreck to the shore. Only seven women are saved, the rest, 197 in number, are drowned .-There are now upwards of sixty dead bodies on Judge-John Reed. the island, and 200 survivors."

Railroad Accident.

LANCASTER, Feb. 22. The train which left Lancaster last evening when four miles East of Lancaster could get no farther, on account of the immense drifts of snow. An endeavor was made to force the train through when it was moved slowly back towards Lancaster. The train due at Lancaster from the West had arrived, and started at schedule time; it ran cautiously, but not, however, sufficiently so as to prevent a collision with the train backing up The down train running at the rate of twelve or fect gentlemen, and the most obliging the travelat the rate of from two to four miles per hour, the shock was so great as to smash the car coming in contact with the train East, pitching the passengers from their seats and upsetting the stove, which set fire to and consumed the car .-The engine ran half way through the car. A Paris correspondent of the New York Tri une gives an account of a rifle used by the Constable-Peter S. Little. Turks, in picking off the officers of the Russian army at Oltenitza. It is designated as the Min nie rifle, receiving its name from the maker, Ma jor Minnie. It is contracted with a back sight sealed to distances, and carries with extraordinawriter gives the result of a target the size of a man's hat, off-hand and in succession. While they were thus showing every right of judgment seat of God, hew me off every hand which has been raised hypocritically."

In an instant every hand dropped, and Rocco of course, poured forth a fresh torrent of eloquent invective against their deceit. He had great dislike to tobacco, and when once preaching to a crowd of Spanish sailors, he astonished them by saying that there were no spanish saints in heaven. A few, he said, had been admitted, but they smoked so many cigars that they make the holy virgins sick : and St. Peter set his wits to work to get them out. At length he proclaimed that a bull fight was to be held out-side the gates of Paradise. Thereupon every Spanish saint, without exception, ran to see the fight, and St. Peter immediately closed the gates, and took care never to admit another Spaniard.

AUSTRIA.

Insidious Designs Towards Turkey.-Letters from Vienna, Constantinople, and Widdin, (says the Daily News,) represent the conduct of Austria at this moment as insidiously and dangerously hostile to Turkey. Austria again demands that the commanders who have lately so ably defended Turkey on the Danube, shall be removed. on the plea that they are renegades and revolutionists. The concession of such a claim would deprive the Sultan of the services of Selim Pacha, lant of Kalafat; of Ismail Pacha, who fought so gallantly at Citale; and even of those of Omer Pacha himself. While preferring this demand, Austria is adding to her army of 80,000 men on the Turkish fronties, by marching 30,000 from Bohemia. The movements of Kossuth have, perhaps, something to do with this.
