SALUDINE, Mich., Oct. 6, 1851.
Mr. John D. Park—Dear Sir: It is with unutterable feelings of gratitude that I am able, through the divine providence of God, and by the wonderful agency of that excellent medicine, Guyson's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, to give you a few symptoms of my almost hopeless case.

In the winter of 1850, I was attacked with a severe pain, which was gradually extending through the whole right side and leg; at the same time, a general prostration of my physical system; also, my leg had shrunk to two thirds of its common size. I desisted the attendance of a skillful practitioner, who pronounced my disease one of the worst forms of liver complaint. He said my case was one not usually handled but prescribed for me. I remained under his treatment until I was satisfied he could not help me. I then procured of your agent a bottle of A. W. Beer's, two bottles of Guyson's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, which I received a vast amount of benefit. After having taken four bottles more I was able to pursue my business without any inconvenience, and had become since that time a well man, while but a short time since I was confined to my bed three-fourths of the time; and I cannot ascribe the return of my health to any other cause than by the agency of that truly valuable medicine, Guyson's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla.

HANSEL VAUFER.

The following letter is from a highly respectable physician who enjoys an extensive practice:

Dr. John D. Park—Dear Sir: Dr. Guyson's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, as prescribed by me for the last three years, with good effect, in General Debility, Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic and nervous disease. In all female complaints it certainly is unequalled. In the use of this medicine the patient constantly gains strength and vigor, a fact worthy of great consideration. It is pleasant to the taste and smell, and can be used by persons with most delicate stomachs. I am speaking from experience, and to the afflicted I advise its use.

DR. J. S. LEPPEL.

Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry

For the most rapid relief of Asthma, Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Croup, and all disorders of the Lungs and Chest.

Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry

THE BEST REMEDY EVER KNOWN TO MAN.

For Croup, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Influenza, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Hoaxiness of the Throat or Side, &c., &c., &c.

In short, this Balsam is peculiarly adapted to every disease of the Lungs and Liver, which is produced by our ever-varying climate.

Fifty Thousand Persons are annually in England of Consumption. In the New England States, the proportion is one in four or five. In Boston, probably one in four. In the city of New York, sixty-seven died in one year in December of this disease. It is less prevalent in the more northern latitudes, as Russia, Canada, and among the Alps of Switzerland, where the winters are long and severe, and there are fewer sudden changes.

No theory can be more welcome to the human mind than the one which establishes on good grounds the hope for prolonged existence, if the allegations of those who are at least entitled to veracity may be believed, there is a preventive and a remedy.

The great Author of Nature has provided us with a remedy for Consumption, and the disease leading thereto which are so fearfully common in our superstitious age. He has given us relief from that fatal scourge by ransacking other lands: No, the best, Nature's own remedy is at our hand. The Wild Cherry and the Pine, furnish us with a cure which is possible.

One of the most important discoveries of the age, in ameliorating the condition of this large class of suffering humanity is Dr. Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which has been before the public some ten years. This valuable medicine was first discovered and introduced in the year 1838, since which time its success has constantly increased the demand, until it has become one of, if not the most popular remedy for Consumption, in its recipient stage ever known.

Another Physician's Testimony.

Mr. Fowler—Dear Sir: I could send you a dozen certificates, strong and decisive, of the really sanative effects of your valuable Balsam of Wild Cherry, within the past twelve months, under my own supervision and direct control. I know of no few persons who have used it, comparatively, but commend it in the strongest terms. A case of asthma, the severest I ever saw, to which I was called a month ago, evinced the superiority of the Balsam. It lasted for four weeks, and the distress and suffering was dreadful; he sat up every night. The gentleman told me to give him something to last him home, (21 miles) so that he might see his wife and child, and die in peace. I gave him one bottle of Balsam, and four ounces of Scrupulous, directing him to take teaspoonfuls of each. He took the medicine with him, and the difficulty of breathing was greatest. Next day I forced his despondent well, and made him take six bottles of Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and told him to go to his present, having advised that he had used so much expensive medicine to no profit. Last week Mr. A. called and expressed his gratitude to me in the warmest manner, said the medicine had saved his life, paid his whole bill, and took six bottles more, and left my office for home, rejoicing.

Very respectfully yours,
WM. SAAR, M. D.

We annex a few statements from individuals well known in this vicinity: the first of which is from Alderman Perkins:

Boston, February 3, 1851.
Dr. W. Fowler—Dear Sir—Having lately had occasion to try your celebrated remedy for coughs and colds, Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which I did with success, I cannot in justice to you withhold my testimony in its favor. For several days I had been suffering from the effects of a severe cold, accompanied by a very sore throat and sick headache, which completely incapacitated me for business. I had taken but a very small portion of a single bottle of this Balsam, when I experienced relief. My cough was broken up at once, and my lungs entirely relieved from the pressure which had become so painful. I attribute the relief entirely to the good effects of your Wild Cherry, as I took no other medicine whatever. I cordially recommend it to all my friends. Respectfully yours,
SAMUEL S. PERKINS.
