In short, this Balsam is peculiarly adapted to ensed by our ever-varying climate.

Fifty Thousand Persons Die annually in England of Consumption. In the or five. In Boston, probably one in four. In the city of New York, sixty-seven died in iwo weeks in December of this disease. It is less prevalent in the more northern latitudes, as Russia, Canada, and among the Alps of Switzerland, where the winters are long and severe, and there are fewer sudden changes. No theory can be more welcome to the human mend than the one which establishes on good grounds the hope for prolonged existence, if the siegations of those who are at least entitled to reracity may be believed, there is a preventive and a remedy.

The great Author of Nature has provided as with a remedy for Consumption, and the diseases leading thereto which are so fearfully common in our country. Has He left us to find relief from that fatal scourge by ransacking other lands. No. the best, Nature's own remedy is at our hand. The Wild Cherry and the Pine, furnish us with a cure where a cure is possible.

One of the most important discoveries of the age, in ameliorating the condition of this large class of suffering humanity is Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which has been before the public some ten years. This valuable medicine was first discovered and introduced in the year 1838, since which time its success has constantly increased the demand, until it has become one of, if not the most popular remedy for Consumption, in its recipiest

Another Physician's Testimony. Mr. Fowle-Dear Sir: I could send your deren certificates, strong and decisive, of the really sanative effects of your valuable Balsam of Wild Cherry, within the past twelve months, under my own supervision and direction. Indeed I know of few persons who have used it, comparatively, but commend it in the strongest terms. A case of Asthma, the severest I ever saw, to which I was called a month ago, evinced the superiority of the Balsam. It lasted him six weeks, and the dyspma and suffering was dreadful; he sat up every night. The gentleman told me to give him something to last him home, (21 miles) so that he might see his wife and child, and die in peace. I gave him one bottle of balsam and four ounces of syrup squills, directing him to take teaspoonful doses of best Bordeaux olive oil, when the difficulty of breathing was greatest. Next day I forced his despondent well, and made him take six bottles of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry home with him as a present, he having alledged that he had used so much expensive medicines to no profit. Last week Mr. A. called and expressed his gratitude to me in the warmest manner, said the medicine had saved his life, paid his whole bill, and took six bottles mere, and left my office for home, rejoicing.

We annex a few statements from individuals well known in this vicinity; the first of which is from Alderman Perkins: Boston, Febuary 3, 1851. Dr. S. W. Fowle: - Dear Sir-Having lately had occasion to try your celebrated remedy for coughs and colds, Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which I did with success, I cannot in justice to you withhold my testimony in its favor. For several days I had been suffering from the effects of a severe cold, accompanied by a very sore throat and sickheadache, which completely incapacitated me for business. I had taken but a very small portion of a single bottle of this Balsam, when Pexperienced relief. My cough was broken up at once, and my lungs entirely relieved from the pressure which had become so painful. I attribute the relief cotirely to the good effects of your Wild Cherry, as I tack no other medicine whatever. I cordially recommend it to all my frienns. Respectfully yours, SAMUEL S. PERKINS.
