A new Volume of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.

Is commenced about the 80th September, each year, and is the best paper for Mechanics and Iuventors published in the world. Each volume contains 416 pages of most valua ble reading matter, and is Illustrated with over 500 MECHANICAL ENGRAVINGS of new Inven.

The SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN is a Weekly Journal of the Arts, Sciences, and Mechanics, having for its object the advancement of the interests of Mechanics, Manuacturers and Inventors.

Each number is illustrated with from five to ton ORIGINAL ENGRAVINGS of new mechanical inventions, nearly all of the best inventions which are patented at Washington being illustrated in the Scientific American. It also contains a weekly list of American patents; notices of the progress of all mechanical and scientific improvements; practical directions on the construc-tion, management, and use of all kinds of machinery, tools, &c. &c. It is printed with new type on beautiful paper, and being adapted to binding, the subscriber is possessed, at the end of the year, of a large volume of 416 pages illustrated with upwards of 500 mechanical engravings.

The Scientific American is the Repertory of Pasent Inventions; a volume, each complete in itself forms an Encyclopedia of the useful and entertain, ing. The Patent claims alone are worth ten timethe subscription price to every inventor.

Saline, Mich., Oct. 6, 1851. Mr. John D. Park—Dear Sir: It is with unuiterable feelings of gratitude that I am able, thro' the divine providence of God, and by the wonderworking agency of that excellent medicine, Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, to give you a few symptoms of my almost hopeless case. In the winter of 1850, I was attacked with a severe pain, which was gradually extending through the whole right side and leg; at the same time a total prostration of my physical system; also, my leg had shrunk to two thirds of its common size. I drocured the attendance of a skillful practitioner, who pronounced my disease one of the worst forms of liver complaint. He said my case was one not easily handled but prescribed for me. I remained under his treatment until I was satisfied he could not help me. I then procured of your agent a this palce, A. W. Beers, two battles of Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, from which I received a vast amount of benefit. After having taken four bottles more I was able to pursue my business without any inconvegience, and have been cince that time a well man, while but a short time in the Northern Liberties of Hollidaysburg, and since I was confined to my bad three-fourths of the respectfully asks for a share of custom. > The following letter is from a highly respectable physician who enjoys an extensive practice; Navarre, Stalk co., O., Nov. 1851.

Dr. John D. Park-Dear Slr: Dr. Guysott's Extract of Sarsaparilla. This medcine has been prescribed by me for the last three years, with good effect, in General Debility, Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Cronic and nervous diseases. In all female complaints it certainly is unequaled.

In the use of this medicine the patient constantly gains strengthand vigor, a fact worthy of great cenideration. It is pleasant to the taste and smell, and can be used by persons with most delicate stemachs. I am speaking from experience, and to the afflicted I advise its use.

> Another Physician's Testimony. Mr. Fowle-Dear Sir: I could send your dozen certificates, strong and decisive, of the really sanative effects of your valuable Balsam of Wild-Cherry, within the past twelve months, under my own supervision and direction. Indeed I know of few persons who have used it, comparatively, but commend it in the strongest terms. A case of Asthma, the severest I ever saw, to which I was called a month ago, evinced the superiority of the Balsam. It lasted him six weeks, and the dyspecand suffering was dreadful; he sat up every night. The gentleman told me to give him something to last him home, (21 miles) so that he might see his wife and child, and die in peace. I gave him one bottle of balsam and four ounces of syrup squills, directing him to take teaspoonful doses of best Bordeaux olive oil, when the difficulty of breathing was greatest. Next day I forced his despondent well, and made him take six bottles of Wistar's Balhe having alledged that he had used so much expensive medicines to no profit. Last week Mr. A. called and expressed his gratitude to me in the warmest manner, said the medicine had saved his life, paid his whole bill, and took six bottles more, and left my office for home, rejoicing. Very respectfully yours, WM. SAAW, M. D.

Boston, Febuary 3, 1851. Dr. S. W. Fowle:-Dear Sir-Having lately had occasion to try your celebrated remedy for coughs and colds, Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which I did with success, I cannot in justice to you with hold my testimony in its favor. For several days I had been suffering from the effects of a severe cold, accompanied by a very sore throat and sickheadache, which completely incapacitated me for business. I had taken but a very small portion of relief. My cough was broken up at once, and my lungs entirely relieved from the pressure which had become so painful. I attribute the relief entook no other medicine whatever. I cordially recommend it to all my frienns. Respectfully yours, SAMUEL S. PERKINS.
