The Baffled Lawyer.

As the last sitting of the Cork Assizes, a case was brought before the Court in which the principal witness for defence was a tanner, well known in the surrounding country by the sobriquet of " Crazy Pat."

Upon "Crazy Pat" being called for his evidence, the attorney for the prosecution exerted to the utmost extent his knowledge of legal chican ry, in the endeavor to force the witness into some slight inconsistency, upon which he might build a 'point,' but he was excessively annoyed to find that Crazy Pat's evidence was consist-

Among the novelties of the day, a doggerel rhyme called a "prophecy.,' and said to have been written in the 15th century, is being handed about in England. Certainly an alliance between France and England would have been regarded as a cock and bull story two years ago, but this pretended prophecy treats the alliance, now is really formed, is about a cock and a bull :

In twice two hundred years the Bear The Crescent will assail,

But if the Cock and Bull unite. The Boar will not prevail.

In twice ten years again, Let Islem know and fear,

The Cross shall stand. The Crescent wave, dissolve and disappear.
