J. D. Park-Dear Sir: I take the liberty of adgood of the benefits I have derived from the prostrated by that terrible scourge consumption, in May last. The attack was truly horrifying to me, for five of our family, (my brothers and sis-ters) had died of consumption. I was afflicted with nearly all the worst features of the disease; I had a distressing cough, and expectorated a good deal of blood; beetle fever, severe pains in the side and chest, cold chills, alternating with flushes of heat

I was under the care of a skillful physician, from the time I was taken sick until about six weeks Store; where by using none but the choicest mate-AS constantly on hand and for sale, Dry and Silks, Flowers, Crapes, and every article suitable or sale, Dry and Green to the Millinery Trade, to which constant addition to the Millinery Trade, to which constant addition or sale, Dry and Green to the Millinery Trade, to which constant addition to the Millinery Trade, to the Millinery Trade, to which constant addition to the Millinery Trade, the same of Wild Cherry.
