emocra

THE BLESSINGS OF GOVERNMENT, LIKE THE DEWS OF HEAVEN, SHOULD BE DISTRIBUTED ALIKE UPON THE HIPH AND THE LOW, THE RICH AND THE POOR.

NEW SERIES

THE DEMOCRAT & SENTINEL, is publish-IN ADVANCE, if not $2 will be charged. ADVERTISEMENTS will be conspicuously inserted at the following rates, viz: 1 square 3 insertions, Every subsequent insertion, 1 square 3 months,   1 year, 8 00 dol'n 1 year, 18 00 veleet Portry.

Business Cards with one copy of the DEMOCRAT & SENTINEL, per year,

LINES.

The Louisville Journal says:—"We defy any tasteful lover of poetry to read the following lines, without exclaiming :- How beautiful:

My soul thy sacred image keeps, My midnight dreams are all of thee; For nature then in sfiont sleeps, And silence broods o'er land and sea; Oh, in that still, mysterious hour, How oft from waking dreams I start, To find thee but a fancy flower, Thou cherished idol of my heart. Thou hast each thought and dream of might

For ever thine my dreams will be, What'er may be my fortune here, I ask not love—I claim from thee Only one boon, a gentle tear; May blest visions from above

Have I in turn one thought of thine?

Play brightly 'round thy happy heart, And may the beams of peace and love Ne'er from thy glowing soul depart. Farewell! my dreams are still with thoe, Hast thou one tender thought of me?

My joys like summer birds may fly, My hopes like summer blocus depart, But there's one flower that connot die, Thy holy memory in my heart; No dews that one flower's cup may fill, No sunlight to its leaves be given, But it will leave and flourish still, As deathless as a thing of heaven. My soul greets thine, masked, unsought, Hast thou for me one gentle thought?

Parewell! farewell! my for-off friend! Between us broad, blue-rivers flow, And forests wave and plains extend, The wind that breathes upon thy brow, Is not the wind that breathes on mine, The starbeams shining on thee now Are not the beams that on me shine; But memory's spell is with me yet--Can'st then the boly part forget?

The bitter tears that thou and I Far, far a sart must live and move. Our souls, when God shall set them free,

Can mingle in the world of love. This was an estacy to me-Say-would it be a joy to thee?

VIRGINIA. NEW HAVEN, Coun.

Miscellancous.

preaching election, made another of those sud- the rights of our adopted citizens. ought to be) of their predictions that the coun-

It might naturally be supposed, from such would cease their war upon the party of the From this high elevation, let us look down people, when their formerly avowed princi- calmly upon the impotent struggle of those ples and measures were thus abandoned. Af- who come in conflict with these principles .- this is now to be changed, a new standard is ter keeping the country in a commotion for Ours is the cause of our country-of liberty be either false or hopeless; it would seem that ship as they think right. and ambitious demagogue will never quit his which were established by the revolution .-

abundantly verify.

hearted citizens, who desire nothing but that | ought to be valued, need not be enforced by | eignes, and that he had refused to pass laws | their blood for that cause and for this pass no distinctions and will tolerate none. Like the honor and interests of their country may argument on this point. The history of the to enourage their migration hither, be promoted and perpetuated. It is their world for two centuries is replete with incied every Thursday merning, in Ebensburg, in Ebensburg, sincere prejudices against the Democracy, or dents demonstrating the wisdom of this doctheir long habits of obedience to party discip- trine. line which keeps them where they are; but we confidently trust that the time has now the fruitful parent of the infant colonies—and mindel men. The offence of George III., not felled the forest, subdued the rude of the Whig party. We may have occasion come, when they will break the trammels the rights of conscience and of worshiping was a least on open one. He had refused to and unbroken soil, constructed our railroads to refer to others during the progress of the fellow citizens. From the aged and distin- and bloody wars. guished soldier who was their candidate for We are not defending the tenets of any erament. President, down to the most obscure and in- particular sect, but the rights of all to enjoy efficient of their speakers and writers, all pro- their own peculiar views without molestation, fessed a becoming zeal for the rights of for- without proscription and persecution. In this eigners. According to their statements made lies the safety of all, for the powerful of to- the eder Adams in the height of the insomorracy—and they were urged, exhorted and nant religious sect upon their weaker breththe vernacular language which the native born citizen used. The "rich Irish brogue" at all in political discussions. The poisoned was music to their cars, and the "sweet Ger- chalice may be returned to the lips of those The Constitution of the United States and man account" was the subject of extrayagant who would force others to drink the hemlock. thorises Congress to pass uniform laws of nat-this sectarian crusade against the Democracy, permitted to carry out the pure and hely mis- ever be required as a qualification for any ofless than two years ago, and who did all that sion of propogating the gospel and diffusing fice of public trust under the United States. in them lay, to excite the jealousy of adopted a sound morality among men. ADDRESS

the laws and the Constitution.

Of the State Central Committee.

Of the State Central Committee.

To the proper of Pennsylvania:

Follow Criticens:—The State Central Commendate appointed by the Democratic Central Control tion which assembled in Harrisburg, in March last, have thought it their duty to address you on the present aspect of political affairs.

The proper of Pennsylvania:

The state Central Committee appointed by the Democratic Central Control tion which assembled in Harrisburg, in March last, have thought it their duty to address you on the present aspect of political affairs.

The proper of Pennsylvania:

The state Central Committee at the land, to be more loathsome than the like and frogs of figypt. Let us not be divided in political matters, by reason of a diversity of sentiment on veligious subjects, where no of which assembled in Harrisburg, in March last, have thought it their duty to address you on the present aspect of political affairs.

The proper of Pennsylvania:

The state Central Committee.

The state Central Committee at the land, to be more loathsome than the like and frogs of figypt. Let us not be divided in political matters, by reason of a diversity of sentiment on veligious subjects, where no of whatever with the religious establishments or modes of large and destroy at an appropriate lattice of the Land, to be more loathsome than the like and frogs of figypt. Let us not be divided in political matters, by reason of a diversity of sentiment on veligious special matters, by reason of a diversity of sentiment on veligious special matters, by reason of a diversity of sentiment on veligious special matters, by reason of a diversity on in any case which they dominant and the construction of the Central Committees at the propose to political and the construction of the land, to be more loathed the very engines when lifed the and the construction of the Central Committees of the Ce you on the present aspect of political affairs.

The opponents of the Democratic party and of Democratic policy, (we scarcely know and of Democratic policy), (we scarcely know appearance of the Democratic policy), (we scarcely know appearance of the other the right to establish an arbitrary, partial and unjust feetly apparent, that these same politicians, if at this moment by what name to call them) they could secure votes by it, would again suit his own conscience in matters of religion, der this Commonwealth. have, for purposes connected with the ap-public revenues. Their Bankrupt Law is de- ed no more than equal justice for Protestlivered over, with their full consent, to the ants, and now when the Whigs have chang- ted citizen is no longer to be considered an infamy it deserves. We hear no more from ed their ground, we will demand but common them ahout expunging the veto power from and constitutional rights for adopted citizens of the constitution The thunders of alarm whatever religious belief they may happen to if need be defend her flag, her honor, her inagainst the annexation of Texas are silent. be. This has ever been the creed of the De- terests, on the field of battle, but he must not Their execrations of the Mexican war and the mocratic party, as it has ever been the policy of enjoy the emoluments of office, must not oc-They seem to be ashaned (as certainly they have only sought to maintain the just rights cast his lot among us, made his home in our of all, and to bestow distinction and honor as try would be ruined and the treasury made the reward of individual merit. The constitutes, is identified with as in teeting and inbankrupt by the tariff of 1846. Even the tation and the law—the great principles of try can entwine around the human heart, but individuals abuse the blessings of our govern- history of the past, and render it unmindful of Galphins of the last administration have re- equality which the people of this country, na- yet according to this modern doctrine, he betired to the quiet shades of obscurity, consent tive born and those of former birth, fought to gorge their plunderin silence, without de- and bled for-freedom of conscience, which fending the means by which it was acquired. no American christian would take from his fellow man-justice to all and special favors to tended to them the hand of fellowship, offeruntoward circumstances, that these politicians none—this is the platform of the Democracy.

equality can never be idle. The interested the principles of civil and religious liberty, trade. They can at least get local offices by Their whole history from the first settlement of they seem ready to do, as passing events idential election, is calculated to inspire every our allegiance to the British crown, that like them but of less renown, who perilled him equally with the subject or people of the We do not deny that the masses of the parsense and patrotism. How much and why population of these States, that he had obof the cause of liberty and sound republican upon all classes of the community, the high opposed to me and patrotism. How much and why population of these States, that he had ob-was the flattery bestowed upon their adopted laws, on subjects which had long led to cruel

We feel right sure, that the adversaries of the uralization. It also provides that Congress May shed when'er by anguish bowed,
Exhaled into the noentide sky,
May met and mingle in the cloud;
And thus, my much beloved friend, though we

May shed when'er by anguish bowed,
Exhaled into the noentide sky,
May met and mingle in the cloud;
And thus, my much beloved friend, though we

May shed when'er by anguish bowed,
Exhaled into the noentide sky,
May met and mingle in the cloud;

These facts, fellow citizens, are fresh in your recollection. But would force others to drink the hemicek.
We feel right the adversaries of the past in the history of mankind, will not be your recollection. But would you believe it.

These facts, fellow citizens, are fresh in your recollection. But would you believe it.

These facts, fellow citizens, are fresh in your recollection. But would you believe it.

These facts, fellow citizens, are fresh in your recollection. But would you believe it.

to do likewise.

by reason of the accident of birth. The adopequal, but an inferior. He can pay his taxes, enrich by his labor his adopted country, and midst, is identified with us in feeling and inlongs to a prescribed, degraded caste.

We have for long, long years, invited the oppressed of every clime to our shores, exed them the protection of the broad shield of just our constitution, to secure them in the rights and immunities of American citizens; but all land is to be hereafter the rule of action.

of how much greater magnitude are those now much of our previously uncultivated hands us it is alike benignant and bountiful to all. Religious toleration may be looked upon as presented for the consideration of all liberal- bloom and blossom as the rose? Have they Such fellow citizens are some of the allies which have heretofore bound them, and join God according to its dictates, may be consid- pass aws to encourage the emigration of forthe Democratic party in a cordial support of cred the corner stone of our republican institutions. The Puritans and Catholics of Eng- deception unworthy the American character. ilization? Are there not to be found among perhaps leave the various fanatical isms of the Previous to the last presidential election, land and the Hugenots of France fied from We lave our constitution as it is, we make them as well as among native born citizens, day to be met and refuted by our Democratic the organs crators and leaders of the party, the persecutions of religious intolerance at no aleration in our naturalization laws, we men of exalted worth, brilliant talents, tow- friends, in their own way, in their various lothen calling itself Whig, had exhausted their home to the wilds of this Western world, in inviteon the faith of these guarantees, to be ering genius, who have given us their valua- ealities. But we may venture the general relist of party doctrines. Every issue had order that they might enjoy that liberty here seen and read of all men, that they should ble services, in all the useful and ennobling mark, that all collateral organizations outbeen settled against them. But they are seldom at a loss for some temporary subterfuge, and on that occasion they betook themselves others of religious and political toleration—a owngovernment, when we mean that the in owngovernment, when we mean that the into a most disreputable expedient. They ex- toleration of all seets and creeds so much in ducments thus held out, are mere cunning these and such as these, shall be disfranchised, political affinities or minorities, in opposition erted all their power and influncee to excite harmony with our republican institutions .- devices intended to deceive. For it is not prescribed on account of their foreign birth, the anger, hatred and jealousy of the Catho- It is true that here and there at the early set- proposed by those who adhere to the strange and persecuted for their religious opinions? the demo- the colonies, a contrary spirit was dogna, enunciated by the new Mayor of Have we nothing to less by such a policy? eratic party and its candidates Immediately sometimes manifested, but it gradually sub- Philadelphia, to change the settled policy of But how is this policy to be administered? this sect of people, was charged on him as a engrafted in the constitution of the general It proposes to take from citizens the civil than constructive treason to the government. and the sanctity of the Post Office was violated the Puritan preachers and Dissenters from the settled policy not recognized in any law of light of day and before the world.

The Puritan preachers and Dissenters from the settled policy not recognized in any law of light of day and before the world.

Which the government of this country must confide the purpose of circulating these documents glong with the religious papers read by but who would dare now to avow publicly, of the country shall hold a civil office under however commendable in design at the outpersons of that faith. On the other hand, sympathy with such intolerance? Who would the government—no matter that he has come start, must soon degenerate into engines of The miserable mushroom associations which Gen. Scott was heid up as a man for whom have the hardihood now to propose an amend- here upon the faith of the laws of the land- tyranny and outrage. The Jacobin clubs of spring up in a day and perish in a night, can-Catholics, above all others, ought to vote. If ment to the constitution of the Union or of no matter how good his character; how ef- the French Revolution, headed by Danton, not withstand the public sentiment of the peohe was not a member of that church himself. any of the States, that a person born in a for- feetise his abilities; how thorough his eduit was urged that his family were, and his eign land, or professing any particular reli- cation; or how numerous his virtues—no tremble for its existence, while France bedaughter had, with his consent, gone into a gious faith, shall be excluded from the rights, matter had, with his consent, gone into a gious faith, shall be excluded from the rights, matter had, with his consent, gone into a gious faith, shall be excluded from the rights, matter had, with his consent, gone into a gious faith, shall be excluded from the rights, matter had, with his consent, gone into a gious faith, shall be excluded from the rights, matter had, with his consent, gone into a gious faith, shall be excluded from the rights. convent. Never before was so bold and share-less an effort made to rouse religious prefudi-tion and murder. What protection can the are loyal to the principles of the constitution itself, and they will ces for political purposes. Sensible men of an everruling and ever wise Providence, the for the adopted country. With such we are secret councils and insiduous attacks? Con- show their loyalty at the approaching cleans and insiduous attacks? all parties, seets, and classes, were deeply of idea of the rights of conscionce has eventually to have no political communion—we must not spiracies and secret combinations against the as they did 1851 and 1852, by sustaining fended at this unblushing system of endeavor- prevailed and been permanently established. listen to their advice nor employ them in the body politic, or the political rights of large the Democratic nominees presented for their ing to carry an election by sectarian appeals, and peace has been introduced among men public service. The standard of honesty and classes of citizens, are as odious in the eye of consideration and approval. It is idle to dis-Still more humiliating than this, if possible, under the sanction of our covernment and capacity is to be overlooked—and the cir- the moralist, as conspiracies against the pri- gaine the fact, that the Whig party of cumstances of birth, and birth alone, must vate rights of the citizen are of our in the

Here is a disfranchisement of the most obnoxious character. The alien and sedition laws were passed under the administration of rights of others.

by the patriots of the revolution, who under-tracted and illiberal character fail of accombeen attended with the happiest results in the unprofitable scramble about creeds in religion as foreign-and surely is no reason for chang- With such allies as these secret associations by opposed to us are honest, sound and true the principles of universal toleration are and structed the laws for the naturalization of for-pl.? Have not the labors and toils of the a- the sun in the heavens, or the dews of the If such were considered among the reasons dopted citizens, who have poured into this night, or the atmosphere which we breathe, upon Gen. Pierce's nomination, they denouns sided and the heaven-born principles promulting as a bigoted Protestant, who if electronic description of the countries are to be reted, would use his power to prevent Catholics er Williams in Rhode Island, and William ceivel and adopted as citizens, but a much eret, midnight political associations, bound standard of the Democratic party—that party From having their just rights. A restriction Penn in Pennsylvania, have hadt heir health- more dangerous and unjust ground is assumed. together by extra judical oaths, to do that which has long guided the destinies of Pennin the Constitution of New Hampshire against ful sway in the policy of this country, being Its practical workings are to be retrospective, which can be nothing else in effect, morally, sylvania and of the nation—that party whose high political onence. Certificates from Catho- government, and in the constitution of the rights which they have acquired under the They thus attempt to do, under the clouds of secution in the new and the cold world until lies in his own neighborhood, declaring that several States. The Quakers and Baptists constitution, by organizing a power to sub- the night, and by secret political combinations they have become comparatively purified frem he was hostile to them floeded the country- were once persecuted in New England, and vert that instrument. It is an attempt to what they would be ashamed to propose in the all dress and imperfections-that party on decide who shall fill the offices of the gov- eye of the law. One offence is political and by its amalgamation with discordant and anthe other penal, but there is little if any dif- ti-republican elements. It is for the people ference in the grade of criminality. Both are in their sovereign capacity, to decide be ween founded in selfishness and disregard of the such materials and the ever constant and tru-then, all persons of foreign birth had been or day may be the week of to-morrow. The same lence of federal domination. But they were Pennsylvania, from large bodies of our people cision will be made by intelligent framan. were about to be greatly misused by the De- oppressions and cruelties, visited by a domi- laws, while here is a similar policy without the in opp s tion to secret societies of a purely warned to teast nobody but their true friends, r u of opposite religious views, may be re- tyrannical unjust and cruel in its results. - no political policy or purpose in view. How it is in effect, an administration of the alien much more should that opp sit or extend to the Whigs. Even the dialect spoken by for-cigners was referred to as being superior to it the ebbs and flows of party and polical law of black cockade federalism, without the ses alone, and for political papers having for their object the disfranctisement on ac-The Constitution of the United States an count of their religious views of a portion of change, and it is cinicalt to force what new com-

Secret societies formed for political purposes, the great and good Washington warned venting further lostilities there. Austria, howas against it in his farewell address to his ever, has not yet received the Czur's official reply, your recollection. But would you believe it. ost upon the good sense of the American plothat the same politicians who were preaching ple, and that all religious persuasions may be that the same politicians who were preaching ple, and that all religious persuasions may be ever be required as a qualification for any of vils in the following paragraph: vils in the following paragraph:

"However combinations or associations of The constitution of Pennsylvania, is even the above description may now and then ancatizens against native born Americans, have Let not then, fellow-citizens, the sealed more emphatic. It declares that all men have swer popular ends, they are likely, in the recently esponsed the doctrine of proscription fountains of religious controversy, be opened a natural and indefeasible right to worship course of time and things, to become potent preparing, it is supposed, for an expedition under against all citizens not native born of what to deluge with bitter waters this happy countains of their own consciences—that no man can, of principles men will be enabled to subvest the alliance with a secret and onth bound according to the se den changes of attitude which have so often It may be asked how shall the Democracy Let us also avoid the contracted view of so at what liberty, true hierty, meant, and plishing any of the desirable edgects of govheretofore tarnished the political character of meet the issue thus presented? We answer, human rights, which denies the privileges of the political character of meet the issue thus presented? The p Ley of the nation must be their leaders, and dissatisfied the people. - just as they have met all the other false and citizens to those who have been born on for-They have run through their whole list of anti-republican doctrines of the enemies of eign soil. How few of us, but can trace anpublic measures. One after the other their principles have been condemned by the publie voice and abandoned by themselves. A the conscience of the people. This mingling And how it grates upon the American car to but antagonistical to both, and which can only tended country, with diversified interests and National Bank, about which they once threatened resolution, is an "obsolete idea." The Independent Treasury, which they denounced so fiercely, is no longer denied to be the safest and best mode of keeping and disbursing the safest and best mode of keeping and disbursing the safest and best mode of keeping and disbursing the safest and best mode of keeping and disbursing the safest and sanctioned by themselves. A line conscience of the paopie. Into sanctioned by the conscience of the Canadian best opening and political elements cannot be approved or endorsed by a free and liberal policy, without regard to constitutional right, has not this liberal feature of our government deavoring to bring the exalted science of policy, without regard to constitutional right, as not this liberal feature of our government deavoring to bring the exalted science of policy, without regard to constitutional right, as not this liberal feature of our government deavoring to bring the exalted science of policy, without regard to constitutional right, as not this liberal feature of our government deavoring to bring the exalted science of policy, without regard to constitutional right, as not this liberal feature of our government of inction marked and manifest is to be made among the people of that city, not by reason thus early commenced and sanctioned by time, littled economy down to an unnecessary and the Canadian tended country, with diversified interests and wants, in matters of revenue; shad to pontical and religious intoierance?

But untaining the cannot be and the Canadian tended country, with diversified interests and wants, in matters of revenue; shad to pontical and religious and some ment of religious and policy the anticipation of the Canadian tended to pontical and religious and some ment of religious and some ment of religious a development of the resources and strengthen- with which this government has and can have ing the arm of the nation? Why should this nothing whatever to do, except to let them liberal policy be now rudely and harshly bro- alone and protect each one in its constituken up and abandoned?-or why should we tional rights, and to see that minorities as be broken off. be less generous now when liberal and pro- well as majorities have the free and full exgressive ideas in all other respects are warmly ercise of their religious opinions. It is an atbarren State of California, are no longer this government. They have courted no sect cupy positions of public trust, or even exerheard. "The tariff of 1842" is crased from or class of people as such. They recognise cise the right of suffrage except through protheir banners and omitted in their speeches. no peculiar rights in any sect or class, but tracted years and much tribulation. He has tion, who come into our country unprepared no matter to which of the two great political in some respects for the proper enjoyment of parties they may belong. It is an effort to its institutions. We are free to admit that stultify the country, and make it forget the rom St. Petersburg containing the Russian ans-ing the policy of the government, for impos- afford our Whig friends, many of that party ing new conditions upon adopted citizens, or will be unwilling to co-operate, and they will for punishing the just equally with the un- turn their faces towards the just, equitable and uniform principles of the Democratic ereed Indeed it is difficult, when examining this as laid down by the wise and philosophic Jefsubject to say who are the most benefitted by ferson. The principles of the Democratic an influx of foreign population. Our own party are benignant, and meets the wants of to be erected outside of and beyond the con- history would show that much of our prosperi- man in all the diversified interests of life. stitution, and stronger and higher than the ty and rapid advance to national greatness. They teach man's equality with his fellow and views which they now tacitly admit to in its purity where all are permitted to worcharter is to be treated as a dead letter, so far and productive industry of those of foreign humbler views of himself, they dignify, enno as it recognizes the equality before the law of birth. The debt of gratitude is at least not ble exalt, him. They apply fitly to him as a But the natural enemies of republicanism and this State are true and will remain true to adopted with native born citizens, and a power alien to the constitution and laws of the tinguished aid of adopted citizens and foreign- the object and care of all government, and not ers, in our revolutionary struggle? Have we made to be governed or created for the gov-It was assigned as among the reasons of de- forgotten the chivalrous services of La Fayette, ernment. All just government is intended claring our independence, and breaking off Montgomery, DeKalb, Kosciusco and others for his good, not to oppress him, but to treat with rock. reflecting man with confidence in their good George III., had endeavored to prevent the life and property in our behalf, and in behalf same government. It sheds its blessings alike to that party, and have for their main object in the end the prostitution of its power and its principles. Let no Democrat be led away from his political associations, with the vain principles have been tried in the fire of per-

North has become swallowed up and absorbed ly liberal Democratic party and policy of the We have heard much in days gone by in country. It cannot be doubtful how that de-

J. ELLIS BONHAM, Chairman, orge C. Walker, Secretary

LERIVAL OF THE ASIA.

TOSITION OF THE WAR. The aspect of the war has undergone an entire plications may arise. Austria is ready to march her army of 200,000 men into the Principalities, thus interpesing letween the combatants and pre-The action of Austria is in accordance with the convention between herself individually and the

The whole anglo-french force is now at Varna,

The white Sea will be blockaded from the first Both armies in Asia were motionless at the last accounts at Paris. The latest from Grosce represent the country as Interesting debutes have taken place in Parlia ment, on the Fishery Treaty and the Canadian Vienna, Friday, June 30, says, he is assured that Baron Meyendorf received letters of recall on Fri-day morning, from St. Petersburg, but it is not believed that diplomatic relations with Russia will Count Coroumie is to enter Little Wallachia by way of Orsova with about 40,000 men, on the 3d On the 20th and 33d of June, the Turkish vanguard, of 25,000 men, attacked the Russian rear guard, and drove it beyond Trajan's Wall.

PRUSSIA.

Despatches are stated to have been received wer to the Austrian requisition. Well informed persons believe that there is no reason to expect that negotiations will be further prolonged. In the treaty between Austria and Turkey it is added that Austria will not enter into any arrangements with Russia which shall not proceed in the assumption of the sovereign right of the Sultan and the integrity of his Empire. Austria will evacaate the Principalities on the conclusion of peace, with the least possible delay. The bombardment of Bomersund by the Baltic Fleet began at five o'clock on the evening of the 21st., and by seven o'clock the masked battery was dismantled, and abandoned. At ten o'clock the Russian Magazines were in a blaze. One account says the English lost 3 men, -another says

4 killed and 7 wounded. According to the Vienna Lloyd, the Russiens have shut up the sea of Azof. (which commands

The pontoen bridge at Dalarosh broke down on the 3oth of June, with 500 Russian artillery men, most of whom were drowned and their guns lost. Two hundred transports were preparing to take