DEMOCRAT & SENTINEL LOCAL COLUMN.

OUR PAPER.

We have heretofore omitted to notice the new dress of our paper, which we have procured at considerable expense, and hope it will be regarded by our patrons as an evidence of our desire to improve its appearance and make it acceptable to them, at the same time we shall spare no pains to render its columns more useful and entertaining and worthy of their continued patronage.

We have also procured a large and varied supply of new JOB TYPE, which will enable us to accomodate our customers with all sorts of Bills, execute our Job Work in the most expeditious manner, and upon the shortest notice.

The general superintendence of our office is under the care of Mr. CHARLES WIMMER, an experienced workman, who speaks both the English and German languages fluently, and will at all times be ready, to accomodate our German friends are but imperfectly satisfactory, but there are of Quarter Sessions of Cambria County have apwith Job Work in their own language the state, who have so favorably noticed the new appearance of our paper, and thus encouraged, we can only say to them, as well as to the Democracy of our county that we shall endeavor to render it an efficient organ of the principles and measures of the party which we all support.

Johnstown Hotels.

Mr. James Downey has leased for a term of years the McMillen House at Johnstown. Downey will neither be sparing of the means and time to make his house a desirable stopping place, and with the assistance of Mr. James McCreight; an o'd and experienced hand at the business will make it second to no house in the county. See | if possible defeat the ministry, and cause them Advertisement.

We had well nigh neglected to give our friend KNGLEPAUGH a passing notice. He has now remodeld the old Exchange Hotel in the interior, from top to bottom, and furnished it off in style equal if not superior to one half of our country hotels, and as to the provender "he can't be beat." Johnstown can now boast of at least two good hotels.

Sad Accident.

Mr. John McClosky, a section boatman, met with a sad accident at the Half-Way House on troops engaged in support of the Queen actlast Saturday. In attempting to jump from one boat to another, while they were in full headway, fell under the truck car severing his right arm from his body close to the shoulder; and also amashing one foot into a complete jelly. He survived but a very short time after the accident hap pened. Mr. Mc. we are informed leaves a wife and several small children to mourn his untimely end.

Now Grammar.

A few days ago a small work reached our Sancbook is neatly made in paper backs, and has the appearance of a convenient school book, as to its conformation. We examined its contents and found it to possess one virtue at least, that of clean, plain, large type. All books for schools, and indeed all books designed to be read, or studied, should come with the recommendation of large plain printing. As to the merits of the grammar in question, we have to say that such is now the variety of books of this sort, that both differences and mer-Its are almost lost in the mass.

Almost every experienced teacher or good grammarian nowadays either publishes a grammar book or has one in manuscript for his private use. We have never seen much improvement on old Murray as yet. If we should give a preference to any other, perhaps it would be Bullions work .-All others, without advancing a new principle, are for the most part the offspring of egotism or avarice.

"A lodge of Know Nothings has been organized in Ebensburg"

Hollidaysburg Standard,

The Editor of the Standard is mistaken-we are well satisfied from our knowledge of the citizens of Ebensburg, that Know-Nothingism, which is even more odious if possible, than Nativeism, can never assume a tangible form in this locality. Not that we claim for our people a greater amount of intelligent patriotism than prevails in other communities, but simply from the fact, that the one half if not a majority of the citizens of our town are either foreigners themselves or the sons of foreigners.

It is not likely therefore that they would attach themselves to an openly avowed anti-foreign organization .- It may be possible that we have amongst us a few patriotic spirits who claim to love their country and its institutions more ardently than their neighbors and who entertain paguro near Gierguro. a holy horror of elevating to office any of our Welch or Irish citizens, but we confidently predict that they will never have the impudence to outrage public sentiment by establishing a branch of so infamous a society in our peaceful and quiet borough.

Our mountain air is entirely too pure for its healthy existence-it would sicken and die, and its aiders and abettors would be hissed to scorn by the very children on the street-Whatever may be its success elsewhere we think we can safely affirm that KNOW-NOTHINGISM will never find a lodgment-never be dignified with a local habitation and a name in Ebensburg.

It is said to have been founded by a well known New York rowdy.
