Snake Fascination—A Recent Instance in Missouri.

We have occasionally read accounts of persons having been fascinated or spell-bound by snakes, but never knew of an instance occurring in our vicinity until a day or two since...

By the time winter had fairly set in she was wasted away to a mere skeleton, but as soon as the weather became cold she again seemed to revive. She never complained of being unwell, and in reply to all their inquiries...

Finally, some of the neighbors having heard of the circumstances of the child's extraordinary conduct, and also of her wasted appearance, suggested to her father to watch her movements, which he did last Friday.

The child had been sitting on the bank of the creek nearly all the forenoon, until near dinner time, when she got up and went to her father's house, asked for a piece of bread and butter, and again returned to the same place...

His blood became almost clogged in his veins and he groaned in perfect agony, which caused the snake to become alarmed, and glide away into the creek. The child then immediately sprang to her feet and ran home apparently much frightened.

Next morning she took a piece of bread again and went out to the creek, her father followed with his gun in his hand and as soon as the snake made its appearance, shot him through the head.

This horrible, and at the same time melancholy, occurrence is the first we have heard of for a long time, and in fact the first we ever knew of, where we could possibly vouch for its truthfulness.

We had almost forgotten to mention that it was a black snake, (generally supposed to be harmless, that is not poisonous,) seven feet six inches in length that fascinated the little girl.

A FRENCHWOMAN AT HOME.—She helps to cook the dinner she bought for servants wasteful with charcoal, and knows to an inch how little she can use.
