

AT HOME AND ABROAD.

Wm. C. Foley letter known as "John of York" died in Harrisburg on Wednesday 20th inst.

Mr. W. L. Taylor, of the Democratic State Central Committee, will leave for the State of Ohio on the 20th inst.

Mr. Hon. Augustus Drum has received a re-nomination to Congress from the district composed of Westmoreland, Indiana and Armstrong.

The Democratic State Central Committee is to meet at the Merchant's Hotel, in Philadelphia, on the 17th inst.

The sale of the property of Mrs. Litzinger, deceased, will take place on the 28th inst., instead of the 20th as advertised in our paper of last week.

Mr. John H. Hershberger, of Richland Township, was committed to the County Jail on last Saturday for breaking into the store of Mr. Wm. Runkner, of Scaply Level.

Wm. Lloyd, Esq., one of the firm of Jack & Co., was robbed at Altoona yesterday of one hundred and fifty dollars.

Hon. Linn Boyd, Speaker of the House of Representatives, arrived in town on Tuesday evening last, and contemplated remaining a few days.

NORTH CAROLINA ELECTION.—The returns of the elections in the Old North State is pretty nearly ascertained, which goes to show conclusively that the Democracy have elected their Governor, and in all probability both branches of the Legislature.

Dr. B. M. Griggs, according to previous announcement by handbills, has arrived and ready to perform all operations in his line, to the entire satisfaction of all who may favor him with their custom. The Dr. can be consulted at the residence of Mr. Frederick Kittell, a few doors above the office of the Democrat & Sentinel.

U. S. DEMOCRATIC REVIEW.—We are in receipt of the 9th number of this excellent work, with the following table of contents, viz: Abolition and Sectional Moles, Drop the curtain, the Missouri Prohibition, Ode to America, on Festus Limney, Uniformity, Mrs. Normandine, Sydney Smith, Westmoreland, the Poets and Poetry of Ancient Greece.—Published by Lloyd and Bennett, 80 Nassau street, N. Y., at 45 per annum.

We have been favored with a copy of the beautiful address delivered by Gen. Bigger, on the 26th of June last, before the Harrisburg Female Seminary.

We have also received a copy of the catalogue of the Seminary. This institution was commenced in 1849, and was incorporated in 1858, and is now in a healthy and prosperous condition, and certainly ought to receive a liberal support from a generous public.

The educational departments are conducted by Mrs. Anna Le Conte, Principal—assisted by Misses Hannah B. Bradley, Mary Jane Parich, and others. The branches taught are English, German, French and Italian, with vocal and instrumental music.

MISSISSIPPI.—A few individuals in this place, put themselves up to the trouble of affixing small pieces of paper in different places, about the borough limits, with the letters P. O. V. written on them, with the intention, as they thought, of creating an excitement. But it didn't take. We will admit there are a few World-Be-Knows. Nothing here, merely for the sake of being talked about. We believe, we can safely say there are not ten citizens of our town could, in the order of Know Nothings, as they are all either foreigners or the sons of foreigners.

GLEANER'S MAGAZINE.—The August number of this excellent monthly has been received, and we can safely say, is not any behind its predecessors—it is well freighted with choice and wholesome reading matter. The beautiful steel engravings are alone worth the subscription price. Should any of our readers wish to subscribe for Graham, they can be accommodated by calling on Mr. John Rodgers, who is in receipt of all the late periodicals.

MR. GRAS, ALBANY, Esq.—of this place, who is at present acting as agent of the Union "Enterprise Society," writes from Washington city that he expects to start from Pittsburg for Kansas on the 1st of September with a company of emigrants. We understand that a number from this place intend to migrate with him.

SKELTON'S FORT.—The skeleton of a man was discovered near the Old Tunnel, on the Allegheny Portage Railroad. It had the appearance of having lain there for a number of years. The skeleton was found by the late Sheriff of Allegheny county, who was in the neighborhood about the time the person had been and the means by which he met his death.

THE LAW MUST BE OBEYED.—We were handed the following advertisement with a request, that we would give it publicity. It appears that the gentleman, whose name is attached to it, came to town on Tuesday, on horseback, and after having his horse carefully disposed of took a stroll through our streets, evidently with the intention of "seeing the sights" of this delightful island city. In the meantime the Deputy Sheriff of the County, having in his possession a small Pitti Fugias to him directed, ordered him to levy upon the goods and chattels of our indignant advertiser, (who had been so unfortunate as to become indebted to a neighbor to the extent of about five and thirty dollars,) and desirous of avoiding a visit to the home of the good natured gentleman, took forcible possession of his horse in the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth, and placed him under lock and key in a stable, whereupon the Doctor considered himself greatly aggrieved, and was loud in his exclamation for "a horse, a horse," and would gladly have given his kingdom to have obtained re-possession of his steed, being unable to do so, unless previously furnishing "the means" wherewith to remove the indebtedness, and falling to obtain help, remained in a state of abject sorrow and grief of heart until this morning, when slowly and sadly he wended his way homeward, not however without leaving the following avowal for publication, and venting loud and deep imprecations on Ebenezer and its inhabitants.

PRO ORBE ET URBE.—The undersigned, Jos. Eberstall, came to visit his patients in Ebenezer, on Tuesday last, when some of the citizens took him, the horse, for the reason that the owner has to pay a little debt.

This cause of "honest citizens" giving to the public, I inform my friends, that nobody may come on horseback to Ebenezer, who has to pay a debt in his horse's pocket.

JOSEPH EBERSTALL.

Married.—On Thursday evening 16th inst., by Rev. L. Powell, Mr. JOHN W. ROBERTS to Miss MARGARET HOWELL, at this place.

Accompanying the above notice, we were presented with a large and delicious cake, for which we return our thanks, hoping the happy couple may enjoy a life of uninterrupted happiness, and that their fondest anticipation may be realized.
