TOO LATE.

We have received several communications on the subject of the common school system, which came too late for insertion in this weeks issue, They will appear next week.

JAMES J. WILL.

This gentleman who at present is a candidate for Register and Recorder upon our county ticket, we are sorry to learn has been confined to his bed for some days past by a severe bilious attack, but we trust he may soon recover, as at last accounts he was much better.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

J. Arford & Co. have purchased the Tin shop belonging to Gee. Harncame.

Public Sale by John Gillan.

THE COURT.

The Court will commence on the first Monday of September, at which time it is expected a large concourse of people will be in attendance - The list Book of the "Democrat and Sentinel" is still open and room left for a number of new subscribers.

CAMBRIA GUARDS.

This fine old company we are glad to see still keeps up its organization. At an election held on Monday last Capt. B. McDermitt was re-elected, so was 1st Lieut. John A. Blair, and Henry Myers | ches to a Post, thence East ninety seven perches now is the time for many of our young men to Richard Porter ninety seven perches to the bejoin the "old guards" and fill up the ranks,

GRADING THE STREETS.

The grading and curbing of High Street is being pushed forward with commendable energy. Major David Evans our excellent Street Commissioner, is determined to make a good job of it, and will have it ready in a short time for planking, and when it is ready, we hope the property holders will lose no time in securing plank and having it Road, leading from said town or village to the laid properly and without delay.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.

The August number of this excellent work is on our table, and it would seem from the present number that the editor spares no pains in rendering each number a fair competitor with the preceding numbers. It contains one hundred pages of reading matter, with a number of spirited engravings. Godey's Magazine as a literary work will vie with any, and we will not go too far in saying, it is ahead of many of the Magazines now published.

HIGH PRICES.

We see by a number of our exchanges, that they complain bitterly about the high prices that thay have to pay for the necessaries of life to keep soul and body together. We have not complained as yet, nor did we intend to, but owing to circumstances we have a just right to complain when subscribers as well as others, will jew us to have theirwork done for a mere nothing, when they are receiving the highest prices for their marketing, &c. Flour in this place is retailing at $11,00 per barrel and other articles in proportion. We think the laborer is worthy of his hire, and so is the Printer:

CONFEREE MEETING.

The Whig Conferees met at Johnstown in this county an Friday last to nominate a candidate for Congress. Owing to the absence of some of the conferees an adjournment took place until Saturday, when they re-assembled all the counties be ing represented.

After a number of ineffectual ballotings had taken place, the name of the present member, Dr. McCullocon of Hundingdon was withdrawn and upon the 99th ballot Col. Jone R. EDIE of Somerset was declared to be the nominee of the conference. The pic-bald party in Somerset we suppose will now lustily shout for the success of Anti-Masonry and Know Nothingism, notwithstanding their opposition to secret societies. Will the "old line Whigs" of Cambria, Blair and Huntingdon join them? We shall see. We have alluded to this matter in another column-

TO OUR ADVERTISERS.

We are necessarily compelled owing to the high price of paper and hands, to raise in prices of ad- Charles Ellis, vertising and jobbing, or at least ask the cash Jas. C. This state of affairs cannot last long, as we have to pay the cash for our paper and the labor done in the office. Stern ne- Mary Stineman cessity compels us to take this course, we would rather it would be otherwise; we are proud to say that we have the best paying subscribers of any country paper in the state, and if this was not the case, we could not exist long. Next week we will make out a number of bills of long standing and forward to those who are due us for ad- Rosanna Plummer et al vs John Rorabaugher, vertisements and handbills, &c., and hope they George Gates will meet their accounts and forward them to us Samuel Galvin through the mail at our risk.
