Dry! Dry! All over the land we hear the general complaint of a dry time. The weather is dry, the ground is dry, the news fountain is dry, politics is dry, men and women are dry, and the best hope we can entertain for this season is that "suits" will be amazin' plenty.

Fatal Accident. Mr. GEORGE SHAFER, fireman on the locomotive "Westmoreland" with an untimely end on Wednesday evening last near Jefferson.

Rev. John Chambers Letter. We publish this week the letter of the above named gentleman. Rev. John Chambers is a Presbyterian clergyman, who stands as high as any living divine in the state.

Senator Dodge. This distinguished gentleman was sojourning a while with us this week. He looks and speaks as if he cares of this world had neither choked the growth of virtue nor of flesh in him.

Our readers will recognize in him the ardent supporter of the Nebraska Bill, and firm friend of President Pierce's administration.

We regret that an opportunity was not afforded him to address the Democracy of Cambria county ere he left as we are sure his convincing arguments would have had a salutary effect upon all who could hear him, and rectify many a mis-guided mind, now tainted with the errors of Abolition propagandists.

Our readers, we are pained to say, have been deprived of the valuable services of our partner, Gen. RICHARD WHITE, who has been lying dangerously ill at the "Logan House" in Hollidaysburg, from a severe attack of the Typhoid Fever for some time past.

Our town has miraculously escaped these flying establishments this year, up to the present date. BARNUM'S notorious wax lumbing kept its distance, well for it. We have just the metal in and about us, to signalize the advent of such frauds upon the public curiosity with a reception that would make their departure more ragged and scabby than they generally make themselves.

J. M. June & Co.'s French circus will exhibit here on the 8th of September next, and judging from the bills and the number of notices from our exchanges, there is a chance to get a full quarters worth by attending the performance.

Married. On Tuesday the 20th, by the Rev. William Lloyd, Mr. John Geshner to Miss Elizabeth Mack, both of Cambria Township.
