emocrat and sentinel.

THE BLESSINGS OF GOVERNMENT, LIKE THE DEWS OF HEAVEN, SHOULD BE DISTRIBUTED ALIKE UPON THE HIGH AND THE LOW, THE RICH AND THE POOR.

NEW SERIES.

EBENSBURG, SEPTEMBER 14, 1854.

VOL. 1. NO. 51.

TERMS:

1 square 3 insertions,

Every subsequent insertion. 1 square 3 months, $ 00 1 " 1 venr. col'n 1 year, Business Card with one copy of the DEMOCRAT & SENTINEL, per year, Miscellgenrous.

ADDRESS of the State Central Committee - No. 4.

To the People of Pennsylvania:

was inherent in the people. That they not only possessed the right of self-government. But the capacity also to exercise the right. The British of that day and their adherents in this country, denied this right as well as this capacity. Our fathers heroically maintained their positions, and established their positions are governments upon the principles for which the refusal to furnish men and means a president and scenares, with a president and scenares and their political fearth to carry on the war in which we were engaged with this views, and other subject of slavery, or any other subject of slavery they fought, and the right of man to government then organized and in practice that desired to partake of them, who sought The driver alighted from the wagon, entered himself, and his capacity to do it, in this The immortal Jefferson, the great apostle on the 8th January, 1815. Jackson fought democratic party with favoring the cause of our shores as refuge from oppression in their the house, but appeared again soon after, carcountry at least, are truisms which no man of republicanism, the author of the Doclaration of Independence, was selected for Secretry.

They have done no such party dreading the rying in company with another alike disinterton of Independence, was selected for Secretry.

party, without an exception, were strengthed in their endeavors to clothe the government with strong, if not with arbitrary power; to with strong, if not with arbitrary power; to keep, as they said, the people in check. They took all the power they could from the people and vested it in the governments, thus reversing the declaration that governments derived their just powers from the consent of the general powers of discontent in the demoration of the president, and here they were the people from the time to the president, and here they shall be a power they could from the people in the peo been able entirely to dislodge them; and, if not in their organic law, in their organic law, in their ordinary 1797, and affiliating to a great extent with of the present day is the federalism of 1799. legislation the people of those states have been the views of Col. Hamilton, selected his cabi- grown more cunning. It has stooped from its without exception. We, therefore, protest, It would seem as if the whole energies of fed- secretary to King Ferdinand. After the subjected to a restriction of their rights, and a tyranny in their government searcely exceeded in those countries where despotism respectively in the people of those entertaining like views, and in the most distinct and solemn manner, against any indirect attempts to accomplish the views of Cal. Handled, selected as it the whole exception. We, therefore, protest, the views of Cal. Handled, selected as it the whole exception. We, therefore, protest, the views of Cal. Handled, selected as it the whole exception. We, therefore, protest, the views of Cal. Handled, selected as it the whole exception. We, therefore, protest, the whole exception. We therefore, protest, and in the most distinct and solemn manner, against any indirect attempts to accomplish the constitution and laws of the troy the liberties of the country. All these constitution and laws of the protection of their rights, and in the most distinct and solemn manner, against any indirect attempts to accomplish the whole exception. We then the whole exception in the most distinct and solemn manner, against any indirect attempts to accomplish the constitution and laws of the protection of the ment, which should tend to centralize in the they sought to prevent the freemen of the efforts of the same party "to treat elections hold us together. It would be a practical has ever since remained. high salaries, a standing army, and a large proper acts of the government; thus effectual- fullest extent the right and ability of the maintained the rights of the people, who put forth the Declaration of Independence, and might think the public safety required. They based their government upon the principles raised a large standing army, unnecessarily of society, and clothe the public servants with contained in it. Ours was the first govern- expended millions in the increase of the navy, only those powers that are absolutely necessament ever established upon those principles, imposed direct and indirect taxes upon every-ry for these ends—to require that all power, and it has been a model for all subsequent thing which the citizens owned, and filled delegated to public servants, should return at governments. In the stormy days of the re- the country with hosts of revenue officers; stated and short periods to the people to whom volution, the Union of the states was held to- that, like the locusts of Egypt, ate up their all power belongs, that the same may be congether more by a sense of mutual danger, and substance and became the pliant tools of go- ferred either on the former incumbents, when a sense of mutual dependence, than any coer- vernment in being spies upon the people and found worthy, or upon others more meritocive authority existing in the government of prosecuting them for alleged sedition and trea- rious. For although power does not always the Union. In the organization of the seve- on, under the laws to which we have already corrupt, of which we have had many admiendeavored to make them as democratic as The reign of this party. emphatically and of which we regret to say we have had not a ling their names, age, the place of nativity, would be shorn of all the attributes of freedom, of Rosa Neschemi, to the last unwept for restthey could. Still, the influence of habit, an truly styled "the reign of terror," happily few. attachment to the ordinary forms to which was of short duration, and expired with the The principles of these two antagonistical the nation to which they belong and owe althey had been accustomed, a partial ignorance term for which Mr. Adams had been declar- parties are involved in the coming contest in legiance, their occupation, and a description ing God according to the dictates of their own of the forms in which their principles could be cd to be elected. Federal vituperation and Pennsylvania. The democratic party, ever of their persons, and on failure to do so, to cionsciences. The comparison is manifestly best carried out, and a disinclination to enter abuse had been resorted to without stint, to honest and candid, avow their principles in forfeit the sum of three hundred dollars; and in favor of the black cockade federalism of honest and candid, avow their principles in forfeit the sum of three hundred dollars; and in favor of the black cockade federalism of honest and candid, avow their principles in forfeit the sum of three hundred dollars; and in favor of the black cockade federalism of honest and candid, avow their principles in forfeit the sum of three hundred dollars; and in favor of the black cockade federalism of honest and candid, avow their principles in forfeit the sum of three hundred dollars; and in favor of the black cockade federalism of honest and candid, avow their principles in forfeit the sum of three hundred dollars; and in favor of the black cockade federalism of honest and candid, avow their principles in forfeit the sum of three hundred dollars; and in favor of the black cockade federalism of honest and candid, avow their principles in forfeit the sum of three hundred dollars; and in favor of the black cockade federalism of honest and candid, avow their principles in forfeit the sum of three hundred dollars; and in favor of the black cockade federalism of honest and candid, avow their principles in favor of the black cockade federalism of honest and candid, avow their principles in favor of the black cockade federalism of honest and candid, avow their principles in favor of the black cockade federalism of honest and candid, avow their principles in favor of the black cockade federalism of honest and candid, avow their principles in honest and candid, avon the honest and candid, avow the upon new and untried theories, prevented as full and complete a reform in their governfull and complete a reform in their governthey have borne for more than half a century.

The horrors of the French revoluthey have borne for more than half a century.

The horrors of the French revoluthey have borne for more than half a century.

The horrors of the French revoluthey have borne for more than half a century. ments as experience has since shown to be netion were held up as bugbears to frighten the
That name conferred upon them as a term of collector was also required fortwith to transcessary, and enabled those of the other party timid and declared to be the necessary result repreach has won its way to public confidence mit to the department of state true copies of in the spirit of our institutions tolerate all. passed, and it was found necessary to establish a better form of government for the Union fibral the old ariscles of confederation afforded.

The republican party, believing to deceive the people. Democracy advocates that the term democrat, which in its significance of the government of the governme complish this purpose. Here the same antageness were found at work. The genistic elements were found at work. The Pennsylvania, the keystone of the political constitution has created. One of its first acts from home and country, to seek an asylum THE DEMOCRAT & SENTINEL, is published over Thursday menning, in Ebensburg, Cambria Co., Ps., at $150 per annum, IF PAID IN ADVANCE, if not $2 will be charged.

And the proper of the political principles, and annum the principles and gave an earnest of what was to follo in the maturalization of foreigners. It remembers of the proper of the proper of the published and generous, but unfortunate people, after they had failed in their community, are equally entitled to the proper of the political arch, in the election of 1709, gloriously triumphed in her democratic principles, and gave an earnest of what was to follo in the maturalization of foreigners. It remembers of the community, are equally entitled to the proper of the political arch, in the election of 1709, gloriously triumphed in her democratic principles, and gave an earnest of what was to follo in the maturalization of foreigners. It remembers of the ediamond the causes assigned for declaring exertions to emancipate their bleeding countries.

In the fell of 1800 the ediamond the causes assigned for declaring exertions to emancipate their bleeding countries.

In the fell of 1800 the ediamond the causes assigned for declaring exertions to emancipate their bleeding countries. vor of retaining to the people and to the state governments, all power not necessarily requisite to the transaction of the business of the site to the transaction of the business of the son and Aaron Burr, the two highest canditations in examples of the land cific and enumerated powers, that were absolutely necessary for such a limited governlutely necessary for su has been stated, were for clothing the general government with almost unlimited powers, which, if granted, must have made it a conwhich, if granted, must have made it a conwhich if granted is a conwhich is a conwhich if granted is a conwhich is a conwhich is a conwhich if granted is a conwhich up the state governments entirely. The result of that convention was to establish a government for the Union, of unrivalled excellence, which combines the federative and the land exhibited the fullest evidence of their utter profligacy as a party. They whispered into the car of Aaron, who was a bold, lead man, as the sequal showed, that if he land exhibited the fullest evidence of them who were confined in distance and projudices of under the constitution of the Fellow-Citizens:—There have been antagonistical principles and antagonistical principles and antagonistical principles and antagonistical principles and necessary (not merely in governments, from their first institution to the present time. The one, taking from the present time. The one, taking from the present time. The one, taking from the present time. They never were able to mainpeople all power of self-government, and in effect denying their right as well as their capacity to govern themselves. The other, pacity to govern themselves. The other, pacity to govern themselves. The other pacity to govern themselves and their acts, has occupied more than the property administer than the property admini with certain inalienable rights; that amongst these are life. liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights governments, are instituted among men, are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the go- have before alludeds were there represented, fied our government, reformed the abuses in principles of humanity, procured its abolition out our consent. This restraint would doubt- ed into it. Confine the issue to that for which verned; that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is and it required the whole weight of that emiment becomes destructive of these ends, it is

and it required the whole weight of that emiment becomes destructive of these ends, it is

and it required the whole weight of that emiment becomes destructive of these ends, it is

and it required the whole weight of that emiment becomes destructive of these ends, it is

and it required the whole weight of that emiment becomes destructive of these ends, it is

Gen. Weshington, had been selected for the son. During the whole of the administration | right to interfere with what appropriately be- the democrats and adherents of Mr. Jeffer- banner on high, march boldly in solid column It was these antagonistical principles that led to our war of Independence. The great mass of the American people then asserted, distinctly and unequivocally, that all power distinctly and unequivocally and unequivocall was inherent in the people. That they not little better than an elective monarchy, with tion-the refusal to furnish men and means creating territories and admitting new states, This is the leaven that has leavened the country at least, are truisms which no man dor feepablicanism, the author of the Declaration of feepablicanism, the author of the Declaration of the despots of the several states of the reputation of the several states of the reputation of the several states of the regret transport of the several states of the reputation of the constitutions of the constitutions of the United States, which very soon practically the officed purpose of the constitutions of the Cinion were under consideration, this of the United States, which very soon practically to govern the constitutions of the Cinion were under consideration, this of the United States, which very soon practically to govern the constitutions of the Cinion were under consideration, this of the United States, which very soon practically to govern this office proposed to a state of the United States, which very soon practically to govern this office proposed to an arrow and the state of the United States, which very soon practically to govern himself.

When the constitutions of the Cinion were under consideration, this of the United States, which very soon practically to govern himself.

When the constitutions of the Cinion were under consideration, this of the United States without an exception, were streamed to an arrow and the state of the United States, which very soon practically to govern himself.

When the constitutions of the Cinion were under consideration, this of the United States without an exception, were streamed to read displayed to the constitution and that the displace that government thing. They have merely determined that the constitution has no fit to the constitution and that the old states of the United States and that the constitution have to the constitution have to the constitution have the constituti

In framing the constitution of the United influence of the bank combined, this admini- 1801, and the attempt to defeat the election pointedly and so properly prohibits. It would ion to the presidency, and the time of resid- the ministers of the church, was an especial States, these opponents of the people's rights stration soon began to show their disposition in Pennsylvania in 1838, by the acts connect- be supplied in Pennsylvania in 1838, by the acts connect- by the act endeavored to establish a consolidated govern- for arbitrary power By the sedition law ed with the Buckshot war, are but different tions It would be loosening the bonds which citizen brought back to five years, at which it soon after that event. general government all the powers and rights country from speaking their thoughts, and by the people as though they had not taken wrong upon a portion of our citizens, who have general government They wished to confer dates for president and vice president of the laws for the naturalization of foreigners; and fertile regions of America would afford them your fellowcitizens will not forget the patrotupon the general government only certain spe- United States, each receiving an equal num- in this as in all other acts they have carried a safe asylum from oppression," resolved upon ic part you took in the zecomplishment of ment or confederation. Their opponents, as sident and the latter the vice president. The Our adversaries are endeavoring to crawl ty of the "well-born," and a faithful represolidated government, and in the end swallow specimens of federal arrogance and tyranny, inimical to the constitution of the United sisted the emigration of these Irish patriots clusive privileges and monied corporations, a democratic principle, and makes it a government of compromise, in which the powers of ment of compromise and make the powers of the claiming in the language of our Declaration of Independence, "that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their creater."

The other, poses, and yet leaves to the people and to the language of our Declaration of Independence, "that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their creater."

The other, poses, and yet leaves to the people and to the language of our Declaration of the state all their rights uninfringed.

The immortal Washington was, by unani-popular elections men must be selected as the mous consent, placed at the head of the go-popular elections men must be selected as the mous consent, placed at the head of the go-popular elections men must be selected as the standard bearers of parties and of their principles.

The immortal Washington was, by unani-popular elections men must be selected as the member, tenow-entirence, that the motion of our long to the proposes, and yet leaves to the people and to the language of our Declaration of the revolution it existes in all the revolution it exists all their rights uninfringed.

The immortal Washington was, by unani-popular elections men must be selected as the course of the last year, in consequence of my the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and half seem most likely to effect their safety and half seem most likely to effect their safety and half seem the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and half seem the revolutionary army, during which, whenever possessed, they have almost in the remark, and shall stand in the model of republican government or the remark, and shall stand in the was originally intended to be, and generally by the general government on the subject. I am the model of the country introduced into it is a device of the enemy—a sorry to make the remark, and shall stand in the was originally intended to be, and generally by the general government of the subject of the enemy—a stepping stone to get themselves into power, which was originally intended to be, and generally by the general government of the subject of the enemy—a tit was originally intended to be, and generally by the general government for cight years, he voluntarily the middle state, have almost introduced into it is a device of the enemy—a tit was originally intended to be, and generally to make the remark, and shall stand in upon this subject, which prevented any action to the produced into it is a device of the enemy—a tit was originally intended to be, and generally to make the remark, and shall stand in the original produced into it is a device of the enemy—a tit was originally intended to be, and generally the produced into it is a device of the enemy—a tit was originally intended to be, and generally the produced into it is a device of the enemy—a tit was originally intended to be, and generally the produced into it is a device of the enemy—a tit was originally intend the powers of the government and the monied ter over again. The attempt to elect Burr in United States and of the several states so acts were repealed on Mr Jefferson's access-the convention of 1787-88 assembled to ac- of the people, was correct, assumed the name distinction between our native born and na- struggle, were engaged in imitating our ton wrote to the Roman catholics of the Unturalized citizens, other than those which the example, and being unsuccessful, were driven ited States as follows:

posed to the greatest danger.

tutes much of the political capital of our ad- of allegiance.

rable examples, yet its tendency is to corrupt, toms, of all aliens on board his vessel, specify- by which those not born on American soil the miserably city hearse conveyed the remains to succeed in their views to a greater extent of the democratic tendencies of the republi- and esteem, and so much is the power of that all such returns. This was virtually closing This was the spirit of our revolutionary faththan they ought to have done. When the can party. The Terms democrat and Jaco- name felt, that ancient federalism, now mothroes and the troubles of the revolution were bin were heaped upon them as names of redern whiggery, has often sought to steal it, important crisis of the Irish rebellion, when catholic, neither puritan nor quaker, but ex-are close imitators of the federalists of '98. present day, have refined upon the cruelty deputy sheriff, he killed a Creole by stabbing By the 3d section of the alien law, every and tyranny of the federalism of 98-for they him He escaped to California, and his old master or commander of any ship or vessel, would repeal all naturalization laws, and pre-mother, to whom New Orleans naturally bewhich shall enter any port of the United States vent foreigners from becoming citizens at all. came a place of extreme hatrod turned her shall immediately make report in writing to They would also add religious to political in- steps towards St Louis. the collector or other chief officer of the cus- tolerance. They would not only enact laws the country from which they shall have come, but they would deprive native as well as for- ing place. Such is life.

The third son, yet very young, remained Nearly every civilized nation has adopted with his mother, who found an asylumin Switof the several states, as well as of the people.

They claimed to establish a strong and magnificent government with numerous offices, and rights with ourselves and making a liberal naturalization laws, particularly where equal rights with ourselves and making a liberal naturalization laws, particularly where equal rights with ourselves and making a distinction which the constitution of the Unit-they have been situated as we are with a sparse distinction which the constitution of the Unit-they have been situated as we are with a sparse distinction which the constitution of the Unit-they have been situated as we are with a sparse distinction which the constitution of the Unit-they have been situated as we are with a sparse distinction which the constitution of the Unit-they have been situated as we are with a sparse distinction which the constitution of the Unit-they have been situated as we are with a sparse distinction which the constitution of the Unit-they have been situated as we are with a sparse distinction which the constitution of the Unit-they have been situated as we are with a sparse of the professions. Recognizing to their contraction of the Unit-they have been situated as we are with a sparse of the professions. The population is a specific to their professions. The population is a specific to the profession of the unit-they have been situated as we are with a sparse of the profession of the unit-they have been situated as we are with a sparse of the profession of the unit-they have been situated as we are with a sparse of the profession of the unit-they have been situated as we are with a sparse of the unit-they have been situated as we are with a sparse of the unit-they have been situated as we are with a sparse of the unit-they have been situated as we are with a sparse of the unit-they have been situated as we are We should guard against all attempts to acres of uncultivated lands. It is our policy New Orleans he soon found employment and high salaries, a standing army, and a large navy, and whenever they were in power, and had the opportunity, they carried these views into effect.

The other party, in the days of the revolution, was composed of those who asserted and the composed of the country at the c were invited to England and naturalized with- She succeeded in bringing with her six thous-Opposition to those of foreign birth consti- out any previous residence, or even an oath and dollars, which was spent by her son in a short time. About a year ago, he ended his versaries of the present day. In this they But the miserable know-nothings of the career in New Orleans being employed as

One day last week, early in the morning.

AT A young man of good standing recently proposed honorable marriage to a young

RE DECIDEDLY IGNORANT .- A man who professes to be a Know Nothing,

An old man speaking of his great know