

DEMOCRAT & SENTINEL

WHITE & DEVINE, Editors and Proprietors. CHARLES WIMMER, Printer.

THURSDAY MORNING OCTOBER 5.

FOR GOVERNOR, WILLIAM BIGLER. FOR SUPREME JUDGE, JEREMIAH S. BLACK. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, HENRY S. MOTT.

FOR ASSEMBLY, WILLIAM A. SMITH, WM. T. DAUGHERTY. FOR PROTHONOTARY, GEORGE C. K. ZAHM. FOR REGISTER & CLERK, JAMES J. WILL. FOR COMMISSIONER, NICHOLAS NAGLE. FOR AUDITOR, MICHAEL D. WAGONER. FOR POOR HOUSE DIRECTORS, William Orr, Michael Maguire, Anthony Lambaugh.

Democrat: Read Bigler's Address! Read it and preserve it; it contains a mine of sound truth and Republican Doctrine.

Alison White, Esq. We are pleased to see that this gentleman has received the Democratic nomination for Congress in the District composed of Clinton, Centre, etc. He will undoubtedly be elected, and will be an honor to the Pennsylvania Delegation.

Hon. Henry S. Mott. We publish in another column two articles from the Pennsylvanian, in relation to the charge brought against our candidate for Canal Commissioner, of being connected with the so-called order of "Know-Nothings." When the charge was made, it naturally excited some attention and inquiry among the voters of our county. The charge has been thoroughly investigated and we have the satisfaction of knowing that it is altogether without foundation; it was nothing more than a blind get-up by our opponents, to distract attention from the merits of our candidate.

We ask the voters of Cambria to give the articles from the Pennsylvanian a careful perusal; they will be found clear and conclusive; our State ticket is free from the slightest stain of suspicion.

GEORGE S. KING. It has long been a subject of complaint with Mr. King, that he could not obtain a nomination from his party, for Assembly, Congress or some other equally valuable and responsible situation; during the last ten years, his efforts have been most strenuous, and his complaints at want of success bitter and unceasing.

In June, Mr. King received the nomination of the Whig County Convention of Cambria; some few weeks afterwards he received a nomination from the so-called Temperance Conference, of Cambria, Bedford and Fulton; this nomination was made altogether "upon the sly," little or nothing was said about it in Cambria county, particularly in the northern townships, in which localities it was feared Mr. King's prospects would be injured, should this fact come to the knowledge of his party; now, however, on the eve of the election, the fact is proclaimed, and the tickets as struck at the whig offices have the names of George S. King and Peter Schell upon them; Mr. Schell has heretofore been a good Loco Foco, and is yet so far as questions of National and State policy are concerned.

Mr. King received the nomination No. 3 from the "KNOW-NOTHINGS" at the poll of their members in this district, held within the last two weeks; as of course they give the preference to members of their own body, Mr. King had very little trouble in making the point; most candidates are puzzled to put on one good face; Mr. King has rather an advantage, he can put on three; a celebrated character known as Judas Iscariot, has been "damned to everlasting fame" by the epithet "Kno-faced"—if Judas lived in our days, his time would be "beat by one," were he to come in contact with Mr. King, or any of the politicians of the new WHIG-TEMPERANCE-KNOW-NOTHING school.

We have a suspicion that Mr. King will find that his friends have done him honor over much; he will be crushed under the load of the favors heaped upon him.

The new Board of Commissioners of the Washington Asylum, composed of Know-Nothings, on Saturday last, summarily decapitated their Secretary, John H. Noyes, because he is a S. P. B., although American born.—Pittsb. Union.

JAMES J. WILL. We wish to say a word or two in relation to our candidate for Register and Recorder, a worthy young man who has been vilified and abused from the moment of his nomination until the present time; nothing has been left untried by his enemies, and the enemies of the Democratic party, to blacken his character; a persecution has been got up against him, disgraceful not only to those engaged in it, but even to the community which would allow it to pass unheeded.

Mr. Will is a young man of good business qualifications, industrious, moral, and although not versed in the tricks and manoeuvres of politicians, will compare advantageously in every respect with his Whig and "Know-Nothing" competitor, Mr. Barbour.

Among the malicious charges which have been so industriously circulated by Mr. Will's enemies, is this: that he is a native American, Know-Nothing, or whatever name they may give themselves; now we know that this charge is absolutely false; Mr. Will has no connection and never had with any set of men professing such principles—principles upon which he is in common with the members of his party, looks with detestation.

This charge has been got up and circulated, only for the purpose of distracting attention from Barbour, who is now positively known to be a member of the Know-Nothing order, and to have received the nomination from the Know-Nothing lodges in this county within the last two weeks—when those lodges or councils were polled for the purpose of selecting a county ticket.

We say that it is positively known, that Mr. Barbour was selected as the KNOWNOTHING candidate for Register and Mr. King for Assembly.

Yet, these same men shamelessly turn about and try to make political capital against Mr. Will, by charging him with being a member of the Anti-American, unconstitutional association to which they themselves belong! a charge so outrageously, so insanely false, that it is a matter of astonishment, that any man of common intelligence ever listened to it.

This crusade against Mr. Will has produced its natural consequence—a reaction in his favor. The people of our county are actuated by a sense of justice; they will not suffer an honest, deserving young man to be tomahawked, to make a sport for unprincipled politicians! On next Tuesday his friends will be found at their posts; we can assure his enemies that they will have a rough time of it.

THE FINAL RALLY. DEMOCRATS OF CAMBRIA! and all others to whom our paper may come! This is our last issue previous to the election and it is our duty to make a last earnest appeal to your candor and sense, as well as to your enthusiasm in a noble cause.

All the powers of the enemy, fair and foul, overt and secret, faint or strong, have been put forth to overcome a conquering Democracy and to give the great state of Pennsylvania, like a shorn Samson, into the hands of the Philistine whigs.

We must again triumph, we can and will succeed.

To do this let every Democrat, every lover of his state, every admirer of free institutions, religious toleration and just laws come manfully to the work. Vote the ticket as you find it at our mast head. Be sure to lead off with BIGLER, our noble executive, against whom all the scrutiny of the slanderous and beleaguering class that oppose us, have not been able to raise a single accusation much less to sustain one. Follow BIGLER with MOTT, than whom no man ever bore himself more nobly through a canvass, although detraction with her thousand lies has bayed upon his track from the very outset.

Follow Bigler and Mott with that model man and Chief Justice, Hon. Jer. S. Black, whose spotless integrity and great legal acumen the breath of whig falsehood has never had the temerity to so much as assail. Then go down the column leading the county ticket with the veteran SMITH and his colleague DAUGHERTY; take ZAHM and WILL, NAGLE and WAGONER, ORR, MAGUIRE and LAMBAUGH. Examine your tickets as our revolutionary sires examined their flints; let nothing divert you from your purpose to go to the polls.—Go on and all!—and our state will be placed beyond the track of traitors,—the Keystone of the democratic as well as of the federal arch.

DEMOCRACY OF CAMBRIA!!!

On next Tuesday, you will be called upon to discharge the most sacred and important right belonging to you as citizens of a free Commonwealth; the privilege of depositing in the ballot-box a silent but decisive expression of your judgment in reference to the official conduct of Gov. Bigler. The Democratic party presents him to you for your suffrages for a second term. Three years ago you endorsed his devotion to the great principles of the democratic faith—his integrity as a man and his capacity and fitness for a faithful discharge of the responsible duties of Chief Magistrate of the Commonwealth. If he has discharged those duties ably and with an eye single to the best interests of the State, he deserves and will receive your cordial support; if he has failed to do so, you, in the exercise of a right enjoyed only by freemen, will wrest from him the power which you aided to confer and transfer it to another.

Has Gov. Bigler proved recreant to the high trust reposed in him? Has he shown want of capacity or lacked in steadfast devotion to the cherished rights and dearest interests of our citizens? Let his official acts answer and to them we confidently appeal. He may have committed errors, for that is one of the frailties of humanity, but we claim, and his political enemies dare not deny its justice, that in all things, he has proven himself the fast friend of the people—the fearless and eloquent advocate of liberty in its largest and most comprehensive meaning—a democrat in principle as well as in action.—He seeks not your votes by basely pandering to the stealthy efforts of a midnight secret association, whose base purpose it is to rob a portion of you of your political as well as your natural rights. He is not a bigot. He will not aid in erecting a stake at which to immolate his neighbor because he does not worship at the same altar with himself; nor will he attempt to degrade and dishonor a man whose misfortune it is not to have first beheld the light of the sun on American soil. He can look beyond the narrow walls of his own Church, and far beyond the limits of his own country and meet the exile from foreign oppression as a true American ought to meet him, with a welcome hand to a peaceful and hospitable home—not with fanatical rage to a political grave. He will neither strike down the adherents of a particular faith, nor the helpless and unfortunate, who fleeing from tyranny and thanking God that his feet have at last touched the soil of freedom, finds in his dismay that the spirit of persecution, is before as well as behind him and "meets with a scourge when he hoped for an asylum."—It scorns a secret organization, "aspiring to override both Constitution and laws," which substitutes for the olive branch of peace the sword and dagger of relentless bigotry.—If his opponent JAMES POLLOCK is not grossly slandered by a member of this detestable order. It has been charged upon him by the democratic press from one end of the State to the other—not a vague and uncertain accusation based upon mere rumor—but a bold, distinct and pointed declaration of its truth—but it has called forth no denial from the Whig candidate nor from any of his friends.

Are you prepared to see the reins of government placed in the hands of such a man? Are you prepared to see the glorious standard of Bigler and democracy with, the words, "Civil and religious liberty" inscribed upon it, trailing in the dust and its place supplied by the piratical and prescriptive banner of Know-Nothingism?

Democrats of Cambria! Stand by your candidate—stand by your principles—stand by the Constitution and the laws as your fathers made them, and on next TUESDAY proclaim in a voice of thunder to JAMES POLLOCK and his Know-Nothing conspirators, that here on the Summit of the Alleghenies religious bigotry can find no home—no resting place—that so far as you are concerned your neighbor shall live in peace and worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience—that no man shall be vexed and persecuted because of his birth—that you are still the same untimid "frosty sons of thunder"—in favor of equal privileges and equal laws—that you "know your rights and knowing dare maintain them."

READ! READ!! We invite special attention to the following exposure of the designs of the Know Nothing; the comments of the Argus express so well our views that we have copied them entire. Read and reflect!

The following project for a law to carry out fully the aims and purposes of the Know-Nothing is being discussed at the present time in their lodges. The draft emanated from the Grand Council and was sent to the subordinate lodges for their concurrence. The paper from which this copy was taken is in the hand writing of the Secretary of the Grand Council and came into the possession of its present owner in such a way as, while it involves no duty of secrecy, still gives to it all the certainty of legal proof. Read the proposed law to be enacted if the State Legislature passes into the hands of the Know-Nothings:

Sec. 1. Be it enacted, ac., That from and after the passage of this act, it shall not be lawful for any person not born within the limits of the United States of America to hold or exercise any office, whether commissioned or otherwise, in the militia of this Commonwealth, under a penalty of five hundred dollars upon conviction thereof in any Court of this Commonwealth.

Sec. 2. Be it enacted, ac., That it shall not be lawful for any person not born within the limits of the United States of America, to hold or exercise the office of President, Cashier, Director, Trustee, Clerk, Engineer, or any other office, place or employment in any Bank or manufacturing, Railroad, Insurance, Coal or other Company incorporated by any law of this Commonwealth, under a penalty of five hundred dollars upon conviction thereof, or of undergoing an imprisonment in the county jail for one year at the discretion of the Court.

Sec. 3. Be it enacted, ac., That from and after the passage of this act, it shall not be lawful for any person not born within the limits of the United States of America, to hold any commission as an Auctioneer, or license as a Pedlar, nor shall any person act as an agent for any foreign Manufacturing or Insurance Company, or other agency whatsoever, under the same penalties as are prescribed in the second section of this act.

Sec. 4. Be it enacted, ac., That from and after the passage of this act, it shall not be lawful for any person not born within the limits of the United States of America, to officiate as a Clergyman, Minister, Rabbi, Elder, Bishop, or any other Ecclesiastical or other Church office, without having first obtained from the Governor of this Commonwealth a license to do and perform the same.

Sec. 5. Be it enacted, ac., That from and after the passage of this act, it shall not be lawful for any person not born within the limits of the United States of America, to travel within this Commonwealth without having first obtained a passport, to be granted by the Secretary of the Commonwealth, (if he should deem it proper,) containing therein a full and accurate description of his or her person, age, birthplace and occupation, which must be shown if required to do so by any mayor, alderman, magistrate, justice of the peace, constable, police officer, railroad conductor or agent, stage driver or captain of any canal boat, under the same penalties as are prescribed in the second section of this act.

Here is a fair and faithful exhibit of the real intentions of this secret order with which the Democracy is contending. Not only are certain citizens to be deprived of all political power and rights guaranteed to them by the Constitution, but their civil and business rights are to be attacked and destroyed, if the majority of the Legislature is with the Know-Nothing in their anti-republican measures. No man who is not a Native, can hold or exercise any office in the militia of the State, or in any banking, railroad, coal or manufacturing company. This is the proposition in the two first sections of the proposed law. Is not this a step further than our sober, reflecting citizens are willing to follow the lead of a secret order in this free land? Can it be possible that the civil rights of a large portion of industrious, intelligent, meritorious citizens are to be broken up, and themselves reduced to a condition lower than the serfs of Russia—for they can purchase their civil freedom—a boon which is to be denied American citizens by this proposed act of Know-Nothing despotism.

But this attack does not terminate with civil and social liberty. The bitter spirit of religious animosity is seen in the 4th section, which proposes to make a direct union of Church and State, by prohibiting any man, not born in the United States, from exercising the holy calling of a minister of the gospel, without first having obtained a license from the Governor of the Commonwealth. What does this mean but mingling the affairs of the State with those of the church? If all the ministers of the gospel who were not born in this country, are to bow to the Governor of the Commonwealth for the liberty to preach, look where it will end.—Messrs. Chambers and Newton, and thousands of other pious and patriotic clergymen will be daily at the mercy of the Governor. He can exercise a censorship over the pulpit of the most despotic character. One dash of his pen and hundreds of congregations in the State will be deprived. We need not argue this point; it is plain to every man of sense, that this proposition, of the Know Nothing order is a direct effort to bring about a union of Church and State.

The 5th section is designed to establish in this State that system of espionage into the affairs of every man not born on the soil, which is so much detested in Europe. No adopted citizen of the United States, by the provisions of this section, can travel in this State, without first having procured a passport from the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and then he is to be subjected to the prying eye and petty officiousness of every under-agent of the different localities through which he may pass, for the lines of communication used in traveling. What effect will this have upon the business of this Commonwealth, to say nothing of the monstrous attempt to introduce a feature of despotism into this free country? Does not every man see that the passage of such a law would cause this State to be shunned although a pestilence lingered in each valley and walked with free foot upon the mountain tops? No man will subject himself to the trouble of procuring a passport, and then to the intolerant exactions of a Know-Nothing official. The tide of trade and travel will be turned aside, and men will seek in other States markets for their produce, and a mart at which to make their purchases. The great lines of internal improvement which now bring the capital of other States to us, will be comparatively useless under the operation of such a law as that proposed to be enacted by the Know-Nothings.

The principles contained in this Know-Nothing law are such as should challenge the attention of all men, both native and adopted, as one class cannot be attacked in their civil and religious rights without the other feeling the blow. The fact is now plain and apparent that it is the intention of this secret society to establish, by law, a union of Church and State, as well as to disfranchise every man, who comes under the ban of their displeasure, from following his legitimate calling in peace and security. The Constitution is never even hinted at in this law, though it is well known that if passed it would violate every principle of that instrument.

In view of all these facts, we ask all the lovers of this free form of government if they are willing the Legislature should pass into the power of the Know-Nothings, and thus the passage of this law be made a fixed fact?

It is for the freedom of the old Keystone State to any whether DESPOTISM or LIBERTY shall rule this Commonwealth!

THE NEW CLOTHING EMPORIUM.—We call attention to the advertisement, of Messrs. Evans & Huggins. They have received an extensive assortment of ready made clothing, which for quality and style, they say cannot be excelled in the county. The new store room they have erected is admirably adapted for the business, its appearance both internally and externally presents a very neat appearance. The firm are generally well known, which being the fact, will bring them an increased custom.

LOUISVILLE, September 30.—The steamer Malta sunk in the Ohio river. One cabin, and 20 or 30 deck passengers are supposed to be lost.

Col. Henry S. Mott. We are gratified to learn that the utter falsity of the charge which has been vaguely made against this gentleman of a connection with the order commonly called Know-Nothings is now generally understood. We know Mr. Mott well. He is a Democrat from sincere conviction, warmly attached to the principles of our party, and we do not believe he would prostitute himself by joining such an organization to be elected to any office in the nation. He is made of sterner stuff and with those who know him intimately and know how ardently and sincerely he has ever been attached to, and how thoroughly his whole nature is imbued with, Democratic sentiments, any such allegation against him is simply ridiculous. The charge was never sincerely made by the Whig press, but merely as a foil to the true accusation against Judge Pollock. If any whig editor possessed positive information upon which to base such a charge, he must necessarily have been enabled to have ascertained from the same source, when and where Mr. M. joined their order, but no one has ever attempted to make any such specific allegation; for the reason that its utter falsity would promptly be shown. Independent of Mr. Mott's unequivocal denial of the charge in his letter, he has repeatedly done so in private circles in a manner which carried conviction to the minds of every one, and which would satisfy the most skeptical man in the universe. But in addition to this, we have his own personal authority, not only for declaring in the most positive terms that he never joined their organization, but that he has never been officially informed of their determination to make him their candidate.

We desire further to state, that we think, we have given our readers, during the last few months, conclusive evidence of our ability to ascertain the secret movements of the Know-Nothings, and to lay bare their most hidden operations. And we most emphatically declare, that we have unequivocally learned from the same sources which have furnished us with the information we have published heretofore, that Col. Mott does not belong to their order. The well-informed portion of the Know-Nothings are perfectly aware of this fact; although some of them may be misinformed in regard to it.

If the Know-Nothings support Col. Mott, it will be solely because Mr. Darsie was born in Scotland, and their oaths require them to prevent his election, if they can. It is, with them, a choice of evils between Mott, a Democrat who has no connection whatever with their order, and Darsie, a member of the class they are sworn to proscribe.

We think we have done our full share in exposing Know-Nothingism to public odium, and we have not the slightest disposition to shield any man, be he Democrat or Whig, who has joined their unholy combination for the endorsement he justly merits. But knowing as we do, Mr. Mott's entire innocence of any such connection, we trust that no Democrat will allow an unjust and groundless suspicion to deter him from giving his support to a man in every way worthy of it, and a man who is eminently well qualified for the faithful discharge of the duties of the office for which he has been nominated.

Col. Henry S. Mott.—The Lie Refuted. A chance for a law suit is now offered to any Whig editor who wants one. From our personal acquaintance with Col. Mott, we have no doubt he will keep his word as promised in the Pennsylvanian of the 28th ult., from which we make the following extract. It is rather long, but we ask our readers to read the whole of it. It proves beyond a doubt that the charge that Mr. Mott is a Know-Nothing, is a base lie:

"That Col. Mott never joined and is not now a member of their organization, and that he has no sympathy with their principles, is a fact as well known to the well informed portion of the Know-Nothings as it is to ourselves. The following resolutions of the Democracy of Pike county, the home of Mr. Mott, at the recent county meeting, fully show the sentiments of the party in that region, and how they view the charge that has been made against him:

Resolved, That Henry S. Mott, our nominee for Canal Commissioner, is in every respect qualified for the office, and will carry into our Canal Board a sound economical practical policy, and an unyielding hostility to extravagant expenditures upon our Public Works, which will be highly beneficial to the State; that this Democracy is vouched for by us as Pike county Democracy, which is alike unshaken by abolitionism or Know-Nothing conspiracies.

Resolved, That all secret political conspiracies having for their object the proscription of any class of our fellow-citizens from their rights and privileges guaranteed to them by our Constitution and Laws, are contrary to the spirit of our Republican Institutions, and calculated to excite enmity and prejudice among men; That the society called Know-Nothings combines all that is objectionable in organizations of this kind and should be shunned by every well-wisher of our country.

"And to clinch the matter at once, we desire to say, that when we first made the charge of Know-Nothingism against Judge Pollock, we distinctly invited a prosecution for libel in case he denied its truth, but we feared a legal investigation of the matter, knowing, as he did full well, the truth of our allegation; while on the other hand, we have Mr. Mott's authority for declaring that whenever any person in the State makes a direct, specific, and circumstantial charge against him, he will at once institute against it a prosecution for libel, so that the whole matter may be thoroughly investigated. He meets the issue in a manly spirit, and we here now challenge any paper in this State to make the charge in the manner we have done against Judge Pollock, and assure them and our readers that it will at once result in a strict legal investigation of the whole subject, and prove with all the satisfactory clearness of a judicial examination the utter and entire falsity of this base and unfounded accusation against Col. Mott. So far as the action of the Know-Nothings is concerned, Mr. Mott has never been officially informed of their determination to make him their candidate, nor has he in any way made any exertions or pledges to secure such action on their part, nor in any manner whatever compromised his character as a Democrat by forming entangling alliances with any organization outside of our own."

Religious Intolerance. The Pittsburgh Union says: "It is seldom we find anything in the New York Tribune, so much to the point as the following. The Editor is speaking of the ridiculous warfare which a new and dangerous organization in this country, is trying to foment between Protestants and Catholics—and the pretended fear which some profess, that Catholicism and Republican Governments are antagonistical. He says:

"Truth compels us to add that the oldest Republic now existing, is that of San Marino, not only Catholic, but wholly surrounded by the especial dominion of the Popes, who might have crushed it like an egg-shell at any time these last thousand years—but they didn't. The only Republic we ever traveled in besides our own, is Switzerland, half of its cantons or States entirely Catholic, yet never that we have heard of unfaithful to the cause of freedom. They were nearly all Roman Catholics, from the southern cantons of Switzerland, whom Austria so ruthlessly expelled from Lombardy after the suppression of the last revolt in Milan, accounting them natural born Republicans and Revolutionists; and we suppose Austria is not a Know-Nothing on this point. We never heard the Catholics of Hungary accused of backwardness in the late glorious struggle of their country for freedom, though its leaders were Protestant, fighting against a leading Catholic power avowedly in favor of religious as well as Civil liberty. And chivalric unhappy Poland almost wholly Catholic, has made as gallant struggles for freedom as any other nation while of the three despotisms that crushed her, but one was Catholic. We do not hope to stop the crusade of intolerance and violence now setting against the Catholics, calling for their disfranchisement, and threatening their temporary exclusion from all public trusts. Epidemics of this sort must have their course and this one has some truth and a large amount of honest bigotry, on which to base its operations. Quite a number whose religion never till now did them much good or harm will ride into office on the back of their resolute Protestantism; and that will be the end of the matter. The Naturalization Laws will remain essentially as they are; and Know-Nothingism will give place to some new fashion in politics, perhaps equally factitious, after a few changes of the moon."

THE DEMOCRACY AROUSED! Meeting in Summerhill Township.

The Democracy of Summerhill and the adjoining townships, assembled in council at the house of James D. Hamilton, Esq., in Jefferson, on Saturday the 30th ult.

The Meeting was organized by calling Col. JOHN KEAN, of Summerhill, to the Chair, and appointing Gen. Joseph McDonald, of Cambria, John McCoy, of Summerhill, Jesse Patterson, of Johnstown, Patrick Bracken, of Conemaugh, Caspar Dimond, of Summerhill, Michael Stewart, of Conemaugh borough, and L. Schrott, of Carroll, Vice Presidents, and William Palmer and B. R. Drake, of Summerhill, Secretaries.

The Meeting was then ably addressed by Gen. Joseph McDonald, C. D. Murray, Esq., John S. Rhey, Esq., and Dr. William A. Smith. During their remarks they were frequently interrupted by bursts of enthusiastic applause. The friends of the Constitution in Summerhill are thoroughly aroused, and will give a good account of themselves on the second Tuesday of October.

The following Preamble and resolutions were offered by C. D. Murray, Esq., and unanimously adopted: Whereas the annual recurrence of a general election is calculated to promote a spirit of enquiry, and excite a feeling of deep interest in the hearts of the people, and depositories of democratic faith and of enthusiastic And whereas we, a portion of the freemen of Cambria County, deeply imbued with a sense of our responsibility to the State and the Nation, feel that we are authorized to proclaim from the "house tops," that the "Union is safe," and that the State and her people, are in the safe channel of democratic success. The rule which has contributed to her success, expanded her power, and secured her citizens in the enjoyment of their rights, that rule, we feel, is bound to be perpetuated. And as the followers of good men who have laid the track of democratic progress, we are here to endorse the principles of Jefferson, the principles on which the government was administered by Madison, Monroe and Jackson. Therefore,

Resolved, That the confidence reposed in the integrity and ability of William Bigler by the people of Pennsylvania, when they elevated him to the exalted position of Governor of the state, was not misplaced. He has proved himself to be a profound statesman, a sincere democrat, a man for the people, without the demagogue, and the democracy of the Mountains, will endorse his administration, on the second Tuesday of October next, in language not to be misunderstood.

Resolved, That the abilities and experience of Hon. Jeremiah S. Black, eminently qualified by him for discharging the important duties of Judge of the Supreme Court, and we pledge him our united and enthusiastic support.

True to the Cause. A good story was told yesterday by a friend of ours, who has been recently traveling through the interior of the State on business. When stopping for a few days near the Tennessee line, the impression got out that he was traversing the State for the purpose of organizing the Know-Nothing party in Kentucky, and forthwith he was waited upon by a number of natives, who desired to be initiated as a preliminary step to the organization of a council. After the necessary precaution he proceeded to administer the oath, as follows: to wit:—"Do you solemnly swear before Almighty God, that you will never divulge the secrets of this order; that you will use all the power, moral and physical, with which the ruler of the Universe has endowed you, to carry out the behests of the order whatever they may be; that you will even go so far as to assist in the assassination of your own father and mother, brothers and sisters, if required so to do, by the Chief of the Council, which it is now proposed to organize."
