APPOLOGY .- No paper was issued from this office last week in consequence of not receiving our usual stock of paper in time for publication.

Congress. A few days since Hon, Joseph R. Chandler, a whig member from the city of Philadelphia, in reply to a speech of Mr. Banks, of Massachusetts, favored the assembled intelligence of the nation with one of the most brilliant forensic efforts, that has ever echoed through the Halls of the House of Representatives. The occasion was one calculated to impress an honest and intelligent statesman with the clearest convictions of those duties which patriotism inspires. The effort of Mr. Chandler was made against fanaticism, persecution, and an ungodly "sortie," made upon the constitution of the country, by the unsanctified sons of the treasonable fleet to desecrate the free soil of America. We will publish the speech entire as soon as it arrives, and can promise our patrons an intellectual treat in its perusal.

sires, who hung out the blue-lights from the shores of Connecticut, to light the way for the British Pennsylvania.

This week ushers in a new Executive of the Keystone State. Mr. Pollock took the mantle of power upon himself on last Tuesday, and whether in three years from this time it will be indignantly "torn from his shoulders," is a question, upon which the people will act when the period arrives.

It is vain to speculate upon what may be the prominent measures of the in-coming Administration. Time alone will develope them. Any honest effort to contribute to the advantage of the State, and perpetuate our free institutions, which it may occur to the new incumbent of Gubernatorial honors to make, should meet with the cordial co-operation of the democracy.

While upon the other hand, if he gives himself up to the "new lights," who seek to improve upon the constitution, and to break down all the bariers which reason and justice have interposed against fanaticism and fury, then he shall deserve the judgment, that just as surely awaits him, of being damned to the infamy of an afflicting remembrance.

A Rebuke.

At the recent elections in Pittsburg for Municipal officers, and for Mayor of that city, a signal rebuke was administered to that unholy and unconstitutional compact of political cut-throats, y-cleped Know Nothings. That rebuke was a signal triumph of law, order, and the constitution, over the unhallowed combination of a secret conclave. To give a certain prestige of success to the operations of the Know Nothings, a convention of the Foul Birds assembled in Pittsburg a few days preceeding the election of Mayor. The daily papers of that city hindered the infliction of the moral curse which would have been the result of their triumph. Timely notice that pick pockets Lewis and Browne. were abroad, and that the house keepers of that city were in danger of losing silver spoons, attracted attention to the ingress of the suspicious fraternity who congregated at the Masonic Hall. The citizens of Pittsburg deserve the thanks of the whole country, for their patriotic and successful opposition to the "nix wiesers."

Convention of School Teachers. This body assembled in the Court room in Eb ensburg, pursuant to a call issued by the County Superintendent, R. L. Johnston, Esq. They met on Friday last, and nearly all the districts were represented. The object of the assemblage was stated by Mr. Johnston, when upon motion, Mr. H. Ely was Clergymen in Politics.

Of the new members elected to the Massachusetts Legislature by Know Nothing influence sixty are clergymen. Forty-eight of these are Methodists, four Presbyterians, four Baptists, two Lutherns, and two Universalists. Is not this a startling Is not this a startling fact? Over one-sigth of the Legislature of Massachusetts composed of clergymen, and those clergymen almost entirely of the Methodist church. To what does all this point, if not to the real truth what does all this point, if not to the real truth that the fountain head of Know Nothingism is in that church, and its purpose to obtain possession of political power? Why else would forty-eight clergymen leave their pulpits, and enter the Know Nothing lodges, accept of nominations for the Legislature, and thus sink ted and elected these forty-eight Methodist elergymen to the legislature of Massachusetts, nor was it chance that introduced the name of Judge McLean, the head of the Methodist denomination in the United States, into the National Convention of Know Nothings at Cincinnati. The dullest intellect cannot fail to see the concert of action necessary to produce such effects in different portions of the Union. The truth is the Methodist church is to be 03- We have just received and insert in this number of our paper the notice of the nuptials of our young friend Sydney Russel. The Methodist College at Carlisle is a nursery school for the dissemination of Know Nothing doctrines, and one of its Professors the chief officer in the order in this Commonwealth .-And thus it is in every State. The same religious denomination, whose directing fingers can be seen in the politics of the Old Keystone Commonwealth, has left the saliva of its proscription and bigotry upon the track of every political contest both State or municipal. The same clergymen who with affected horror weekly declaim against all Jesuitical attempts to make the State subservient to the church are nightly meeting in the well secured rooms of the Know Nothing order, and there plotting for the purpose of doing the very thing against the Constitution, and that equality of civil and religious rights and privileges which are the corner stone of our free form of Government. Is not this fact well sustained by the fearful number of clergymen returned to the Legislature of Massachusetts? Undoubtedly, and we ask, is it not time for every sincere clergyman, and all who feel an interest in the great cause of religion, and who are undefiled with worldly contact, to take the alarm, and nip this alliance of politics and religion in the bud If our halls of Congress and State Legislature are to be turned into Missionary schools to carry out the prescriptive and bigoted views fice. of Know Nothingism, and the scheme for uniting church and State is to be made the order of the day, let the fact be promulgated to the country at once, that every man may act understandingly when he again deposites his

There was quite a full attendance of the members of the Democratic State Committee in this city on the 26th inst., and the procecdings were conducted with spirit and unanimity. The meeting of the Committee will, no doubt produce the happiest results. Mr. Bonham presided, and E. B. Chase of Susquehanna, acted as Secretary pro tem. After a full and free interchange of opinion in relation to the present position and duties of the Democratic party, the following resolutions and address were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the immutable truths embodied in our principles, which have been faithfully and successfully carried out by the Democratic party, and by which the glory, honor, and prosperity of the country have been upheld and secured, forbid and preclude the possibility of our making any treaty with error, or forming alliances for the sake of ex-

We stand up as we A large delegation of the veterans of 1812 left | have ever stood for equal laws and equal rights; for such principles as these, we are and must continue to be invincible. The idea that the American people will ever deliberately con-sent to see the great doctrines for which their fathers fought and died in the revolution, overthrown for the sake of giving office to a few politicians, is simply preposterous. If any true Democrat sees anything to fear in the A very handsome monument, twenty feet high signs of the times, let him add to his faith has just been finished by Mr. Baird, at a cost of courage. The good sense, the honesty and short time the Democracy will be stronger than ever. We can afford to go into a minority for a season, and then emerge, as we shall do, with brighter hopes and prospects for the future. We will soon teach anew, mous Miss Courts accompanied them, and made the lesson so often read and so fully known her appearance on the first right Median institutions of a free country safe.

Remember that the Democracy has completely quelled its most dangerous enemies. The political superstitions and greedy infatu-ation which threatened to put the industry of the people under the dominion of banking and manufacturing capital, are almost entirely ex-tirpated. The party that advocated those dangerous doctrines, with so much energy, During the past week seven or eight hundred talent and coldness, and with which we stru
