THE GREEK SLAVE!
Bacchante, Venus, Flora, Hebe, and the Dancing Girl!
THE above celebrated Statues, together with FIFTEEN STATUETTES IN BRONZE, and several hundred MAGNIFICENT OIL PAINTINGS, form the collection of prizes to be distributed among the members of the Cosmopolitan Art Association at the first annual distribution, in January next.
The Cosmopolitan Art and Literary Association, Organized for the Encouragement and General Diffusion of Literature and the Fine Arts, on a new and original plan.
The Committee of Management have the pleasure of announcing that the First Annual Distribution will take place on the 20th of January next, on which occasion there will be distributed or allotted to members several hundred Works of Art, among which is the original and world renowned Statue of the GREEK SLAVE, by H. Powers, costing over five thousand dollars. Together with the beautiful Statues of BACCHANTE, VENUS, HEBE, FLORA, and the DANCING GIRL, and fifteen Statuettes in Bronze, imported from Paris; also, a large collection of OIL PAINTINGS, comprising some of the best productions of celebrated American and Foreign Artists.
Plan for the Current Year.
The payment of three dollars constitutes any one a member of this Association, and entitles him to the Knickerbocker Magazine for one year, and also a ticket in the distribution of the Statuary and Paintings which are to be allotted to members in January.
Persons taking five memberships are entitled to five of the Magazines one year, and to six tickets in the distribution.
Persons, on becoming members, can have their Magazine commence with any month they choose, and rely on its being mailed to them promptly on the first of every month, direct from New York.
The net proceeds derived from the sale of memberships are devoted to the purchase of Works of Art for the ensuing year.
Books open to receive names at the Eastern office, New York, or Western office, Sandusky.
The Gallery of Art is located at Sandusky, (the Western office of the Association,) where superb Granite Buildings have been erected for it, and in whose spacious saloons the splendid collection of Statuary and Paintings is exhibited.
THE ADVANTAGES SECURED by becoming a member of this Association are—
1st. All persons receive the full value of their subscription at the start, in the shape of sterling Magazine Literature.
2d. Each member is contributing toward purchasing choice Works of Art, which are to be distributed among themselves, and are at the same time encouraging the Artists of the country, disbursing thousands of dollars through its agency.
Persons remitting funds for membership, should mark letters, "Registered," and state the month with which they wish their magazines to commence, and also their post office address in full, on the receipt of which, a certificate of membership, together with the magazine desired, will be forwarded to any part of the country.
Those who purchase Magazines at Bookstores will observe that by joining this Association, they receive the Magazine and Free Ticket in the annual distribution, all at the same price they now pay for the Magazine alone.
Illustrated Catalogues of the whole collection sent on application, free of charge.
99-Offices of the Association, at the Knickerbocker Magazine office, 248 Broadway, New York, and at No. 166 Water street, Sandusky, Ohio.—Address, (at either office,) for membership, C. L. DERBY, Actuary C. A. & L. A.

JOHN M'COY has just received at Lytle's old stand, in Jefferson, a well selected stock of consisting of Dry Goods, Notions, Hardware, Queensware, Cedar Ware, Ready Made Clothing, and a large lot of Boots and Shoes, for Men's, Boys, Ladies' and Misses' wear.
Groceries of the very best quality always on hand.
His motto is, "Small Profits, Quick Sales, and Ready Pay." Having bought for cash, he is determined not to be undersold. He respectfully invites his friends and the public generally to call and examine his stock before purchasing elsewhere.
N. B. I am constantly receiving goods by express.
JOHN M'COY.
