PHILADELPHIA, April 22, 1855. The 8th Anniversary of the battle of Cerro Gordo was appropriately celebrated by the returned volunteers of the Mexican war, by dedicating the new Scott Legion Monument, erected by the State in Glenwood Cemetry, to mark the last resting place of a number of their gallant companions who have already " shuffled off this mortal coil," and where they, too, will find their last earthly resting place. About one hundred and fifty of them were in the procession, most of them still quite youthful in their appearance, but deeply tinged with the the U.S. Consuls included, are to be immediately bronze hue of a Mexican sun. They were accompanied by a large military escort of our volunteer companies, forming a very handsome display, and Dr. Joel B. NEW GOODS.

TERRY MEGONIGLE would respectfully announce to the public that he has just received, and opened at the stand well known as the" Mike Walsh" House, at the foot of Plane No 4, a lot of New Goods, which have been carefully selected with a view to the wants of this community. His stock embraces Dry Goods such as Calicoes, Delaines, Bareges, Muslins, which he will sell at thelowest'figure ; Made up Clothing, Coats, Pants, Vests; he would especially call the attention of an astonished public to his stock of miracalous Hats, containing specimens of the Hong Kong, the Se-bastopol, and the half shaved Hats, forming a colection of novelties never equalled in this, and very few other countries.

His stock of Shoes and Boots, defies competition, the Eureka Slippers, the Parodi enamelled Shoes, Jenny Lind Buskins, will afford unmitt-gated delight to the fair votaries of the "mazy lances," while his Kossuth Boots, his Schamyl Pumps, and the untiring "O'Rourke brogue," will enable the lords of creation to do the tallest kind of walking.

His Groceries he will sell at cest and carrige, human life, but at the same time he would delicately suggest, that if ever any article of sugar was entitled to a premium, that which he offers to the inspection of a discerning public, certainly is the or c.
