THE AUSTRIANS IN THE PRINCIPALITIES.—OUTRAGED BY AN AUSTRIAN OFFICER AT KRAJOVA.—THE CITIZENS RETALIATE.—HUNDREDS KILLED.—THE AUSTRIANS DRIVEN FROM THE CITY!

A private letter gives an account of the trouble in Krajoval, already announced by telegraph.

An Austrian officer, on the 11th March, saw at a window a lady whose beauty attracted him, and he forthwith entered the house and demanded admittance to her apartment.

Without a word the Austrian drew his sword, and stabbed the husband to the heart. Much excitement ensued. Some of the bystanders went to lodge a formal complaint with the police; others sent intelligence to the Turkish commander at Kalafat, who lost no time in sending to Krajoval a battalion of infantry and a squadron of cavalry and artillery.

This brutal reply roused the indignation of the people. All the stores were closed, and the citizens assembled in the street, crying "death to the Austrians! They are but one against four! We won't submit to be slaughtered like the people of Bucharest!"

The official statements return 247 killed on both sides. The excitement continues, and the citizens have not reopened their stores. They demand justice, and are about to send a deputation to Constantinople to seek it from the Sultan.

NEW GOODS. JERRY MEGONIGLE would respectfully announce to the public that he has just received, and opened at the stand well known as the "Mike Walsh" House, at the foot of Pine No. 4, a lot of New Goods, which have been carefully selected with a view to the wants of this community.

His stock embraces Dry Goods such as Calicoes, Delaines, Bareges, Muslins, which he will sell at the lowest figure; Made up Clothing, Coats, Pants, &c., &c. He would especially call the attention of an astonished public to his stock of miraculous Hats, containing specimens of the Hong Kong, the Sebastopol, and the half shaved Hats, forming a collection of novelties never equalled in this, and very few other countries.

His stock of Shoes and Boots, defies competition. The Europa Slippers, the Paradi canneliers, considering the hardness of the times he wishes to make no profit on the provisions which sustain human life, but at the same time he would delicately suggest, that if ever any article of sugar was entitled to a premium, that which offers to the inspection of a discerning public, certainly is the one.

"Jerry" wants "all the world and the rest of mankind" to come and see his establishment and get bargains—he is there for that business. JEREMIAH MEGONIGLE. Hemlock, April 25, 1855.
