

City Correspondence.

From Philadelphia.

Correspondence of the Democrat & Sentinel

PHILADELPHIA, May 20, 1855.

The demolition of the Chestnut Street Theatre is now fairly under way and a large portion of the walls have already been taken down.

During the past week Governor Pollock has been busy in visiting our public schools and charitable institutions, and receiving entertainments from private citizens and different city authorities.

Col. Henry S. Kinney the reigning lion of filibusterism, after running the gauntlet of governmental interference in his Nicaragua project, at New York, has been arrested here on a similar charge, and held in the sum of $4,500 bail to answer.

The young men enlisted for this expedition state that they are kept in ignorance of its object. They are to pay their own passage to Nicaragua, and after their arrival there, he promises to provide them with certain employment, which they are free to accept or reject.

I witnessed rather an affecting incident at the Post Office the other evening. In the avenue a little boy, about seven years of age, with an interesting but quite dirty countenance, was quietly sitting down upon a tin pail with his head resting upon his hand, and apparently asleep, while some twenty or thirty bystanders were regarding him with deep solicitude to all which he appeared perfectly insensible.

On inquiry, I learned that he had stated that his mother had sent him out on a begging expedition, with a threat that if he did not bring home with him twenty-five cents he would be severely flogged; and having failed in obtaining that sum he was obliged to beg.

Our markets have not recently undergone any important change. Beef cattle sell at the exorbitant rate of from $11 to $12. Flour commands $10.50 to $11 per barrel; Rye Flour, $7.25; Corn Meal, $5.00; Wheat sells for $2.50 to $2.70. Rye, $1.68; Corn, 1 1/2 @ 1 1/2; Oats, 65 @ 66c.

Truly Yours,

Withdrawal of a Clergyman from a Know-Nothing Lodge.

The Rev. J. H. Tackitt, a clergyman of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Forestville, Chautauque county, New York, has publicly withdrawn from the Know-Nothing Order in the following card, which appears in the Fredonia Centinel.

To the President and Council at Forestville, Chautauque county, New York:—When I joined this council, I joined in good faith and have acted according to the obligations of the order since, as I understand them—that is, that we are to vote for second-degree members for office if we judge it best for the American cause; and, as I judged it not for the best interest of the American cause to vote for Mr. Ullman for Governor of the State of New York, under the circumstances under which he was nominated I therefore voted for Mr. Myron H. Clark for Governor, and for second-degree members of the Order for all other offices, as I deemed them proper persons to fill such offices, and have acted upon this principle ever since I belonged.

But recently learning from some of the members of the council that the obligations of the order are construed by this council so as to bind us to vote for second degree members, and those only, and that if we voted for any others, and not such as nominated by the council, we must be expelled; and I have seen documents from the Supreme Council of the Order construing the obligations the same way; and, as I, with many others, of which we had any knowledge, by our Supreme Council, and as such construction operates upon us as an ex post facto law, making an act a crime and punishable which was committed before such a law existed, and as in a free government no person can be subjected to punishment by an ex post facto law, which is making an act punishable in a manner in which it was not punishable at the time it was committed, and as such a law is contrary to the Constitution of the United States, and of every State in the Union, I, therefore, do hereby most respectfully withdraw from this Order, that I may exercise my elective franchise constitutionally, and according to the dictates of my own conscience and judgment, untrammelled by the dictation of any man or set of men.

I. H. TACKITT.

The New Liquor Law.

The following is published in the papers of the interior, as the opinion of Attorney General Franklin in reference to the operation of the recently enacted liquor law. It conflicts with the interpretation of the law by many of the Courts, but is nevertheless worthy of attention as coming from the legal adviser of the Executive:—

"Although the 14th Section of the act of April 18th 1855, entitled 'An Act to restrain the sale of intoxicating liquors,' declares that no license granted between the date of the act and the first of July next, shall authorize the retailing of liquors by inkeeper after the first day of October next, yet the act does not provide for any appointment of the price of license for a less period than one year; and inkeepers whose license have been granted since the date of the act, must therefore pay the price of a whole year's license, to enable them to continue their business until the first day of October next, at which time all such license will expire by the express terms of the law.

"After the first day of July next, no license for the sale of liquors can be granted or issued in any other manner than that provided by the act. Until the first of July next, I am of opinion that the County Treasurer may issue license as heretofore. The applicants in such cases must pay the prices now fixed by law for the whole year; and their merchantile appraisals must make their returns for the present year as usual; there being no change made in their duties by the act, nor any provisions for an appointment by them.

THOS. E. FRANKLIN, Attorney Gen.

Lancaster, May 4th, 1855.
