PHILADELPHIA, Mag 27, 1865. The parties with whom our City authorities have contracted for the erection of a Police and Fire Alarm Telegraph, have commenced operations, and will soon have it in complete working order-From the Mayor's Office at the corner of Fifth and snut streets, lines will diverge into every sec tion of the City. The advantages of this arrange ment in a City like this, extending over a large space of ground, will be ery great. If a riot breaks out in a distant region, information at once can be conveyed to the central office, and the whole police force immediately ordered to the scene of conflict, and by prompt action thus be enabled to speedily quell what with a little delay would have become a very formidable outbreak.

- Criminals who are pursued by the police will also have their chances for escape greatly reduced, and after effectually baffling Policeman No. 1 in one section, will unexpediy find Policeman No. 2 in another locality, prepared to give them a cor-dial reception, and to supply for their hospitable entertainment every attraction the police stations can possibly offord. In cases of fire, too, the almost instantaneous concentration of the Department upon any one given point which it will facilitate, will doubtless result in the preservation of much valuable property that would otherwise be inevitably destroyed.

Our public squares are now in a blooming condition, and are the favorite play-grounds of our children. Yew sights are more pleasing than to are these miniature men and women pursuing in all the merry glee of innocent childhood, their favorite sports. Not unfrequently three or four hundred of them congregate together at one time in these places, and make the very echoes ring with their joyous haughter.

The ship Chimborazo arrived here a few days since, with a cargo of about 500 Mormon emigrants of both sexes on board, from Liverpool. who intend proceeding as soon as possible to Utah. This is the second arrival of the kind we have recently had at this port, and from present liament that the proposals of Russia were appearances, Mormonism is destined to speedily never such as to afford a fair prospect of conreceive a large accession of members from foreign cluding peace.

Milner Gobson had made a similar motion emigration.

The stockholders of the Sunbury and Erie Railroad, recently held a meeting at which Gov. Pollock presided, and ex-Governor Bigler, the President of the Road, read a lengthy statement, diving a detailed account of all its affairs and prospects. It has had many difficulties and tribulations to encounter, but is destined to yet become one of the most useful and important railroads in the country.

The liquor dealers of this city are industriously at work in organizing, their forces not only here, but throughout the State, to secure the repeal of the license law by the next Legislature. Alamough little is said by them publicly upon the subject they are firmly resolved to disregard all past political distinctions in their efforts to accomplish this result,

The foreign news by the America mforms us for the ninety-ninth time, that Sebastopol has not yet been taken. The prospect of peace, too, ap-pears more distant than ever.

The English press appears to think the Rus-sians do not desire a cessasion of hostilities, and that Austria and Prussia intended preserving a that Austria and Prussis intended preserving a strict neutrality throughout the whole contest. It is believed the recent attempt to assassinate Louis Napoleon was but one feature of a vast revolutionary plot extending in its ramifications throughout Europe, On the day the attempt was made, it was freely stated throughout Italy, Spain and Germany, that Napoleon was dead, and Paris in a state of insurrection.

From the Falls of Missouri-Trouble among the Indians.

Mr. John C. Tevis and Galpin recently arrived at St. Louis from Fort Pierre. In company with Mr. Culberston, they left Fort Union on the 10th of April. On the 18th of that month, Mr. Culberston and Mr. Tevis fell in with a portion of the Yanktonnais band of the Sioux, a short distance below the Ree village. They were detained there two days, and Mr. Culberston had a long "talk" with them. Of this talk, Mr. C. has sent us the following memoranda: They reported that they had, a few days before, left the hostile Sioux congregated in great numbers in the vicinity of the Rainy Butte, (about two days march west of the Yellow Stone.)

At that point much the largest portion, in fact, nearly all the tribes of the Missouri and Platte Sioux, were collecting—expecting, also, to be joined by the Chayennes and Arrapahoes, which, in all propability, they will be. They will number 1700 lodges, or 3000 carriors, at the lowest calculation. They avow their determination to carry on an exterminating war, not only against the troops sent Ventres of the Missouri, or Minetarces, and Assineboines, among their enemies.

Since the defeat or massacre of the detachment of the United States troops under Lieut. Grattan, at Fort Laramie, these Indians imagine that they can easily overcome any white force that may be sent against them. They avow a determination to allow no emigrants to pass through or near their country, and will destroy all who attempt it. Their first intention is, to hover around the emigrant route in small parties. The main band will await the

During the last winter, a band of Sioux, numbering between two and three hundred picked warriors, attacked an Assineboing ting, and only a few old men and bays not more than forty in all—were at home. These few, however, kept the Sioux warriors at bay until their hunters returned. The latter, atthough not equal in number to the Sieux, routed and drove them off, killing three wariors, one a chief of note. The Assineboines riors, one a chief of note. The Assineboines lost three women. Still, these Sjoux Indians, since the masacre at Laramie, conceive the whites to be contemptible cowards, and do not believe any account which is given to them of of our Government, or the efficiency of our troops; and they expect to drive them as they would a herd of buildlocs. This, Mr. Culberston remarks, is no exaggeration. One Week Later From Europe. ARRIVAL OF THE AMERICA.

HALIPAX. May 24.—The Royal Mail Steamship America, from Liverpool, with dates to the afternoon of the 12th inst. arrived here at 8 o'clock this morning, and sailed again at 10 o'clock for Boston, where she will be due on Friday night. Her mails will probably reach Philadelphia on Saturday night. The steamship Union sailed from Southamton on the 9th inst., for New York, with 90 passengers.

The news of the week is more than usually meagre Several extensive failures at Liverpool were privately spoken of before the depar-ure of the America, but no names had traps-

No event of importance had occurred before Sevastopol, and affairs continued much in the same position, although some trivial succes on the part of the Allies have been announced.

THE IMPROBABILITIES OF PEACE. The English press admit that all hopes of peace have fled, and that no assistance can be expected from Austria, and but little from the rest of Europe; consequently, France and England must fight it out. The Lendon Times publishes a long article on the war, giving expression to these views. The Times also, in an editorial in behalf of the government, says it is impossible to persue the official decuments of the Vienna conference without seeing that Russia was never in earnest in her pretended desire for peace.

Earl Grey, in the House of Lords, had iven notice of a motion that an address be sent to the Queen, deploring the failure of negotations, and stating as the opinion of Par-

AFFAIRS IN THE CRIMEA. The correspondence from the camp at Sevas-topol to the 27th of April, explains the difficulties of the siege, and states confidently that the Allies are advancing, acquiring new ground, bit by bit, and that while the works so advance there can be no doubt of ultimate success, provided the Russians in the field are unable to force the Allies to raise the siege Gen. Cancebert has annuonced that when reinforcements arrive be will enlarge the cir-

The following is from the London Stand ard:—"A very extraordinary circumstance is reported from a quarter which precludes any doubt as to the truth of the statement, which comes to us by letters from St. Peters-burg. It appears that a fine American frigate built ship recently arrived at a port in the Baltic. It is stated that the vessel had on board 800 bales of cotton, but the correspondent of our informant, who visated the ship. found in addition 50,000 rifles and 5000 revolvers. Messrs. were passengers in the ship.

The Standard asks—" What are our con suls in United States about, that they have permitted such a cargo to leave without apprising the government here of the fact?" GERMANY.

There are increasing evidence that the Austrian and Prussian Cabinets are attempting to effect a general accord among the German States. The editors of the semi-official journals are united in favor of the movement. THE VIENNA CONFERENCE.

The documents of the Vienna Conference, extending ever ninety pages, have been par-tially republished in the English newspapers, and have excited much interest.

Lord Palmerston had evaded answering the question whether the conferences are not partially broken off, but it is said that as the accredited representatives of all the Powers, Russia included, continue to reside at Vienna, out to oppose them, but to put to death every the elements of a conference permanently exwhite man they may meet, whether a trader ist, shoul!
