

President of all things, which shall, at all times, be open to inspection of the State Council. He shall give good and sufficient bond with suitable to the Finance Committee, for the faithful performance of these duties; and said Committee shall act as trustees for this body.

Sec. 6. The other officers shall perform such duties as usually appertain to their respective offices, under the general direction of the President.

Sec. 7. There shall be elected, annually, by the State Council from its members, in the month of November, or whenever vacancies occur, such number of District Deputy Presidents as shall be deemed requisite, whose duty it shall be to institute and visit Councils in their respective districts, and exercise a careful supervision over the working of their Order in their districts, and to report semi-annually upon the general condition of the same to the State President.

Sec. 8. There shall be a Finance Committee, consisting of three members, to be chosen annually in the month of November, whose duty it shall be to act as Trustees of the body, and approve all bills or accounts against the State Council, and audit semi-annually the financial books of the Secretary and Treasurer, reporting thereon to the Council.

ARTICLE THIRD.

Sec. 1. The State Council shall have power to establish such By-Laws and Rules for its own government as it shall deem necessary, make general provision for the punishment of offences against the laws of the Order, try all appeals from the decision of the Subordinate Councils, and establish such Subordinate Councils, and establish such Subordinate Councils under its jurisdiction as its welfare and good government may require; provided the same be in accordance with the Constitution and Laws of the Grand and State Councils.

Sec. 2. The State Council shall have power to levy a tax upon the Subordinate Councils, to defray the ordinary and proper expenses of the State Council, to be paid in such manner and at such times as the State Council shall determine.

Sec. 3. The State Council, by its President, shall have power to establish term-past-words, to correspond with the terms of the Order, and to be communicated by him to the President of the Subordinate Councils.

ARTICLE FOURTH.

Dispensations for the formation of Subordinate Councils shall be granted only upon the application in writing of at least five persons for each Council, said persons to be residents of the district, ward, town or city in which the Council is to be established.

ARTICLE FIFTH.

Thirty members, representing not less than fifteen different Councils, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE SIXTH.

Any proposed alteration of or amendment to this Constitution, shall be submitted to the State Council in writing at least one regular meeting before being acted upon: when, if two-thirds of the members present at said regular meeting vote for it, it shall be adopted.

SUBORDINATE CONSTITUTION.

CONSTITUTION OF THE SUBORDINATE COUNCILS OF PARALLELS.

We, whose names are here annexed, desirous of supporting and protecting the 10, 17, 18, 15, 14, 12 (rights) of 1, 25, 9, 10, 17, 5, 1, 2, 5, 17, 14, 17, 26, 9, 2, 12, (American citizens) by 3, 17, 10, 14, 15, (birth against every form of 11, 4, 10, 9, 17, 13, 2, 17, 2, 11, 23, 16, 9, 2, 5, 9, [foreign influence,] do hereby pledge ourselves to be governed by the following.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE FIRST.

This association shall be known as Subordinate Council of the State of ARTICLE SECOND.

Sec. 1. A person, to become a member of any Subordinate Council, must be twenty-one years of age; he must believe in the existence of a Supreme Being as the Creator and Preserver of the universe; he must be a native citizen, Protestant, born, of Protestant parents, reared under Protestant influence, and not united in marriage with a Roman Catholic.

Sec. 2. The name of a person proposed for membership shall be made in writing, and vouched for by one or more members in good standing, when the proposition shall be referred to a Committee, who shall report at the same or succeeding meeting, when the candidate shall be voted for. If not more than four votes appear against him, he may be admitted; provided, that a majority of the votes cast shall be necessary for that purpose; but if five or more votes appear against him, he shall be rejected, and so declared; and a candidate so rejected shall not be eligible for admission to the Order for the period of three months, except by unanimous consent of the Council after one week's notice; provided, of course, that no person shall be proposed for membership in any Council other than that located in the city, town, district or ward in which he resides (if there be any Council within the said city, town, district or ward in which such person resides,) except by special dispensation from the State President, or the Deputy President of the District in which the Council is located.

Sec. 3. Whenever a Council shall be organized in any city, town, district or ward, it shall be incumbent on every member of any Council, located without said city, town, district or ward, but who resides within the boundaries of said new Council, to make immediate application for an honorable discharge from the Council of which he is a member for the purpose of being admitted to membership in said new Council. Any member neglecting or refusing to apply for such discharge shall cease to be a member at the expiration of the current quarterly term, unless unavoidably absent from the State.

Sec. 4. Any member applying for an honorable discharge from a Council shall be entitled to a certificate signed by the President and Secretary, and any such member wishing to become a member of another Council, shall present his certificate from the Council of which he was a member, being subject to the same vote as a new applicant.

Sec. 5. Members of the Order in good standing shall have the right of debate in other Councils than their own upon questions relating solely to the general welfare of the Order—their right to vote or take part in the discussion of any question relating to business or local affairs being confined exclusively to the Council with which they are connected.

ARTICLE THIRD.

Section 1. The officers of a Subordinate Council shall consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Instructor, Marshal, Inside, Sentinel and Outside Sentinel, who shall be chosen by ballot annually at the last meeting in March, and be installed into office at the first meeting in April, with the exception of the Sentinels, who may be appointed or elected at the discretion of the Council. A majority of the votes polled shall be necessary to an election. All officers elected or appointed shall have attained to the Second Degree previous to election or appointment.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the President to preside, enforce a due observance of the several constitutions and laws, and secure a proper respect for the State Council and its officers; see that all officers and members of Committees perform their respective duties; appoint all officers and committees not otherwise provided for; give the casting vote when a tie may occur, except in the election of officers; have special charge of the Constitution and Laws; draw on the Treasurer for all demands on the Council; direct the Secretary to call special meetings when necessary; and perform all other duties pertaining to the office.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the Vice President to assist the President in the performance of his duties; have special charge of the door; and in the absence of the President, preside.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep an accurate record of the proceedings of the Councils, with a roll of the members' names and residences; notify members when required by the President or a vote of the Council; and perform all other duties pertaining to the office.

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive all moneys of the Council pay all demands when authorized by the President, and keep an accurate account of all moneys received and expended; exhibit to the Council, on the last meeting of the quarter, a statement of the funds; and, at the end of the term, give a correct account of the receipts and disbursements of the term.

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of the instructor to instruct the candidates in the work of the Order; administer the charges of his office in the initiation of members; safely keep, for the use of the several officers, the ritual of the Order; and, in case of absence, shall place said ritual in the possession of the President.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the Marshal to perform such duties as the Ritual of the Order requires, examine the members at the opening of the Council, and report such as are incorrect to the President.

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the inside sentinel to attend to the inside door, and report to the Vice Presidents the names and Councils of the persons applying for admission, and admit such as the Vice President may order; but to admit no one without the password, unless otherwise ordered by the President, after being vouched for by a member of the Council.

ARTICLE FOURTH.

At any time within two months after the first meeting of each Subordinate Council there shall be chosen three Representatives to the State Council, elected for one, two, or three years, who shall, by lot, decide the several terms of the said one, two, or three years which each shall serve; and at each succeeding annual meeting, each Council shall elect one Representative, to serve three years, and shall fill vacancies whenever the same may occur.

ARTICLE FIFTH.

Section 1. Any member wishing to take the Second Degree of the Order, shall make application for the same, in open meeting, personally or by proxy, which application shall be referred to three Second Degree members, only as in the election of a new member.

Sec. 2. No member shall be eligible to the Second Degree until he has been a member of a Subordinate Council, in good standing, at least three weeks; provided, however, that the State President, or the Deputy President of the district in which the Council is located, shall have power, for sufficient cause shown, to give to any council a dispensation to confer both degrees without probation.

Sec. 3. The second degree shall not be conferred on any member except in the Council in which he was initiated; provided, however, that members who have been admitted from other Councils shall be eligible when possessing the qualifications mentioned in Section 2.

ARTICLE SIXTH.

Section 1. All charges and offences preferred against a member shall be duly specified and submitted to the Council in writing, when they shall be referred to a special committee, who shall summon such member to appear before them to answer to the allegations set forth; and after a fair and impartial examination thereof, report their decision to the Council, which shall, at once proceed to the consideration and disposal of the case.

Sec. 2. Any member who shall be proved guilty of violating any principle of the Order, offending against these articles, or otherwise militating against the interests of the Organization, shall be subject to reprimand or expulsion, as two-thirds of the whole number of the members present at any regular meeting may determine.

ARTICLE SEVENTH.

A quorum for business in any subordinate Council shall consist of thirteen members; when composed of less than thirteen members, the whole number of members shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE EIGHTH.

Any Council shall have power to establish such By-Laws and Rules, as may be deemed expedient; provided they accord with the Grand State and Subordinate Constitutions, and are approved by the State Council.

ARTICLE NINTH.

Any proposed alteration of, or amendment to, the Constitution, shall be submitted, in writing, to the State Council, one meeting at least, previous to being acted upon.

SPAIN AND CHURCH PROPERTY.—The Queen of Spain has sanctioned the law by the Cortes, confiscating the property of the Church. The Queen resisted as long as she dared. She resisted until she was told, "If you refuse, the Republic will be proclaimed in Spain to-morrow;" and then, "with her eyes full of tears," she signed the bill. The value of the property released from Mortmain by this measure is estimated at $400,000,000, but no accurate statistics are at yet prepared. Probably the treasury of Spain will not realize an actual benefit of more than $100,000,000.

Democrat and Sentinel.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 6.
Exposure.

On our outside to-day, will be found the most complete Exposure of Know-Nothingism which has yet been published. Let our readers preserve it for reference.

Melancholy Accident.

We are pained to learn that Mr. William Roberts, lately a resident of Jackson township, was accidentally drowned in the Canal Basin at Johnson, on the night of the 31st ult. A long and intimate acquaintance with Mr. Roberts, warrants us in saying, that he was an honest man, warm hearted friend, and a kind and affectionate husband and father. The entire community of this place, sincerely sympathize with the family of the deceased in their melancholy bereavement.

Mysterious Circumstances.

We are informed by a gentleman who resides at Tunnel Hill, in Blair county, that the body of a woman was discovered concealed in the embankment of the Railroad in the neighborhood of that place on the 31st inst. A number of dogs had assembled around the place, which attracted the attention of several persons in the vicinity. The body was so much decomposed that no features could be recognized; but several persons asserted that the clothing is that of a certain Mrs. Pinnegan, who has not been seen or heard of for several months. Her husband is supposed to be in New York or Baltimore.

A Word to the Wise.

To the vigilant, not to the dormant, the laws give protection. A maxim older than my lords Bacon or Coke, and as true as it is old. It is no less true in politics than it is in law. We are reminded of this maxim from certain observations made by some of our neighbors, who are strict observers of the signs of the times, and who say, that there may be an effort at our delegate elections to pack in some Know-Nothingism among them, and that this is about to be attempted by the minions and subminions of Simon Cameron, the great high priest of Democratic Abolition Know-Nothingism in Pennsylvania, and who would embrace all the other isms of the day, if he were asked, and "had time to amplify." We are led to believe that these things are about to be attempted by those from whom better might be expected, but a long experience teaches the vanity of such an expectation.

How are these things to be remedied? The easiest thing imaginable when taken in time. Let each borough and township select two delegates, who are not only untainted by Know-Nothingism, but like "Caesar's wife, above suspicion." If they are beaten by Know-Nothingness, then is the business of the Convention, who are the guardians of the party and its principles for the time being, to act in the matter. They should and ought to take the responsibility of excluding any of the Iscariots, who would wish to obtrude themselves on their deliberations, and who probably were not twenty-four hours, from having visited some cellar, garret or out house, at a secret convulse, where treason to the party and the constitution, reigned triumphant, and where "Samuel" alone was the God of their idolatry.

Therefore let every man previous to his asking a seat in that Convention, purge himself of the "unclean thing"—there is an example, and a deposition before you in the City of Philadelphia, and other places. Those whose skirts are clear, it can neither injure or offend, and those who are not, the sooner they are offended the better for the party. We have thrown out these suggestions in advance, in order that the people may go to work understandingly, and that there may be no grumbling afterwards.

We make no remarks, who should, or who should not be candidates, holding ourselves ready to do battle according to the best of our abilities, for those principles to which we have always adhered.

The Democratic Jubilee in Philadelphia.

The meeting held in Philadelphia on last Thursday evening, in honor of the glorious victory achieved in Virginia over the combined hosts of ignorance, intolerance and fanaticism, was, according to the accounts in the papers, a soul-inspiring demonstration. Independence Square, says the Pennsylvanian, was filled as it has seldom ever before been filled, and there could not have been less than twenty five thousand persons present. The multitude was so great that they found it necessary to organize two separate meetings. At the first one, Hon. John Robinson, Jr., presided, and eloquent speeches were delivered by Hon. Thos. B. Florence, John Cadwallader, Robt. Tyler, Chas. W. Carrigan, Hon. Wm. Witte and Capt. A. Day. At the second meeting, Andw. Miller, Esq., was President, and the speakers were Col. R. Young, Capt. Powers, J. L. Ringwalt and Richardson L. Wright.

KENNEDY has just opened an ice cream Saloon in the basement of Mr. Robert Davis' building, opposite Shoemaker & Clark's store. We called in the other evening and found everything arranged in fine style. Kennedy is a clever fellow and we trust will receive a liberal share of patronage from the ladies and gentlemen, of this place.

L. M. SUTLIF has just arrived in town with a large and well selected assortment of books, which he offers low for cash. The public may rest assured that the works which he sells are all that he represents them to be. The following are a few of the works which he has now on hand: History U. S. & Ireland, Lives of Napoleon, Washington, Lafayette, Marion, H. Clay, Daniel Webster, Calhoun, Plutarch's Lives, Burns' Poems, Shakespeare's works, Moore's Life of Byron, Protestant & Catholic Bibles, Hymn Books, all kinds of Catholic Prayer Books, Ladies' Albums, Annals for 1855, Lamp-lighters, Life scenes in Boston, Hot Corn, Life scenes in New York, The Lost Pilgrims, Mrs. Southworth, Children of the Abbey, Tensons of Waverley, Arabian Nights, St. Clair of the Isle, Scottish Chiefs.

Democrat and Sentinel.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 6.
Exposure.

On our outside to-day, will be found the most complete Exposure of Know-Nothingism which has yet been published. Let our readers preserve it for reference.

Melancholy Accident.

We are pained to learn that Mr. William Roberts, lately a resident of Jackson township, was accidentally drowned in the Canal Basin at Johnson, on the night of the 31st ult. A long and intimate acquaintance with Mr. Roberts, warrants us in saying, that he was an honest man, warm hearted friend, and a kind and affectionate husband and father. The entire community of this place, sincerely sympathize with the family of the deceased in their melancholy bereavement.

Mysterious Circumstances.

We are informed by a gentleman who resides at Tunnel Hill, in Blair county, that the body of a woman was discovered concealed in the embankment of the Railroad in the neighborhood of that place on the 31st inst. A number of dogs had assembled around the place, which attracted the attention of several persons in the vicinity. The body was so much decomposed that no features could be recognized; but several persons asserted that the clothing is that of a certain Mrs. Pinnegan, who has not been seen or heard of for several months. Her husband is supposed to be in New York or Baltimore.

A Word to the Wise.

To the vigilant, not to the dormant, the laws give protection. A maxim older than my lords Bacon or Coke, and as true as it is old. It is no less true in politics than it is in law. We are reminded of this maxim from certain observations made by some of our neighbors, who are strict observers of the signs of the times, and who say, that there may be an effort at our delegate elections to pack in some Know-Nothingism among them, and that this is about to be attempted by the minions and subminions of Simon Cameron, the great high priest of Democratic Abolition Know-Nothingism in Pennsylvania, and who would embrace all the other isms of the day, if he were asked, and "had time to amplify." We are led to believe that these things are about to be attempted by those from whom better might be expected, but a long experience teaches the vanity of such an expectation.

How are these things to be remedied? The easiest thing imaginable when taken in time. Let each borough and township select two delegates, who are not only untainted by Know-Nothingism, but like "Caesar's wife, above suspicion." If they are beaten by Know-Nothingness, then is the business of the Convention, who are the guardians of the party and its principles for the time being, to act in the matter. They should and ought to take the responsibility of excluding any of the Iscariots, who would wish to obtrude themselves on their deliberations, and who probably were not twenty-four hours, from having visited some cellar, garret or out house, at a secret convulse, where treason to the party and the constitution, reigned triumphant, and where "Samuel" alone was the God of their idolatry.

Therefore let every man previous to his asking a seat in that Convention, purge himself of the "unclean thing"—there is an example, and a deposition before you in the City of Philadelphia, and other places. Those whose skirts are clear, it can neither injure or offend, and those who are not, the sooner they are offended the better for the party. We have thrown out these suggestions in advance, in order that the people may go to work understandingly, and that there may be no grumbling afterwards.

We make no remarks, who should, or who should not be candidates, holding ourselves ready to do battle according to the best of our abilities, for those principles to which we have always adhered.

The Democratic Jubilee in Philadelphia.

The meeting held in Philadelphia on last Thursday evening, in honor of the glorious victory achieved in Virginia over the combined hosts of ignorance, intolerance and fanaticism, was, according to the accounts in the papers, a soul-inspiring demonstration. Independence Square, says the Pennsylvanian, was filled as it has seldom ever before been filled, and there could not have been less than twenty five thousand persons present. The multitude was so great that they found it necessary to organize two separate meetings. At the first one, Hon. John Robinson, Jr., presided, and eloquent speeches were delivered by Hon. Thos. B. Florence, John Cadwallader, Robt. Tyler, Chas. W. Carrigan, Hon. Wm. Witte and Capt. A. Day. At the second meeting, Andw. Miller, Esq., was President, and the speakers were Col. R. Young, Capt. Powers, J. L. Ringwalt and Richardson L. Wright.

KENNEDY has just opened an ice cream Saloon in the basement of Mr. Robert Davis' building, opposite Shoemaker & Clark's store. We called in the other evening and found everything arranged in fine style. Kennedy is a clever fellow and we trust will receive a liberal share of patronage from the ladies and gentlemen, of this place.

L. M. SUTLIF has just arrived in town with a large and well selected assortment of books, which he offers low for cash. The public may rest assured that the works which he sells are all that he represents them to be. The following are a few of the works which he has now on hand: History U. S. & Ireland, Lives of Napoleon, Washington, Lafayette, Marion, H. Clay, Daniel Webster, Calhoun, Plutarch's Lives, Burns' Poems, Shakespeare's works, Moore's Life of Byron, Protestant & Catholic Bibles, Hymn Books, all kinds of Catholic Prayer Books, Ladies' Albums, Annals for 1855, Lamp-lighters, Life scenes in Boston, Hot Corn, Life scenes in New York, The Lost Pilgrims, Mrs. Southworth, Children of the Abbey, Tensons of Waverley, Arabian Nights, St. Clair of the Isle, Scottish Chiefs.

Democrat and Sentinel.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 6.
Exposure.

On our outside to-day, will be found the most complete Exposure of Know-Nothingism which has yet been published. Let our readers preserve it for reference.

Melancholy Accident.

We are pained to learn that Mr. William Roberts, lately a resident of Jackson township, was accidentally drowned in the Canal Basin at Johnson, on the night of the 31st ult. A long and intimate acquaintance with Mr. Roberts, warrants us in saying, that he was an honest man, warm hearted friend, and a kind and affectionate husband and father. The entire community of this place, sincerely sympathize with the family of the deceased in their melancholy bereavement.

Mysterious Circumstances.

We are informed by a gentleman who resides at Tunnel Hill, in Blair county, that the body of a woman was discovered concealed in the embankment of the Railroad in the neighborhood of that place on the 31st inst. A number of dogs had assembled around the place, which attracted the attention of several persons in the vicinity. The body was so much decomposed that no features could be recognized; but several persons asserted that the clothing is that of a certain Mrs. Pinnegan, who has not been seen or heard of for several months. Her husband is supposed to be in New York or Baltimore.

A Word to the Wise.

To the vigilant, not to the dormant, the laws give protection. A maxim older than my lords Bacon or Coke, and as true as it is old. It is no less true in politics than it is in law. We are reminded of this maxim from certain observations made by some of our neighbors, who are strict observers of the signs of the times, and who say, that there may be an effort at our delegate elections to pack in some Know-Nothingism among them, and that this is about to be attempted by the minions and subminions of Simon Cameron, the great high priest of Democratic Abolition Know-Nothingism in Pennsylvania, and who would embrace all the other isms of the day, if he were asked, and "had time to amplify." We are led to believe that these things are about to be attempted by those from whom better might be expected, but a long experience teaches the vanity of such an expectation.

How are these things to be remedied? The easiest thing imaginable when taken in time. Let each borough and township select two delegates, who are not only untainted by Know-Nothingism, but like "Caesar's wife, above suspicion." If they are beaten by Know-Nothingness, then is the business of the Convention, who are the guardians of the party and its principles for the time being, to act in the matter. They should and ought to take the responsibility of excluding any of the Iscariots, who would wish to obtrude themselves on their deliberations, and who probably were not twenty-four hours, from having visited some cellar, garret or out house, at a secret convulse, where treason to the party and the constitution, reigned triumphant, and where "Samuel" alone was the God of their idolatry.

Therefore let every man previous to his asking a seat in that Convention, purge himself of the "unclean thing"—there is an example, and a deposition before you in the City of Philadelphia, and other places. Those whose skirts are clear, it can neither injure or offend, and those who are not, the sooner they are offended the better for the party. We have thrown out these suggestions in advance, in order that the people may go to work understandingly, and that there may be no grumbling afterwards.

We make no remarks, who should, or who should not be candidates, holding ourselves ready to do battle according to the best of our abilities, for those principles to which we have always adhered.

The Democratic Jubilee in Philadelphia.

The meeting held in Philadelphia on last Thursday evening, in honor of the glorious victory achieved in Virginia over the combined hosts of ignorance, intolerance and fanaticism, was, according to the accounts in the papers, a soul-inspiring demonstration. Independence Square, says the Pennsylvanian, was filled as it has seldom ever before been filled, and there could not have been less than twenty five thousand persons present. The multitude was so great that they found it necessary to organize two separate meetings. At the first one, Hon. John Robinson, Jr., presided, and eloquent speeches were delivered by Hon. Thos. B. Florence, John Cadwallader, Robt. Tyler, Chas. W. Carrigan, Hon. Wm. Witte and Capt. A. Day. At the second meeting, Andw. Miller, Esq., was President, and the speakers were Col. R. Young, Capt. Powers, J. L. Ringwalt and Richardson L. Wright.

KENNEDY has just opened an ice cream Saloon in the basement of Mr. Robert Davis' building, opposite Shoemaker & Clark's store. We called in the other evening and found everything arranged in fine style. Kennedy is a clever fellow and we trust will receive a liberal share of patronage from the ladies and gentlemen, of this place.

L. M. SUTLIF has just arrived in town with a large and well selected assortment of books, which he offers low for cash. The public may rest assured that the works which he sells are all that he represents them to be. The following are a few of the works which he has now on hand: History U. S. & Ireland, Lives of Napoleon, Washington, Lafayette, Marion, H. Clay, Daniel Webster, Calhoun, Plutarch's Lives, Burns' Poems, Shakespeare's works, Moore's Life of Byron, Protestant & Catholic Bibles, Hymn Books, all kinds of Catholic Prayer Books, Ladies' Albums, Annals for 1855, Lamp-lighters, Life scenes in Boston, Hot Corn, Life scenes in New York, The Lost Pilgrims, Mrs. Southworth, Children of the Abbey, Tensons of Waverley, Arabian Nights, St. Clair of the Isle, Scottish Chiefs.

Democrat and Sentinel.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 6.
Exposure.

On our outside to-day, will be found the most complete Exposure of Know-Nothingism which has yet been published. Let our readers preserve it for reference.

Melancholy Accident.

We are pained to learn that Mr. William Roberts, lately a resident of Jackson township, was accidentally drowned in the Canal Basin at Johnson, on the night of the 31st ult. A long and intimate acquaintance with Mr. Roberts, warrants us in saying, that he was an honest man, warm hearted friend, and a kind and affectionate husband and father. The entire community of this place, sincerely sympathize with the family of the deceased in their melancholy bereavement.

Mysterious Circumstances.

We are informed by a gentleman who resides at Tunnel Hill, in Blair county, that the body of a woman was discovered concealed in the embankment of the Railroad in the neighborhood of that place on the 31st inst. A number of dogs had assembled around the place, which attracted the attention of several persons in the vicinity. The body was so much decomposed that no features could be recognized; but several persons asserted that the clothing is that of a certain Mrs. Pinnegan, who has not been seen or heard of for several months. Her husband is supposed to be in New York or Baltimore.

A Word to the Wise.

To the vigilant, not to the dormant, the laws give protection. A maxim older than my lords Bacon or Coke, and as true as it is old. It is no less true in politics than it is in law. We are reminded of this maxim from certain observations made by some of our neighbors, who are strict observers of the signs of the times, and who say, that there may be an effort at our delegate elections to pack in some Know-Nothingism among them, and that this is about to be attempted by the minions and subminions of Simon Cameron, the great high priest of Democratic Abolition Know-Nothingism in Pennsylvania, and who would embrace all the other isms of the day, if he were asked, and "had time to amplify." We are led to believe that these things are about to be attempted by those from whom better might be expected, but a long experience teaches the vanity of such an expectation.

How are these things to be remedied? The easiest thing imaginable when taken in time. Let each borough and township select two delegates, who are not only untainted by Know-Nothingism, but like "Caesar's wife, above suspicion." If they are beaten by Know-Nothingness, then is the business of the Convention, who are the guardians of the party and its principles for the time being, to act in the matter. They should and ought to take the responsibility of excluding any of the Iscariots, who would wish to obtrude themselves on their deliberations, and who probably were not twenty-four hours, from having visited some cellar, garret or out house, at a secret convulse, where treason to the party and the constitution, reigned triumphant, and where "Samuel" alone was the God of their idolatry.

Therefore let every man previous to his asking a seat in that Convention, purge himself of the "unclean thing"—there is an example, and a deposition before you in the City of Philadelphia, and other places. Those whose skirts are clear, it can neither injure or offend, and those who are not, the sooner they are offended the better for the party. We have thrown out these suggestions in advance, in order that the people may go to work understandingly, and that there may be no grumbling afterwards.

We make no remarks, who should, or who should not be candidates, holding ourselves ready to do battle according to the best of our abilities, for those principles to which we have always adhered.

The Democratic Jubilee in Philadelphia.

The meeting held in Philadelphia on last Thursday evening, in honor of the glorious victory achieved in Virginia over the combined hosts of ignorance, intolerance and fanaticism, was, according to the accounts in the papers, a soul-inspiring demonstration. Independence Square, says the Pennsylvanian, was filled as it has seldom ever before been filled, and there could not have been less than twenty five thousand persons present. The multitude was so great that they found it necessary to organize two separate meetings. At the first one, Hon. John Robinson, Jr., presided, and eloquent speeches were delivered by Hon. Thos. B. Florence, John Cadwallader, Robt. Tyler, Chas. W. Carrigan, Hon. Wm. Witte and Capt. A. Day. At the second meeting, Andw. Miller, Esq., was President, and the speakers were Col. R. Young, Capt. Powers, J. L. Ringwalt and Richardson L. Wright.

KENNEDY has just opened an ice cream Saloon in the basement of Mr. Robert Davis' building, opposite Shoemaker & Clark's store. We called in the other evening and found everything arranged in fine style. Kennedy is a clever fellow and we trust will receive a liberal share of patronage from the ladies and gentlemen, of this place.

L. M. SUTLIF has just arrived in town with a large and well selected assortment of books, which he offers low for cash. The public may rest assured that the works which he sells are all that he represents them to be. The following are a few of the works which he has now on hand: History U. S. & Ireland, Lives of Napoleon, Washington, Lafayette, Marion, H. Clay, Daniel Webster, Calhoun, Plutarch's Lives, Burns' Poems, Shakespeare's works, Moore's Life of Byron, Protestant & Catholic Bibles, Hymn Books, all kinds of Catholic Prayer Books, Ladies' Albums, Annals for 1855, Lamp-lighters, Life scenes in Boston, Hot Corn, Life scenes in New York, The Lost Pilgrims, Mrs. Southworth, Children of the Abbey, Tensons of Waverley, Arabian Nights, St. Clair of the Isle, Scottish Chiefs.

THE CANADIAN ADMITS OUR FOUR FREE DUTY,
but charge 2 1/2 per cent. on the barrels or bags containing it. That was do Mr. Bluecoat.

FLOOR COPIES