

Democrat and Sentinel

W. WHITE & DEVINE, Editors and Proprietors.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 13.

its full share of satire, but we can assure the Doctor we enjoy some of his hits with peculiar gusto.

The Government of the United States. EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT. Franklin Pierce, President.

Consists of one Secretary, one Assistant Secretary, one chief-clerk, twelve associate clerks, one translator and one librarian; of the Diplomatic and Consular Branches; of the Bureau of Disbursement.

Consists of one Secretary, one Assistant Secretary, one Chief-Clerk, one Commissioner of Customs, six Auditors, a Treasurer, Register, Solicitor, and Boards for the light houses and coast surveys.

Consists of one Secretary, having associated with him the Commanding General, the Adjutant General, the Quartermaster General, the Paymaster General, the Commissary General, the Surgeon General, the Engineer Bureau, and the Bureau of Topography and Ordnance.

Consists of one Secretary, and five Bureaux of Navy Yards and Docks; of Construction, Equipment and Repair; of Provisions and Clothing; of Ordnance and Hydrography, and of Medicine and Surgery.

Consists of one Postmaster General, and three Assistants; of Bureaux of Inspectors, Appointments, Contracts and Finance.

Consists of one Secretary, and Bureaux of the Public Lands; of Pensions; of Indian Affairs; of Patents, including Agriculture.

Consists of one Attorney General, a chief clerk and eight assistants.

The other day the whig papers were rejoicing over the success of "Sam" in the whig city of Cleveland, Ohio.

These reflections would lead us to suppose that our country is travelling fast into the regions of corruption, decay, and desolation.

The Richmond Enquirer, in commenting on the fact that some of the Know-Nothing papers attribute the election of Wise to the "foreign" vote, although they are not ignorant of the circumstance that his majority largely exceeds the entire foreign vote of the State.

In the cities, and in the counties through which works of internal improvement are progressing—in Richmond, in Petersburg, in Norfolk, in Alexandria, in Wheeling, in Fredericksburg, in Augusta, and in Loudon—in short, just where the "foreign" vote is strongest, just there did the Democracy sustain the greatest loss.

It is stated by the Buffalo Republic that Mr. Conover a well known Engineer upon the Ohio River, has accidentally discovered that by saturating his coal with water, and putting it in the furnace, would cause it to produce from 110 to 120 pounds of steam with a considerable less quantity of coal than it required to make from 90 to 100 pounds when the coal was dry.

Shall Democracy Triumph in the Coming Contest?

The time is fast approaching when the above question must be answered, and we rejoice to perceive that the Democracy in every section of the State, are determined that it shall be answered in the affirmative.

It has frequently been suggested to us of late, that the nomination of a "fusion ticket," composed partly of Democrats, and partly of old line Whigs, would insure the defeat of Know-Nothingism in this county next fall.

Will our Democratic friends throughout the State see to this matter in time. The season for making nominations for the Legislature is rapidly approaching—and we have no doubt that trickery and stratagem, deception and rascality are already at work to accomplish their nefarious purpose.

There is but one proper way to prevent such a state of things—and that is for the people to attend the delegate elections, and select such men, and none other, as are known to be honest, and who will faithfully reflect their will when they meet in the County or nominating Conventions.

We do not pretend to say that there are not several counties in the State, where it would be advisable for Democrats and Whigs to unite, and form union tickets for the purpose of crushing the common enemy.

Shall Democracy triumph in the coming contest? Remember Democrats, that the battle is not always to the strong, and that the founder of our party has warned us.

63-In another column we publish an interesting letter from Robert Carmon, in vindication of his character for truth, regarding a statement he had made in a previous letter to this paper.

63-We perceive by the Alleghenian, that Gideon Marlet, Esq., is a candidate for Sheriff, subject to the decision of the Whig Convention.

Court Proceedings.

J. F. P. vs. Rev. J. Dugan's adm'r. Sci. Pa. to revive judgement. 4th June, 1855, Jury called and sworn.

Com. vs. John P. Parish. Indictment for keeping a tipping house. Continued to next term.

Com. vs. Sarah Bowley. Indictment for keeping a tipping house. 5th June, Jury called and sworn, who find the defendant guilty.

Com. vs. Thomas Quilt. Indictment for assault and battery. June 6th, Jury find the defendant guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars and costs.

Com. vs. Lawrence Cassidy. Indictment for selling intoxicating liquors to a habitual drunkard. Jury find the defendant not guilty.

Com. vs. John F. H. Hamilton. Indictment for selling liquor to persons of known intemperate habits. Grand Jury return this "not a true bill."

Com. vs. John O'Neil vs. A. M. & R. White. Assumpsit. Jury find for the plaintiff, the sum of eighty dollars.

The U. S. Senator Question.

The question as to how or by whom Pennsylvania shall be represented in the Senate of the United States, is one which must be met by the next Legislature, inasmuch as the last one failed to elect.

No mousing, corrupt politician, such as some of those who are aspiring to a seat in that body, should for one moment be thought of.

Will our Democratic friends throughout the State see to this matter in time. The season for making nominations for the Legislature is rapidly approaching—and we have no doubt that trickery and stratagem, deception and rascality are already at work to accomplish their nefarious purpose.

There is but one proper way to prevent such a state of things—and that is for the people to attend the delegate elections, and select such men, and none other, as are known to be honest, and who will faithfully reflect their will when they meet in the County or nominating Conventions.

Manufacture of Cider Prohibited.

The Rev. M. Lovvick, speaking of the late law passed by the Massachusetts Legislature, on the subject of liquor, holds the following language:

There is a truth in the above, which cannot but strike the human mind with peculiar force. We have often said, the result of all such laws is to lead to a dangerous extreme, and produce a state of society in this country of the most fearful character.

The Liquor Law!

The people seem to be moving in every quarter for the repeal of the iniquitous Jug Law passed by the late K. N. Legislature, and approved by a K. N. Governor.

The Old Soldiers.—A bounty land warrant of 160 acres was forwarded to the President of the United States for military services rendered by him during the Mexican war.

Iowa.—A friend who has just returned from a lengthy journey through seventeen counties in the interior of Iowa, describes the emigration to that State as beyond precedent.

Charles O'Neil vs. A. M. & R. White. Assumpsit. Jury find for the plaintiff, the sum of eighty dollars.

Benedit Arnold, the First "Know-Nothing."

"Facts are chief's that winna ding. And dar na be disputed.

The conspirators of the present day, are forever parading their historical pedigree, and a pretty piece of patch-work it is. But their true parentage—which is historical enough—has not yet been accurately traced.

Chief Justice Marshal (Life of Washington, Vol. 1, p. 49) accounts for the failure of Washington's plan of getting Canada into the confederacy, partly by the Know-Nothing conduct of Arnold.

He laments that the great interests of the country were dangerously sacrificed to the partial views of a proud, ancient and crafty foe, regards her as too feeble to establish their independence; charges her with being an enemy of the Protestant faith, &c., &c., &c.

Here we have the very words, in almost the very words, of the present so-called "American party." The same appeals to activity and to Puritanism, the same instigations to exclusive associations and anti-Constitutional opposition to the Federal authorities, are as clearly expressed by Arnold, as they could be by Barker or Conrad.

The Thugs.

The Thugs of Hindostan are an association who believe that it is their duty to exterminate all who do not belong to their own Order. They meet in secret lodges, and are sworn with solemn oaths.

Hence, in the Eastern cities the Know-Nothing are called Thugs, or Hindoos.—Democratic Union.

One of the Senators.

Gen. Wilson, who obtained an election to the United States Senate from the "Know-Nothing" party in Massachusetts, recently made a speech to the "Order," at Brattleboro', Vermont.

He further said: "He regretted to say there were some members of the American party in favor of excluding, by constitutional amendments, all adopted citizens from office. He deeply deplored the action of the Legislature of Massachusetts in proposing an amendment to the Constitution embodying this doctrine.

Maine Laws and Massachusetts Ordinances.

When, last week, we printed the Ellisworth tragedy from the Bangor Journal, we had supposed that nothing worse could possibly come out of New England.

Among the crowd of human beings on board that proud vessel was one poor woman, with an infant daughter. Her passage, and that of her child, were paid by the rich and powerful Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

"The name of this victim to Know-Nothing intolerance was Mary Williams; her infant, Bridget, is but a few weeks old. About thirty-five paupers, perhaps more, were sent away at the same time, in the same vessel, at the expense of the State.

Our readers are aware that there exists upon our statute book a law which authorizes any Justice of the Peace upon complaint, by a warrant directed to, and to be executed by any constable, or any other person there designated, to cause any pauper to be removed out of the State, to any place beyond the sea, where he belongs.

And this tragedy was done, not mind you well, in a paltry fishing village, where decayed timber and every garboge of the sea made the fit atmosphere for purblind prejudice.

Had Mary Williams been colored black by some friendly hand, and her hair curled before her seizure, she would have been in Boston still, laboring for her infant child's support.

We have a few questions to ask our readers down there. There are 60,000 natives of Ireland, living within one hour's walk or drive of the spot from which Mary Williams was torn shrieking away, under the new Know-Nothing regime.

What are they doing in Boston? Enriching others. What are they leaving after them? A perverted posterity and a hostile memory. How long will they continue to prefer their back streets and aggravated score, to the open country, and the genuine independence of freemen and freeholders?—American Art.

ILLAGE DAMAGES.—Mrs. J. M. Bute, of Cambridge, Ohio, has recovered $4,500 from the Central Ohio-Railroad Company, for injuries sustained by her during a collision on their road last spring, near Zanesville.