OUR NATIONAL BIRTHDAY. Celebration in Jefferson.

In accordance vith a previous arrangement, a large number of the citizens of Summerhill township, assembled in Jefferson on the morning of the 4th inst., the anniversary of American Independence. A band of excellent music was in attendance, and all present seemed actuated by patri-otic and generous feelings. At 11 o'clock, A. M., about four hundred persons formed in procession and accompanied by the band, marched to a grove a short distance from town. Shortly after arriving at the grove all present sat down to a sumptuous dinner, beautifully arranged beneath the shade of the primitive forest. Ample Justice having been done to the "good things of this life." the cloth was removed, and a meeting organized by calling Mr. John Wherry to the chair, and appointing John M'Coy, James Moreland, Wm. Palmer, Esq., John Neel and Wm. Hudson, Vice Presidents, and W. Hawe, and D. Murray, Secretaries. The Declaration of Independence was read by Mr. Wm. Hawe, in a manner that elicited the approbation of all present. The meeting was then addressed in an eloquent and appropriate manner, by C. D. Murray, Esq., of Ebensburg, and J. McNichols, Esq., of Johnstown. The proceedings were closed by reading the following Regular and Volunteer Toasts. REGULAR TOASTS.

Celebration at Loretto.

The 79th anniversary of our National Independence was celebrated by the citizens of Loretto and adjoining towships in a highly patriotic manner. At an early hour in the day they assembled at the Hotel of P. Shiels, Esq., where they formed in procession, and headed by the American colors, and a fine band of martial music marched to St. Francis' Academy near the town. Here a large stage had been erected, and seats to accommodate the crowd fitted up in the large barn beloaging to the institution.

The Rev. J. A. Gallagher was called upon to preside, and when all were seated Mr. R. S. Lynch proceeded to read the Declaration of Independence, which he did in an excellent manner. A very eloquent oration was then delivered by the Rev. Mr. Pollard. Wm. A. Smith was afterwards called upon to address the assemblage, which he did, and was followed by Rev. Mr. McCollough.-A number of toasts were then read accompanied with music and the cheers of the company. The procession was again formed, and returned to the hotel of Mr. Shiels where a most excellent dinner

We therefore command you, as we have here-tofore commanded you, the said John Taylor, that setting aside all other business and excuses what-soever, you be and appear, in your proper person before our Judges at Ebensburgh, at a Court of Common Pleas there to be held for the county of Cambria on the first Monday of June next, to answer the petition or libel of the said Frances A. M. Taylor, and to shew cause, if any you have, why the said Frances A. M. Taylor, your wife, should not be divorced from the bands of matrimony, agreeably to acts of General Assembly in such case made and provided. And hereof fail the Statute Laws of Pennsylvania down to the very hour when he purchases it. Those who have already purchased Purdon's Digest may always complete it to date for the small sum of Fifty Ceuts, the price of a volume containing all the annual Digests issued since the first publication of the present edition of Purdon's Digest, as heretofore stated.
