DESPERATE ATTEMPT AT MURDER-JEAL-DESPERATE ATTEMPS AN MURDER—JEALOUSLY THE CAUSE.—Between 11 and 12 o'clock on Taesday night a desperate attempt was made to murder James G. Finn, a sporting character, who at the time was standing in front of the Bewery Theatre. It appears that John C. Worden had for some time previous felt deep animosity toward Flinn on necount of the attentions the latter had shown his (Worden's) wife, and had on several occasions threatened to take his life. On Tuescasions threatened to take his life. On Tuesday night he preceded to the place above named, and there in the presence of several persons, presented a pistol a the head of Finn which he discharged, and the powder and wad with which it was loaded burned his face frightfully. The assailant was immediately arrested by Policeman M. Cord, of the Tenth Ward, and locked up in the station house for Ward, and locked up in the station house for the night, and yesterday was committed for trial by Justice Wood. It further appears that the prisoner loaded the barrels of his pis-tol with powder and ball, with the full inten-tion of taking the life of his adversary, but a friend to whom he had stated this intention, removed the balls, and thus the life of Finn was saved, and though badly injured he was able yesterday to appear at Court and make a complaint against Worden. The attentions shown by him to the wife of the latter are said to be such as would naturally lead to a deep feeling of animosity on the part of a husband.
