NEW GOODS.

JERRY MEGONIGLE would respectfully announce to the public that he has just received, and opened at the stand well known as the "Mike Walsh" House, at the foot of Plane No. 4, a lot of New Goods, which have been carefully selected with a view to the wants of this community.

His stock embraces Dry Goods such as Calicoes, Delaines, Bargains, Muslins, which he will sell at the lowest figure; Made up Clothing, Coats, Pants, Vests; he would especially call the attention of an astonished public to his stock of miraculous Hats, containing specimens of the Hong Kong, the Scotch, and the half shaved Hats, forming a collection of novelties never equalled in this, and very few other cities.

His stock of Shoes and Boots, defies competition. The Europa Slippers, the Parodi enamelled Shoes, Jenny Lind Bunkins, will afford unmitigated delight to the fair votaries of the "mazy dances," while his Kosuth Boots, his Schamy Pump, and the untiring "O'Connell brogue," will enable the Ruler of creation to do the tallest kind of walking.

His Groceries he will sell at cost and carriage, considering the hardness of the times he wishes to make no profit on the provisions which sustain human life, but at the same time he would delicately suggest, that if ever any article of sugar, Delaine, Bargains, Muslins, which he offers to the inspection of a discerning public, certainly is the best.

"Jerry" wants "all the world and the rest of mankind" to come and see his establishment and get bargains—he is there for that business.

JEREMIAH MEGONIGLE.
