Appointment of County Superintendent.—S. H. McCormick of Johnstown, in place of R. L. Johnston, Esq., Superintendent of Common Schools for this County, resigned.

The appointment of Mr. McCormick gives general satisfaction to the friends of common school education in this county. He is an accomplished scholar, has long been engaged in the honorable but by no means lucrative profession of teaching, and will doubtless dedicate all his time and energies to the duties of the office. His predecessor, Mr. Johnston, has always been a devoted friend of education, and discharged the duties pertaining to the office with ability and impartiality.

The Triumph of Right. In glancing at the record of the contest which has just terminated so brilliantly for the friends of Civil and Religious Liberty, it is not a little gratifying to find that the Democracy scorned to resort to the frauds and falsehoods of their opponents, in order to secure success, and therefore their triumph may be justly regarded as the triumph of truth and patriotism, over falsehood and treason to the Constitution. The Democracy felt that an ephemeral triumph, was nothing when compared with the destruction of everything on which the patriot and philanthropist base their hope of man's advancement. They felt, that power obtained by the means resorted to by the Know-Nothings, could not long be retained, unless they themselves should lose their own characters, by resorting to similar means.

In the contest which the honest and fair means employed by the Democracy, present to the profanity of their opponents, they may reasonably expect to recommend their principles to all honest and truly religious men, it matters not what their political views may be.

It may be both amusing and instructive to our readers, briefly to allude to a few of the tricks and falsehoods resorted to by our opponents during the campaign to secure success. That formidable old gentleman known as the Pope of Rome, was the great huggaboo resorted to to frighten antiquated old women in breeches, into the support of "Sam." It was industriously circulated through the rural districts, that if the fusionists were successful, the days of the Republic were numbered, that the old gentleman, would be among us in less than four years, and that a long and bloody war would be the result. The banner of religious bigotry was boldly unfurled to the breeze, and men on our ticket were proclaimed and denounced as Catholics, who probably never entered a Catholic church in their lives. A certain young man, who for the present shall be nameless, visited Blacklick township on the day of election, and circulated a story among the voters, that our worthy Democratic Post Master, M. C. McCague, was to be removed immediately after the election, in order to give room for a Catholic. It is certainly a pity that the zeal of the young man alluded to, in doing "Sam's" dirty work, could not be rewarded with a share of the loaves and fishes at Harrisburg next winter. But poor fellow! his cake is dough. A kin to this was the story circulated through the South, that our candidate for Sheriff, John Roberts Esq., had held a private interview, in a school house, with a catholic priest, doubtless for the purpose of plotting the destruction of the Republic. We forbear alluding to the malicious falsehoods, and inflammatory appeals, with which the columns of the Johnstown Tribune were weekly freighted, during the campaign. Poor Swank is doubtless aware of the unenviable position he now occupies. He is a young man, and we are really not his enemy. We would therefore say to him in the spirit of kindness, sincerity and candor; cease gnawing at a file, and go and repent while time is given thee."

TEACHERS INSTITUTE.—The Teachers Institute has been in session in this place for several days. We have been unable to attend since its commencement, but will endeavor to lay before our readers all the proceedings in our next issue.

TOOTH ACHES.—Persons are not generally aware that Dr. Keyser's Tooth Ache remedy, for sale at JAMES McDERMOTT'S, in this place will stop immediately an aching tooth. Whoever tries it will be convinced.

What is so abundant at the West as to so seriously embarrass the railroads in that region to find adequate freight conveyance for its conveyance. The Illinois Central road it has been found necessary to order three hundred more cars.

It will be seen by an advertisement in today's paper, that Mr. George McCann, has received a large and varied assortment of Fall and Winter goods. Give him a call.

We received a copy of C. L. Pennington's address, but not in time for this week's issue. It will appear next week.

Melancholy Accident.

A letter was sent to us a few days ago, giving the particulars of the death of an interesting son of Mr. James Meloy, of Summerhill township, in this county; the letter, however, did not reach us in time for last week's issue. The following are the full particulars, which we copy from the Johnstown "Echo."

William, a promising and interesting boy of seven years old, son of Mr. James Meloy of Summerhill township, in this county, lost his life in the following melancholy manner: He, with an elder brother and sister, had gone to their grandparents, a few miles distant with a horse and cart for asula, and returning home, the horse became frightened, and running up a bank upset the cart. The elder brother and sister escaped, but William was caught by the cart and held fast, though not in a dangerous way, had not the horse which was lying on his side commenced struggling, and drew the cart over the boy, forcing his head into a mud puddle. His brother and sister had not strength enough to raise the cart off him and suffocated in the mud. He was not otherwise injured.

Cambria County.

The following is the result in Cambria county, official:—

Table with 2 columns: Candidate Name and Votes. Includes Camil Com, Assembly, Sheriff, and Treasurer.

Bedford County.

The following is the official vote of Bedford county:—

Table with 2 columns: Candidate Name and Votes. Includes Canal Com, Assembly, Sheriff, and Treasurer.

What are the Sound Dues.

As these dues may possibly give rise to a serious dispute between the United States and Denmark, it will be interesting to know what they are. The "Sound" is a narrow strait lying between the Island of Zealand, belonging to the Danes, and the Swedish coast, and gives entrance to the Baltic sea. The fortress of Cronburg Castle commands the passage, and extracts a payment from all vessels entering the Baltic; the ships of Denmark herself have to pay, as well as foreign tonnage. The origin of this exaction is, that in ancient times Denmark undertook to build and sustain certain light-houses along the coast, for which the Hanseatics agreed to pay toll.

England, France, Holland and Sweden, pay a duty of one per cent, on every cargo entering the Baltic. Other countries, including the United States, pay one and a quarter per cent.; even Danish ships are taxed to this rate. In the year 1826 a treaty recognizing this duty, was concluded between the United States and Denmark. This treaty, however, according to one of its stipulations may be dissolved by either of the parties, provided they give one year's notice of their intention. During the Presidency of John Tyler our Government determined to put a forcible end to the imposition. Mr. Upshur, then Secretary of State, fitted out a fleet of merchantmen and vessels of war, under Commodore Stewart, which he designed should force its way into the Baltic and thus at once rid the United States of the Sound duties. Mr. Upshur's sudden death, however, by the explosion of a cannon, just as the fleet was ready to start, delayed the expedition and it was finally abandoned. Other attempts were made to abolish his tax. While Denmark was at war with Schleswig-Holstein, Mr. Flenniken, the United States Minister, offered on the part of his government, to pay Denmark $250,000 for a ten year's suspension of the dues; his death prevented the proposal coming to a head. Finally, on the 12th of April last, the United States notified the Danish Government of their intention to cease paying the Sound dues, and the stipulation of the treaty will accordingly expire next spring. Should no amicable arrangement of the question be arrived at in the meanwhile, we may then expect to see our vessels passing the Sound under warlike convoy. A serious conflict will then most probably arise.

The Danes are much alarmed upon this subject, and fear the United States will seize upon their West India possessions—the Islands of St. Thomas and St. Croix. They are believed to be soliciting the good offices of the French Government.—Phila. Argus.

Timely Advice.

Some advice is always timely. The following is of that class. The Rev. James M. Hartwell delivered a sensible discourse at Enfield, N. H., in January last, on "Gospel Preaching the proper business of Christian Ministers," and could he have had "three thousand New England clergymen" to hear him, or even some of our Pennsylvania clergymen, they might have profited by his wise counsel and learned Christian humility and duty from his precepts. The discourse has been published, and contains, among other warnings, this withering rebuke:—

"The example of Christ, and his disciples, shows they attended to one work. They avoided the discussion of all questions that did not directly tend to save men, and extend their Christian influence: only when drawn into an opposite course, by some self righteous Pharisee, or wily Scribe. They set us the example of supporting the government, vindicating the laws of the land, and were careful not to speak evil of the ruler;" and through Christ and him crucified, as a subject, stirred up the people by virtue of their firm adherence to their work, and making all other interests secondary thereto, they were able to succeed much better than they otherwise could have done.

For the Democrat & Sentinel.

Messrs. Editors:—One of the most gratifying results of the late election, is the restoration to power of the Democratic party in the State Senate. This will render certain the election of a Democratic Speaker as well as the balance of the officers. Maj. THOMAS A. MAORING of this county was Clerk of the Senate during the Session of 1854, and although he received the Democratic caucus nomination last winter for the same office, he was defeated by a Know-Nothing. I do not know personally whether Maj. Maguire desires to be reinstated in his former position in the Senate, but if he does, I take it for granted that his claims will be fully endorsed by the Democratic members of that body. That he is eminently qualified for discharging the duties of the office, is admitted by all who know him; that he was the equal of any of his predecessors, will be readily conceded by all the members of the Senate during the session of 1854. He has hosts of friends throughout the State, who would rejoice in his election, regarding it as an act of simple justice to a faithful and competent officer.

CAMBRIA.

For the Democrat & Sentinel.

Permit me to say through the medium of your paper, to the School Directors and Teachers of this County, that as I have received the appointment of County Superintendent, in place of R. L. Johnston, Esq., resigned, and am not advised of the times and places of meeting appointed by the Directors, I will attend at the Hotel of Mr. Thompson, in Ebersburg, on every Saturday, to examine Teachers and consult the wishes of the various Boards in the northern parts of the County, until further arrangements can be made. This is done, not to evade duty, but to oblige those who may wish to open their schools immediately. The schools will all be examined afterwards. Persons interested in the Southern portion of the county, will find me in Johnstown, at other times. It is confidently hoped that the schools will open early, and that kindling, fuel, and every thing necessary to the comfort of the pupil will be provided. Those desirous of further information will please address me at Johnstown, Pa. S. B. COORMICK.

Ebersburg, October 17, 1855.

Messrs. Watson, Jackson & Co., are rapidly progressing with the construction of the stone work of their furnace on the Gaysport side of the river, and Messrs. Osterloh, Gardner & Co., with the foundation of theirs on the Hollidaysburg side. The building of these Furnaces will add much to the interest and enterprise of Hollidaysburg, giving an additional impetus to business, rendering more employment to the capital and labor of our town, and generally benefitting all classes. We wish them much prosperity, as do our people generally.—Blair County Whig.
