EBENSBURG. WEDNESDAY MORNING......JAN. 9.

FOR PRESIDENT, JAMES BUCHANAN.

Subject to the Decision of the National Covention

LE See new advertisements.

Col. T. A. Maguire and Cresswell of the Senate, G. N Smith and Jos. Bernhard of the House, and Col. E Banks, have our thanks for legislative decuments.

The President's Message.

We offer no apology for occupying our columps this week with the President's Message, to the exclusion of our usual variety. Ut course all our readers are auxious to have an opportunity of perusing it. It is an able, manly, statesuren like document, and will riebly reward an attentive perusal. We doen any comments on it nunceessary, as every one can read and judge for himself.

The Legislature.

The Legislature met at Harrisburg on Tuesday the 1st inst. and organized. In the Senate Wm. M. Piatt of Wyoming was elected Clerk, and Henry Pettibone of Luzerne As-their old posts, the Legislature have not only secured the services of experienced and competent clerks, but signally rebuked the proscriptive and intolerant spirit of Know-Nothingism which so largely prevailed in our last legislature. We congratulate our friend Sansom also upon his success, which he merited for his past exertions in the ranks of the Demveracy, and know he will afford satisfaction in the discharge of his duties.

The House elected Richardson E Wright of Philadelphia Speaker, Col. Wie. Jack of Blair Clerk, and Copt. Jacob Zeigler of Butler Assistant. S. B. Sausom of Fulton was elected Sergeant-at-Arms.

Both houses appear to have commenced business in good earnest, and with a determination to make it a working session. It will no doubt be in strong contrast with the de-nothing Knew-Nothing body of last year, nor will the moneys of the tax payers be squandered or their interests neglected.

COMPLAINTS - We are daily receiving complaints that our papers do not reach subseribers The paper is mailed regularly every week. It is well known where the fault lies, and in order that our subscribers may receive the paper regularly, a few officials will have to be reported to the Post Office Department. We have got our mad up, and do it we will.

By We are informed that Mr Lawrence Schrotte will give a Ball at his Hotel in Carrallton, on Tuesday, 22nd inst. We have no doubt, that quite a number of the young folks of this place will avail themselves of the opportunity of paying Mr. S. a visit on that evening FILLING ICE HOUSES. - Hotel keepers and others are busily engaged filling their lee Houses. Tite ice is over a foot thick. A sufficient quantity will be housed to last the summer season through.

In our last issue we published a conmunication from an "Old Tax Payer." Our columns are open for a reply, believing that both parties should be heard.

The Glorious Lighth. From the dull and monotonous manner in which yesterday rolled away in this aucient berough, we were inclined to suspect that our citizens had forgetten that it was the nunivercany of one of the most glorious and remarks the events in the history of our country The victory of the American army commanded by Gen. Jackson, over the British, commanded by Gen. Packenham, at New Orleans. The British forces consisted of about 15,000 men, veterans who had served under Wellington. and been engaged in some of the bloodiest battles recorded in the annals of modern warfare The American army was composed of about 6.000 raw recruits who had never seen a battle, but they were fighting in defence of their household gods, and above all, their commander was Andrew Jackson. The British were defeated with the less of their General, and two miles, and prevent the use of field artifabout 3000 men killed and wounded. Truly has Henry Clay said that, "While the Mississippi continues to bear the tributes of the Iron Mountains and the Alleghenies to her Delta, and the Gulf of Mexico, the 8th of January shall be remembered, and the glory of that day shall stimulate future patriots, and nerve the arm of unborn freemen in driving the presumptuous invader from our country's by using a little liberality, purchase the pat-

In this utilitarian age, it is useful occasionally to indulge in "refreshing remembrances of the past," and certainly, there is no event in the history of the republic since the revolution, to which an American citizen can recur with more pride and gratification, than the victory of New Orleans

Mrs. General Gaines. The country will learn with universal satisfaction that the Supreme Court of Louisians has reversed the decision of the Second Distriet Court, and decreed that the will of Danol Clark, of 1813, be probated, and Mr. of this large estate. For over twenty years is remarkable woman has assertin her legithy which the will of her father was concented descripted. Allens to the blood of Me. lack had appropriated his property; L s ciends in life bad crucky deserted his dauga ter after his death, and amassed fortunes from his estate. She has now triumphed-the decree of the Supreme Court of Louisiana is fi nal, and she will immediately enter into possession. It is understood that Mrs. Gaines locs not intend to embarass present possessors. or demand any restitution; her main object in her heroic and persevering struggle has been o do justice to the fair fame of her mother, nd take from her birth the brand of illegitimacy. She has succeeded, and she deserved succes. Her life has been a tempted; her energies and endurance have been taxed to the uti ost; she has fought millionaries with a purse of her own frequently exhausted, but she has never despaired, or for one moment recognized the existence of such a word as

Death of A Miser.

The Sandusky (Ohio) Vindicator announces the death of a German named John Herryman, at that place, leaving a fortune estimted at from twenty-five to firy thousand. He was one of the lowest class of misers equal to the most loathsome ever painted by Dickens. For the last sixteen years he has constantly worn the same blue. linsey, woolsey wantes and pantaloons, carefully run or darned alover with strong thread, so as to prevent the possibility of wearing out, except on some important occasions, such as land sales or something of that nature, when they gave place to a suit of black velvet that he often brasted had served him faithfully for forty years. He contracted the disease of which he died by walking over the bad roads during the nost inclement weather of the season, all the way to Putnam and Henry counties to pay his taxes on the land he owied there, without sufficient clothing to protect him from the cold. In fact, we are informed that he scarcely ever wore a shirt or under garment, and that the one he had on when he died had not been changed for over three mouths. Although rich, he has been known to chaffer with the swiths over the price of a horseshoe which he had picked up in the streets. So far as is known, he leaves no heir. He always resented any questions as to the place of his birth, relatives or early history.

GROWTH OF TOBACCO IN GERMANY .- A Vienna correspondent of the Washington Union states that the grain market has risen throughout the German Confederacy. He also states an interesting fact, which may explain in part, at least, the rise in grain, that the cultivation of tobacco has, within the last few years, increased to a very considerable extent in the interior of Germany, especially in the Grand Duchy of Baden, the exports of which one are estimated to exceed a million of florius a year. In some localities the cultures weapon if it possess a one half of the power and capacity claimed for it by its proprietor, is destined soon to supersede every ochowespon for warlike purposes now in existence It is the most efficacious and terrible are-ari in existence. The small carbine now used by the U. S. mounted men, throws a ball with deadly accuracy one quarter of a mile, and can be fired ten times per minute. It is not complicated in structure, is easily cleaned, and suffers no injury from wet weather. Mr. Sharp is now preparing models for four new species of his wespons, namely: a small pocket pistol, calculated to throw a Minnie all one hundred yards; a cavalry pistol, with a range of five hundred yards, a rifle suitable for footmen, with a range of one mile; and a large gun to throw a two-ounce ball, or a sholl shell, one mile and a half, or as for as a man or horse can be seen to advantage. With this weapon, Mr. S. declares be can set on fire a house or ship at a distance of nearly lery by killing the horses before the guns are rought within good range This rifle, in the nan is of a good marksman, is equal to teu nuskets, bayonet and all, for, place a man six rods distant with a musket and bayonet, and before he can bring the bayonet into use, the rifle can be leaded and discharged ten times. They carry balls with great precision and force. Mr. Sharp intends these rifles to beent, the country would be possessed of a neans of warfare unequalled in the world .-
