Strayed or Stolen.

THERE is now in my possession a dark bay mare, with black mane and tail, a small star in the forehead, a small scar on the forward part of the pasture of the left hind leg. Said mare is about 15 hands high—is supposed to be about 10 years old, and is what is called a crib biter. The above described mare was found in the possession of James S. Clossin, who has recently been convicted in our court for larceny, and he states that the said mare came to his house on or about the 15th day of October last.

The owner is therefore notified to come forward and take such measures as the law directs for the recovery of the property, otherwise the said mare will be disposed of according to law.
