FOR PRESIDENT,

Subject to the Decision of the National Convention.

Minister to England.

As Mr. Buchanan is about to return to the United States, we are gratified to learn that the President has appointed the Hon. George M. Dal- lowing apposite remarks relative to the eleclas of Philadelphia, as his successor. The ap- tion of Gov. Biglen to the U. S. Canal Commissioner.

In to-day's paper will be found a communication recommending ADOLPHUS PATTERSON, Esq., of this county, as a suitable person to be nominated by the next Democratic State Convention for Canal Commissioner. Mr. P. is a man of stern and unbending integritya Democrat of the old school, and an honest, henorable, upright man, against whom all the assaults the opposition could make, would not weigh a feather.

He is well qualified, too, to fill the office, and if long years of devotion to Democracy suffice to base a claim upon, he is eminently entitled to the nomination. Mr. Patterson is the Senatorial Delegate assemblage of which the delegates can see in Pennsylvania in yielding him a worm and hearty support .- Democratic Standard.

The Moral of the Senatorial Election.

The election of Gov. Bigler in many respects must be highly gratifying to the Deuocratic party of Pennsylvania. We propose to examine briefly the moral of this election At the State election in 1854 a whirlwind of political excitement swept over this Commonwealth, which not only prostrated the nomi-Washington, they had every thing in their reseind the plurality resolution. ate.
