FACTS ABOUT FRIDAY.—From time immemorial Friday has been frowned upon as a day of ill omen. And though this prejudice is less prevalent now than of yore, when superstition had general sway, yet there are many, even in this matter of fact age of ours, who would hesitate, on a day so inauspicious, to begin an undertaking of momentous import. And now many brave warriors, whose hearts unquailed could meet the wildest fury of their ocean home, would blanch even to bond their souls on a Friday. But to show with how much reason this feeling is indulged, let us examine the following important facts, in connection with our settlement and greatness as a nation; and we will see how great cause we Americans have to dread the fatal day.

On Friday, August 3, 1492, Christopher Columbus sailed on his great voyage of discovery.
On Friday, Oct. 12, 1492, he first discovered land.
On Friday, Jan. 4, 1495, he sailed on his return to Spain, which, if he had not reached in safety, the happy result would never have been known which led to the settlement of this vast continent.
On Friday, March 12, 1493, he arrived at Palos in safety.
On Friday, November 22, 1494, he arrived at Hispanola, on his second voyage to America.

On Friday, June 14, 1494, he, though unknown to himself, discovered the continent of America.
On Friday, March 5, 1495, Henry VII of England gave to John Cabot his commission, which led to the discovery of North America. This is the first American State paper in England.
On Friday, September 7, 1565, Melendez founded St. Augustine, the oldest settlement in the United States by more than 40 years.
On Friday, November 10, 1620, the Mayflower with the Pilgrims, made the harbor of Provincetown. And on the same day signed that august compact, the forerunner of our present glorious Constitution.

On Friday, December 22, 1625, the Pilgrims made their final landing on Plymouth Rock.
On Friday, February 22, 1782, George Washington, the father of American freedom, was born.
On Friday, June 16, 1776, Banker Hill was seized and fortified.
On Friday, October 7, 1777, the surrender of Saratoga was made, which had such a powerful influence in inducing France to declare for our cause.

On Friday, September 22, 1780, the treason of Arnold was laid bare, which saved us from destruction.
On Friday, Oct. 19, 1781, the surrender at Yorktown, the crowning glory of the American arms.
On Friday, June 7, 1776, the motion was made in Congress by John Adams, seconded by Richard Henry Lee, that the United Colonies were, and of right ought to be free and independent.

Thus, by numerous examples, we see that, however it may be with other nations, Americans need never dread to begin on Friday any undertaking, however momentous it may be.—Norfolk Beacon.

A Capital Hit.
The man who, in a land and an age like this, is honestly declining against the temporal influences of the past Pope, and earnestly warning his countrymen against the political arts of the poor Catholics; ought to have lived at least in the last century, and followed the Spanish Cavalier in his crusade against wind-mills. Nor have we any man to fear—From the influx of foreign elements into our body politic, in the character and habits of the imported races of the old world. Though foreign immigration ever increased a hundred fold, it would no more alarm a thoughtful man, for the safety of our free institutions, than do the thousand rivers, that pour their varied elements into the sea, alarm a philosopher for the purity of the mighty and assimilating ocean. The nation is already, in all its grand elements of character, permanently Anglo-American; and a wise man would not so sincerely fear to die on a salmon, lest he himself, should become a great fish; or to breathe his last on a bird, lest he should sprout with feathers and wings, as to have a fear lest this American nationality be essentially or injuriously modified by any foreign elements that may flow into it.—Rev. Charles Wadsworth.

A fire was discovered, on Friday, 16th ult., in the rear of the St. Lawrence Hotel, Philadelphia. The damages are set down at $2000—fully insured.—While the fire was raging in the Hotel, a lady who was confined to bed in one of the rooms, had been entirely forgotten, until it was too late to reach her through the fire and smoke. Parties got on the roof and induced her to not open the door of her room, but to endeavor to reach the window, and hold it, so as to escape strangulation from the smoke. She did so, and the parties on the roof, fearful that she would leap from the window, encouraged her by conversing with her, making her believe that she was in no danger; they kept up the conversation until the fire was put out, and on reaching where she was, they found that the fright had effected an entire cure.—Iron Democrat.

A REMARKABLE FACT.—A Washington letter in the Baltimore Sun contains the following paragraph:—"It is worthy of note that in the United States there are 2,900,000 Roman Catholics, whilst in the Senate and House of Representatives there is but one member of each who even makes a profession of that faith. In the cabinet, the Supreme Court of the United States, the Senate and House, there is not a single foreign-born citizen. Surely, 'Americans are ruling America!'"

A CITY IN KANSAS.—Leavenworth, Mo., contains three hundred and seven buildings, of which seventy six are business houses. During the last year one dry goods firm there sold $90,000 worth of goods.

The Sunbury and Erie Railroad Bridges between Northumberland and Sunbury, are completed, and are now taken over the road to Williamsport, Pa., and Elmira and other places, in New York. The cars of the Philadelphia and Sunbury company, it is said, are to be used in taking the coal from the mines in Northumberland county to Elmira and intermediate places.

PROTEST AGAINST RECIPROCIITY.—In the Canada House of Assembly on the 19th, the Quebec Board of Trade protested against any extension of reciprocity with the United States. The Board in question are composed mainly of old fogies, and it is not believed that their protest will influence in any degree the action of Parliament.

It is understood that a tariff bill is to be reported in Congress fixing port duty on all goods made in whole and part, of wool, silk, cotton, hemp, flax, etc. at 30 per cent, and admitting wool, dye stuff, raw silks and all raw materials free.

A bill for the abolition of capital punishment was reported in the Ohio Legislature Thursday of last week.

The Passenger trains on the Sunbury and Erie Railroad, are now running regularly between Sunbury and Williamsport.

Among the deaths of the past year were seventy-one soldiers of the Revolution. There are few left.

MILLARD FILLMORE was in Italy, at last account, looking for his young and happy. Perhaps he is living on hope for the result in November next, mixed in with a little beef and mutton.
