Gov. Pollock.

After a month's absence, Gov. Pollock has at last returned to Harrisburg, and has since signed the General Appropriation Bill the Claim Bill, the supplement to the act consolidating the city of Philadelphia, the bill relative to libels, the act incorporating the Stroudsburg Bank, and the bill requiring all Savings Institutions to pay out none other than the notes of specie paying, Pennsyl-

These are all important bills, and for the fate of which the public began to feel much interest. The hasty retreat of his Excellency from the seat of government upon the adjournment of the legislature, and his long absence created some fear that the public interest would suffer, and the by the Executive. It is some satisfaction however to find that after a month's delay the Governor has seen fit to affix his signature to them and they are now to be regarded as among the laws of the land. But the Philadelphia election is now ever, the noise of which appears to have startled his Excellency from the Know-Nothing slumber he was indulging in at Milton, and hastened his steps back again to Harrisburg. The tricks and delays of the Know-Nothings to humbug the people are seen through, and ere long they will be still further taught a lesson by a people whose intelligence they despise.-Nothing is more power ful in its effects than the results of the ballot box. and the people will now be enabled to breathe more freely, when they know that the wheels of government are once more in motion.

Fillmore and Donelson.

The nomination of these gentlemen creates very little enthusiasm, so far in Pennsylvania-indeed It has operated like a cold water bath upon the different factions into which the opposition to the Democracy are divided.

The old line Whigs turn up their noses at it, because Fillmore and Donelson are both known to be rank Know-Nothings.

The Black Republicans, alias Woolly-Heads, look blue, because neither come up to their standard on the slavery question.

And the Know-Nothings proper are chary of them, because they are afraid these men will deceive them, should they be elevated to the two highest offices in the government.

The different factions may get up a little feeling on the subject after a while-but, for the present at least, Fillmore and Donelson are emphatically wet blanket nominations, and their names are scarcely mentioned in this region of country.

State Council.

The Know-Nothing State council met at Harrisburg on Tuesday of last week, and was organimed by A. W. Benedict of Huntingdon, the would | I be State Senator from this district. The President J. R. Edie member of Congress from this district subsequently appeared, and presided .-After a stormy debate, as the order appears to be in some confusion at present, resolutions were adopted by a vote of 85 to 15 endorsing the nomination of Fillmore and Donelson.

fifteen withdrew, with Ex-Gov. Johnston, and dall McLaughlin, of Westmoreland, George the redoubtable John Williamson of SPAVINED HOBSE memory at their head, who are determined to await the result of the New York Convention which meets in June next.

about to be opened. This promises to be an essablishment, whose beneficial effects will no doubt be felt far and wide, and no more favorable spot sould have been selected for its location than that of its enterprising projector at Cresson. With bure air, pure water, fine mountain scenery, good roals, and accommodations that will be made first lishment, and we hope that under the direction of Dr. Jackson its chief physician it will soon be found in the full tide of successful experiment.

Unfortunate Discovery.

The discovery, after a long search, of the dead bodies of the two children, who recently straved from home and got lost in the woods, in Bedford county, has seriously damaged the capital of the Intense Americans" in that locality. They had an excellent bug-beer story fixed up, on the strength of which they expected to do a good business at the fall election. The Bedford Gazette says :- " Certain KNOW NOTHINGS had industriously circulated a report, which, we have no doubt, was believed by many of their deluded brethren, viz: that these children had been kid napped by a Catholic institution in Cambria county, with the view of converting the BOYS into NUNS!!! The K. N. "High Priest" who started that report should at once be rewarded with a leather medal as indicative of his capacity to " rule America."

Popular Sovereignty-Opinion of Mr. Bu-

On Monday last, Mr. Buchanan, on his way to Washington City, was publicly received at Baltimore by an immense multitude of the people. He made an interesting and appropriate speech on the occasion, from which we extract the following lucid and able exposition of the principle embodied in the Kansas and Nebraska Bill .

"In regard to the future destiny of my country, I confess I am an optimist: and I have an abiding faith that a majority of the States and of the people will always eventually redress every wrong which may be committed against any portion of the country Strange as it may seem, my faith was never stronger in this belief than at the present moment. We have already reached and almost passed the dangerous crisis on the subject of domestic slavery. The volcano is nearly exhausted. The material for continual agitation no longer exists And why? Because I hold it to be quite impossible that any considerable portion of our people can long continue to contest the elementary republican principles recognized in the territorial legislation of Congress.

"This is nothing more than the power possessed by the people of every free State since the world began. It is the foundation—the elementary principle of a Democratic Republic. Without a cheerful submission to the will of the majority no Democratic Government can exist. We have thus reached the end, or to use an expressive Americanism, the finality of our legislation on this subject "What man in the United States who values his character will rise among his fellow citizens and seriously urge the repeal of a law deelaring that the majority shall govern? None-not one. I repeat, we have reached the finality of the question. We have arrived at the elementary principles of freedom, that the majority shall govern-a principle essential to liberty, and as unchangeable as liberty

" After the tempest has passed away it requires some days for the waves of the ocean to subside; so after the agitation in the public mind for many years on the slavery question, it will require some time before this shall cease That it will do so except among those fanatics who are governed by a higher law than the Constitution, I feel an abiding confi-

Thanking you for your friendly invitation, which I value the more as coming from esteemed citizens of a State, which was the home of my boyhood. I have the honor to remain Yours, MAX GRIENE.

MAX GREENE'S LECTURE. - The lecture of Max Greene, on "Kansas," delivered at the Court House on Friday evening, was listened toby quite a respectable audience. It was mainly descriptive of the soil, climate, etc., of the embyo State interspersed with thrilling incidents of travel, all of which were pourtrayed in a vivid eloquent and truly interesting style. Mr. Greent is a fluent and pleasant speaker, and was listened to with marked attention and interest. We believe it is Mr. G's intention to devote his attention exclusively to the profession of lecturing-with a little experience, he will rank amongst the first lecturers of the day .- Holl. Standard.

A CANADIAN AMBASSADOR IN WARHINGTON. -The Toronto Board of Trade suggests that the Canadas should have an ambassador constantly in attendance at Washington. In arguing the point, the Report says :-

It cannot be denied that great necessity exists for some active, intelligent and influential representative of the commercial interests of Canada near the controlling power of the United States-and that, under the rapid growth and daily increasing importance of our commercial relations with that country' this necessity is every day becoming more keenly felt. We see and point out the want, leaving to the governments of this country and Great Britain the task of supplying the remedy. Should the commercial men of Canada deem necessary, it will then be a matter of consideration for the different Boards of Trade throughout the Province whether a simply commercial delegate should be appointed.

The Issue. The Black Republicans, having raised the Nebraska issue, are now attempting to "dodge" it, since they have discovered that it is likely to be decided against them. We intend, however, that they shall not blink the main question, which they themselves have made a party issue; nor can we allow them to throw dust in the people's eyes by misrepresenting the real difference between them and the Democracy. That difference is this. Democrats are in favor of the principles of Popular Sovereignty as embodied in the Kansas-Ne-braska Bill—the right of the sovereign people of each State and Territory to establish and regulate their own institutions, subject only to the paramount authority of the Constitution. The Republicans deny this great principle, and insist upon making the people of the ter-titories the mere vassals of Congress, to take their laws and institutions from the dictation of a Congressional majority, which would thus become to them an arbitrary, and, as its history shows, a most capricious tyrant. But, the Black Republicans are now endeavoring to change and modify the issue. Extension, or Non-Extension, of Slavery, say they, is the great question for the popular decision. Not so. Democrats are no more desirous, than Republicans, that Slavery should be extended into Territories now free. We believe, on the contrary, that the operation of the popular sovereignty doctrine will be to prevent, by the most peaceable and effectual means, the further spread of Slavery. Even the more candid of the Republicans now admit that Kansas will be a Free State. But, whether it will or not, the principle is the only correct, constitutional, and safe one that can be applied. Let the people of each territory decide for themselves, whether Slavery shall be established among them? Is not that fair and just? Is it possible that they, who claim to be the peculiar "friends of freedom," dare not trust the people with the decision of this too true. The Republicans are afraid of the people. The Republicans, like their prototypes, the Whigs and Federalists, are for cur-tailing popular rights and privileges as far as possible. This has always been the radical difference between the two parties, since the days of Alexander Hamilton and Thomas Jefferson; and we wish the people to understand clearly, that this is in form and substance the great issue about to be tried between Democ-

THE RISING TIDE OF DEMOCRACY During a few weeks past we have had the pleasare of recording Democratic victories almost innumerable, and in all parts of the country. It surged up in New Hampshire, increased handsomly in Rhode Island, has nearly overthrown the opposing billows in Connecticut, and rides triumphant through the cities, from St. Louis through Chicago, Milwaukie, Cleaveland, Oswego, Syracuse, and hundreds of other places to Albany. These waves, increasing in size. are destined to swell on, until, by the ides of November, they shall all unitedly and harmoniously fill the full flood-tide of victory, whose waves are surely destined to carry upon their crest the Democratic standard-bearers of 1856. Let the glorious tide sweep on till man's Mills, May 9th 1856, the following it overwhelms every vestige of fanatical demgogism. This it will do.'

RUSSIAN PROJECTS.

Sixty-eight years ago the government of Russia fitted out a fleet and army at one of the ports in Kamschatka to invade and take possession of Oregon and California. Had Spain been as weak then as now the project would have been successful, and the California gold mines would have been supplying the means of conquering Constantinople. But the energy of the Viceroy of Mexico frustrated the design. He sent out three ships of war affectionate husband, her little girls one of the and a considerable army, and attacked the Russian settlements in the Aleutian islands and along the coast, and the Russian project was given up for the time. Russia was not then prepared to go to go to war with Spain. The Empeaor Paul afterwards revived the project. In 1806 a Russian fleet sailed as far south as San Francisco, purchased land, established a fort, and quite a large Russian town sprung up on the coast not far from where San Francisco now is. By 1820 the Russian colonies in San Francisco had become quite numerous and powerful. As late as 1834 the power of Russia was supreme in the now republican State of California. But about that time a good many Americans and English had settled there, and they stimulated and a copy furnished the "Democrat & Sen- the Mexicans and natives to hostilities, and one by one the Russian towns were destroyed or abandoned until, in 1841, the Emperor Nicholas sold to a Swiss, named Sutter, all that remained of Russian possessions in California. From the Louisville Courier. Gen. William Walker.

We perceive in many of our exchanges, within the last few days, an extract from a late number of " Blackwood's Edinburg Magazine," on Nicaragua, in which it is stated that General Walker, whose position in its affairs has drawn all eyes upon him, is about would be re-captured. forty years of age, and is a native of Alabama, and giving some details as to his early life and education, which are sometimes correct and sometimes otherwise.

The writer of this article has known Will iam Walker from his childhood, and has it, therefore, within his power to correct several errors which prevailed with regard to him In the first place, then, he is a native of the city of Nashville, Tennessee, his father being of Scotch birth, coming, we believe, from Glasgow or its vicinity, his mother, who was a sister of John Norvell, at one period, a a sister of John Norvell, at one period, a avowed purpose being to compel the people Senator in Congress from Michigan, being a of Lawrence to acknowledge the Territorial native of Kentucky. William, the eldest of laws. their children, is about thirty-three or four years of age, is of rather diminutive stature with whitish hair, fair complexion, much stained on the cheeks and about the eyes with freekles, grey eyes, and a countenance, on the whole, rather tame and unprepossessing .-His voice is low, and decidedly nasal, being what the children call sing-song; his manners are uncommonly quiet and reserved, if not awkward; but when in company with intimate friends, or when interested in any subject, he wakes up, and his whole appearance greatly changes.

At school and college, Walker was most taciturn and studious. He was particularly proficient in mathematics and the exact seiences, and on his graduation at the University of Nashville, he went to Edinburz, where he went through the School of Medicine, and afterwards attended lectures on that science in Paris, and then traveled over a considerable portion of middle and southern Europe. On his return to Nashville he found that neither his health nor his temperament fitted him for the life of a physician, and he came to this city with the intention of studying lew and to practice, but never, we think, made any very strenuous attempt to advance in the profession. Shortly afterwards, he became connected with the "Crescent," and devoted itorial labors. The experiment did not, however, prove so fortunate as he had expected, State he was also, for a while connected with the Press, and at the period of the descent upon Sonora, which he made with a handful of followers, he was, if we have not been misinformed, again trying his luck at the Bar .-However ill-advised and unfortunate that adroism in the midst of the sternest difficulties.

Under his calm and unreserved exterior. most unflinching personal courage. He is. we are inclined to think, slightly fanatical in his views, when interested or resolved upon a matter, and probably never thinks of concessions to any person, or under any circumstances. He is also strictly just and impartial in his course, and little given to making distinctions in his treatment of those who effend against discipline. In proof of this we heard the other day from a most reliable source, that his own brother, who held a commission, having been guilty of an imprudence which disqualified him for duty at the moment he ordered that he should be reduced to the ranks and his commission forfeited, nor would he recede from this position, although strongly urged to clemency by many of his leading and most trusted officers.

The most serious error which Walker has committed since he landed in Nicaragua, and one which has unquestionably compromised him to a considerable degree in the eyes of many who are willing and desirous to aid in any steps which have for their object the settlement of the affairs in Central America in such manner as will tend to the establishment of order, and the prevention of European intrigue against the interests of this country, has been the very objectionable character of several individuals upon whom he has conferred reasonable and conspicuous positions .-There was no excuse, for instance, for sending such a man as P. H. French as Minister to this country, nor for conferring high mili-tary rank upon Schlessinger. He is now, however, happily rid of both, and among the many brave and intelligent men who are flocking to join his standard, he will no doubt find better material of which to make both Colonels and Plenipotentiaries. That he will maintain his position against the motley host of mongrel natives and adventurous Europeans with whom he will have to contend, there can be no reasonable doubt. His great danger would be from an invasion by French or English forces, but that can scarcely occur before he will be also prepared to resist it by the large accession of strength which he will receive by immigration from this country.

Plans of the Black Republicans.

It is evident that the Black Republicans of the North (says the Squatter Sovereign.) will attempt to cast Kansas into the Union with the "bogus constitution" fixed up at Topeka by Lane, Robison, and other traitors. is more than probable that such a move will superseded by any furnace of the same capacity be successfully made in the House of Representatives, and an attempt made to force it through the Senate by the threat of refusing to vote money to carry on the government -Should such dastardly means be resorted to. who can but forsee the evil consequences that must inevitably follow.
