

Democrat and Sentinel.

WHITE & DEVINE, Editors and Proprietors.

EBENSBURG.

WEDNESDAY MORNING:::::::JUNE 18.

FOR PRESIDENT,

OF PENNSYLVANIA

BRECKINRIDGE, OF KENTUCKY.

Canal Commissioner: GEORGE SCOTT. (OF COLUMBIA COUNTY.)

Auditor General: JACOB FRY, JR., (OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY.) Surveyor General:

TIMOTHY IVES,

(OF POTTER COUNTY.)

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

SENATORIAL. Charles R. Buckalew, Wilson M'Candless. DISTRICT.

Geo. W. Nebinger, 13. Abraham Elinger, 14. Reuben Wilber, 2. Pierce Butler, 3. Edward Wartman, 15. Geo. A. Crawford, 4. Wm. H. Witte, 16. James Black, 17. H. J. Stahle, 5. John McNair, 6. John N. Brinton, 18. John D. Roddy, David Lavry, 19, Jacob Turney, 8. Charles Kessler. 20. J. A. J. Buchanan, 9. James Patterson. 21. Wm. Wilkins, 10. Isaac Slenker, 11. F. W. Hughes, 22. Jas. G. Campbell,* 23. T. Cunningham, 12. Thos. Osterhout. 24. John Keatly, 25. Vincent Phelps.

National Convention.

On our first page will be found an abstrac of the proceedings of the National Convention, which will be useful as a matter of reference. more space in our paper than we could well spare, and therefore our readers must be content with the brief summary we have given them. The general anxiety to see the ballotings upon the nominations, which resulted in giving the party so strong a ticket, and which have been received with such such strong expressions of satisfaction from one end of the country to the other, cannot but be regarded as an evidence of the deep interest felt by the people in the result of the proceedings at Cinceedings, and the fact that Mr. Buchanan received the unanimous vote of the Convention, inridge was nominated upon the second ballot, all goes to show the fraternal feeling which animated the Democracy, representing every state in our broad Union, and is a sure harbioger of their triumphant election by the people in November next.

The Democratic party is the only national party now in existence, and its platform so broad that all can stand upon it, from the pine forests of Maine to the golden shores of California, and from the great lakes on the North to the Gulf of Mexico on the South. In its success we can only hope for the preservation of our constitution, the security of the civil and religious rights of all, the re-establishment of concord in our union, and the complete prostration of the fanatical and sectional parties, which for the first time in our history now threaten to destroy the harmony and peace of the country. The crisis is an important one, but the patriotic of all parties are daily becoming sensible of this fact and rushing by thousands to the support of our standard bearers, which despite the combined efforts of all the isms will terminate in the election of BUCHANAN AND BECKINBIDGE.

Odd Fellows Procession.

The Grand Lodge of Pa., have given a grant to Conemaugh and Alma Lodges of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Johnstown for a processsion on the 4th of July, G N Smith, editor of the "Echo" will read the Declaration of Independence. Addresses by Maj. James Potts, of Johnstown, and L. J. Mitchell of Butler Co., and others. The attendance of a large number of neighboring Lodges is anticipated.

George M. Reed, Esq., of this place, were Headrick, and we are only sorry that we were triumphant reply: much surprised and alarmed on seeing a large not present to enjoy the pleasure, as John is Black Snake leisurely crawling into the kitch. a Prince of a good fellow and knows how to en of his residence. A neighbor was called do up matters to make his guests happy and in, and his snakeship speedily dispatched, who proved to be quite a formidable one of the kind, measuring five feet two inches in length, of which we had ocular demonstration, as he was subsequently brought to our office for inspection.

ICE CREAM .- Mrs. Mark Edwards will serve up regularly every evening at her residence this cooling beverage.

Bolters Convention.

The Northern or abolition wing of the Know Nothing party that bolted from the Philadelphia convention last February, met at New York on Thursday last the 12th inst., and after a couple of days session have at length succeeded in framing a ticket, at least to show that they repudiate Fillmore and Donaldson. Ex-Gov. Johnston of this State was the temporary chairman, and Ex-Mayor Conrad by several Vice Presidents and Secretary's.

The principal candidates before the convention for President were Speaker Banks, Col. Fremont, and Judge M'Lean. The ballotings resulted in the nomination of the follow-

For President, N. P. Banks, of Massachusetts. For Vice President,

Wm. F. Johnston, of Pennsylvania. A platform was then adopted, and the convention adjourned over to wait the result of the Republican convention now in session at Philadelphia. An effort will be made to unite the Northern Know-Nothings and Republicans in the support of the same ticket. The nomination of Banks and Johnston appears to be as unacceptable to the "dark lantern party" as those of Fillmore and Donaldson, and a number of delegates comprising the New Jersey delegates and a few from New York, Pennsylvania and Delaware withdrew and nominated another ticket as follows

> For President, Robert F. Stockton, of New Jersey. Vice President,

Kenneth Raynor, of North Carolina. Here we see three tickets already placed in the field by a party who boast that they are governed by the principle "that the office should seek the man, and not the man the office." How order will be brought from this state of confusion remains to be seen, and we shall await the result of the proceedings of the "Black Republicans" at Philadelphia, but no matter how many tickets may be nominated the triumph of the Democracy is cer-

Congress.

A correspondent in the last "Huntingdon Globe" recommends Thaddeus Banks, Esq. of Hollidaysburg, for nomination by the Dem-Congress.

Mass Meering .- A large and enthusiastic ratification meeting was held at Philadelphia To publish the proceedings and all the inter- on Tuesday evening the 10th inst, and which ecting debates which occurred, however much is said to have been one of the largest ever we may have desired it, would have occupied | held in that city. Independence square in which it was held was completely filled, upwards of 30,000 persons being computed to be present. Mayor Vaux presided, assisted by a large number of Vice Presidents and Secretarys. Much enthusiasm prevailed, and speeches were made by Gen Cass, Hon. S. A Douglas, Hon. Howell Cobb, Wm. B. Reed, Esq., Hon. Richard Brodhead and others. Mr. Reed is well known throughout the State as an "old line Whig," but whose detestation of the Know Nothings and the traitorous course of the Republicans has in-The harmony which characterized the pro- duced him to come out openly for Buchanan and Breckenridge. His example will be followed by thousands in the State, and Philabefore getting two thirds; whilst Mr. Breck- delphia promises to roll up a majority of thousands for the Democracy.

New School House .- It will be seen by an an advertisement in this week's paper that the board of School Directors have issued proposals for the erection of a large and commodious School Lloyd, adjoining the residence of Dr. D. W. Lewis. The building is to be three stories, 50 front by 48 deep. We are pleased to learn that the contract for the building has been awarded to our fellow townsman Mr. Joshua D. Parrish, who bears the reputation of a master workman.

The building when finished will add materially to the appearance of our beautiful borough.

ARCADE HOTEL.-Mr. Henry Foster has leased for a term of years the above Hotel, in Johnstown, and from his well known reputation as a landlord anything we could say would add little to enhance custom to his house. The building is admirably adapted for the business, being located in a desirable part of the town. He has added a saloon in the basement story, which in point of excellence will vie with many of our first class city saloons.

HACKS .- It will be seen by an advertisement in to-days paper, that Mr. John M'Cov and our near neighbor Mr. John A. Blair, have put on the Plank Road between this place and Jefferson a line of comfortable and easy running Hacks. They have made their arrangements to run regularly between the two points in time for passengers to take the Eastern or Western Trains at Willmore Station, and have no doubt they will be duly patroni-

Mount Ben Nevis .- In glancing over the local columns of the "Echo" we learn that a number of our old friends and associates paid plot to break down Henry Clay." To this A SNAKE -A few days since the family of a visit to the beautiful residence of Mr. John the Cincinnati Enquirer makes the following comfortable.

> GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE.—This popular Magazine now under the control of Watson & Co., came to us in due time. It is richly embellished with engravings, fashion plates and embroidery patterns.

A number of articles intended for this week's paper have been unavoidably crowded out.

gentleman appears in the papers dated Paris May 21st, in which he accepts the nomination for the Presidency conferred upon him by the Know-Nothings. He endorses the Philadelphia platform, and says that he soon expects to sail for the United States.

Recovery of Lost Horses.

From information derived from Rutter when of Philadelphia was made President assisted here on court week, Mr. Samuel D. Lilly of Washington township, went to Elmira, N. York and found his horse in the place indicated by Rutter, and on producing the necessary proof his horse was restored to him. William Carney of Munster from information, also derived from the same source, proceeded to Virginia in search of his two horses-one of which he found dead, and the other was delivered up to him, without his having any difficulty. From the " falling out of rogues "-some of "the bonest men of this county are getting their own."

> Apology. - Owing to the illness of our foreman, and also the illness of the mother of one of our hands, has been the cause of the Democrat and Sentinel being delayed beyond its regular day of publication.

RE We clip the following article from the Johnstown " Elehe."

EXTRAORDINARY MINERAL DEPOSIT. Thos. B. Moore, Esq. of Ebensburg, has discovered on his land, on Blacklick Creek, a few miles west of Ebensburg, the most extraordinary deposit of iron ore ever discovered in this State. The ore is in a very high abrupt hill, the base of which is washed by the waters of Blacklick, a large beautiful creek, with a never failing supply of water sufficient for any manufacturing purpose.

On the water level at the foot of the hill, is a coal vein 6 feet 6 inches thick; immediately above it is a vein of iron ore 15 inches thick; twenty-six feet above that is a vein of coal 3 feet thick; fifteen feet above that is a vein of ore 41 feet thick; ten feet above that is a vein of ore 6 feet 6 inches thick; fortyfour feet above that is a vein of coal 3 feet 8 last: inches thick, and fifty six feet above that is a vein of ore 2 feet 9 inches thick.

The above may appear fabulous, but it is a true description of the different mineral deposits in the hill Besides these there are several veins of limestone, fire elay and cement ocrats of this district as their candidate for interspersed. Mr. James Morley, Superin- of great cultivation and high accomplishments. tendent of the Cambria Iron Company's mines, who in his business has not a superior perhaps in the Union, has examined the above described minerals, and reports them precisely as we have stated. He describes it as the most astonishing deposit of minerals within his knowledge. The hill he says is very steep, and the different veins come out full in resents as being rich and of excellent quality. As we said before, we have given these facts as we received them from Mr. Morley, who is a gentleman of probity, and whose knowledge of iron ore and mining is not surpassed by any minerologist extant.

FOR BUCHANAN. - The Democracy of Missouri are about as badly divided as they lately were in New York. But both sections of the party enthusiastically support Buchanan and Breckinridge Col. Benton of the "softs," accepts the nomination for Governor, and will stump the State for Buchanan. The other section of the party are equally zealous in his support. It is thus that the name of Buchanan overrides all difficulties, and all differences of opinion; and it will in a few months quiet all sections of the country, and put an end to House on the lot recently purchased of Mr. John | that domestic strife and agitation that threatened to result in a disastrous civil war.

The Board of Claims.

The Commissioners under the act of 22d May, 1856, to re-examine certain claims against the Commonwealth, consisting of E. Banks, Auditor General, Thos. E. Franklin, Attorney General, and H. S. Magraw, State Treasurer, organized on Wednesday last, by electing E. Banks, President, and J. G. L. Brown, secretary. By an advertisement in to-day's paper it will be seen that persons having claims certified to be due and unpaid on the main line of the public works by the Commissioners appointed for that purpose in 1854, are required to file their claims in the Auditor General's office, on or before the 10th of July, and that testimony in reference to said claims will be taken at Cresson, Cambria county, on Thursday, the 17th of July. Persons having claims against the Commonwealth would do well to attend to the filing of their accounts, according to the requirements of the Commissioners, without delay .- Patriot de

Mr. Buchanan and Henry Clay.

The Cincinnati Gazette expresses astonishment that old Clay Whigs should be found willing to support Mr. Buchanan, and, among other reasons, alludes to the charge that in 1824, " Mr. Buchanan was mixed up with a

Now, it is well known that, although Mr.

MR. FILLMORE -A long letter from this proposed, through Mr. Buchanan, to give and make a speech at night. One day, such chanan flatly and promptly denied that such each spent immerse sums of money. a proposition had been made through him, as

> "Mr. Clay himself, in a letter to Judge Brooke, of Virginia, dated Washington, August 14, 1827, (see his private correspondence published by Colten,) states emphatically in discussion in the House, he and Francis B. regard to the same matter: 'I could not desire a stronger statement from Mr. Buchanan. The tables are completely turned.

> "Again: the Hon. R. P. Letcher, of Kentucky; a devoted personal and political friend- sary a challenge. After some delay and exof Mr. Clay, writes to the latter, under date of August 27, 1827, in relation to the same point in Mr. Buchanan's response: 'This answer is well put together. As they say in Connecticut, 'there is a great deal of good reading in Buck's reply.' It is modest and genteel, yet strong and conclusive. I am has acquitted himself.'

> fresh the memories of its readers with 'by- He is the representative, in a more polishgones,' let it recall the names of those factions ed and elegant form than Douglass, of the and sectional demagogues of abolitionism who | "Young America" "Manifest Destiny" school now rule in the councils of the pseudo Repub- of Democracy. Their doctrines prevail most licans, and who in 1844 played the parts of extensively in the West and South-west. double traitors, and won the meed of scorn and contempt from all honest. Union-loving and patriotic men among Whigs and Demo-

"These few quotations are sufficient to show how unfortunate our not altogether unintelligent cotemporary is in its reference to 'bygones.' But if the Clay Whigs may not be permitted by the Gazette to vote for James Buchanan on account of their ancient contests with him, will it be pretended that they can consistently support the Gazette's party, or any candidate who is likely to be set up by the Philadelphia convention? Shall they assist in elevating the self-seeking leaders of the Henry Clay in 1844?

To show what the opposition presses think of our nominees we publish the following full account of John C. Breckenridge, which we find in the Philadelphia Times of Saturday most capacity with the representatives from

John C. Breckingings.—This gentleman has been nominated by the Democratic Convention, on the second ballot, for the Vice Cabell Breckenridge. His father was a man He won considerable distinction, and served Secretary of State in Kentucky. The celebrated Presbyterian Clergyman, Robert C. Breckenridge, is the uncle of the Vice-Presidential nominee.

Mr. Breckenridge's grandfather was Senator of the United States from Kentucky, and Attorney General under the administration of Mr. Jefferson. The family have always borne a conspicuous part in the politics of that

Mr. Breekenridge was educated at Centre College, Danville, Ky. At college he showed extraordinary talent in all that related to composition and elecution. He exhibited many of those eccentricities, however, which are shown by men of genius. He was full of fun and frolic, ripe for any mischief, and was by no means distinguished for habits of close application. When he was aroused by any event to effort, he, to use the language of a class-mate, could make "the walls of the old college thunder.'

After leaving college he studied law, and emigrated to Iowa, with the determination of ettling there. Not satisfied with his prosnects in that State, he returned to Lexington, where he now lives. In 1847, Mr Breckenridge went out as a Major in one of the three Kentucky regiments raised that year. He did not reach the city of Mexico until after it was taken. Nor did he participate in any of the sanguinary conflicts of the war. Whilst his regiment lay in garrison, he was employed in the defence of Major General Pillow, in that most singular and extraordinary set of prosecutions and counter-prosecutions, which occurred between the general-in-chief and his subordinates. In these trials, he is said to have exhibited much skill and acuteness as a lawyer. He enjoyed great persons! popularity in his regiment, and ndeed in the brigade to which he was attach-

In 1851, Gen. Leslie Coombs was the Whig nominee in the Ashland district. For twenty years no Democrat had been elected from it. It was the home of Mr. Clay, and it was deemed idle for a Democrat to make the race .-Breckenridge resolved to try. His opponent, Gen. Coombs, is well known here as a popular orator, and he possessed, in a high degree, the affections of the Whig party. When they took the stump, according to western custom, it soon became apparent that Beckenridge was infinitely an overmatch for his antagonist .-After an animated contest, Breckenridge was returned by over 600 majority. His party became so proud of his services and the dis tinction he won, during the first two years he was in the national legislature, that they unanimously gave him a re-nomination in 1853. The Whigs, determined to conquer their enemy on their old stronghold, brought out Robert Letcher to run against him. This gentleman had been in political life for thirty years. He had been repeatedly in Congress. was Governor of the State for one term, and had just then returned from the Mexican mission, to which he had been appointed by Gen. Taylor He had been, and was then, one of the most popular men in the State, and one of the best stump orators. When 'Black Bob,' as Gov. Letcher was familiarly called, was put upon the track, the Whigs declared that "Old Boston" was entered, and that he would distance his competitor.

Never was so much feeling elicited in any Buchanan was an ardent and devoted friend | Congressional canvass within our recollecof General Jackson, and one of his most able | tion. They began speaking together early in and eloquent supporters, before and after his May, and there was not a day, except Sunelection to the presidency, the above accusa- day, until the first Monday in August, that tions of complicity in any plot, or in any dis-honoring imputations against Mr. Clay's in-and hand to hand. They spoke as often as tegrity, are entirely unfounded. They are four or five times in one precinct. Their disdisproved by the letters of that distinguished trict was a large one, consisting of Fayette,

General Jackson their support on certain con- was his activity, he went seventy miles and ditions. Mr. Clay indignantly repelled the made three speeches. Never were partisans charge, and his biographer adds: 'Mr. Bu- on either side more vigilant. The friends of

The contest resulted in the re-election of had been alledged, and entirely exonerated Breckenridge, by a majority of 520 votes.—

Mr. Clay and his adherents from all connex- After serving until the 4th of March, 1855, he retired from public life.

During his term of office he was offered a foreign mission by President Pierce, but de-clined Whilst the Kansas Bill was under Cutting, of New York, although political friends, came in contact, and a severe parliamentary recentre took place. Breckenridge considering himself insulted, sent his adverplanation, a reconciliation was effected by the intercession of friends.

There is no doubt that Mr. Breckenridge is the idol of his party in his own State. As a popular orator, there is no man in the West day last, one hundred and thirty men, fully his superior; tall and commanding in person, he exhibits the most graceful elecution. He truly delighted with the manner in which B. is rapid and vehement in utterance, yet distipetly articulate. He combines an intellect both drum and fife, and their bunners were "When the Gazette is next disposed to re- of high order, with great personal advantage

Should be be elected to the second office in the nation, he will preside with ability and discretion over the deliberations of the Senate.

The Closing Scenes in the Democratic National Convention.

The Cincinnatti Enquirer, of last Saturday, has the following interesting article descriptive of the closing scenes in the Democratic Convention :--

"The copious reports of the proceedings of the Convention, to be found in to-day's Enquirer, will give our readers some faint idea of the unanimity and enthusiasm with which James Buchanan received the Presidential nomination We say faint, for the scenes faction that in New York and Ohio betrayed that transpired during the call of the roll on the last ballet, the brief and eloquent respon- duty in the Territory, and it is understood ses of the chairman of the different delega- from reliable source that Gov. Shannon would tions as they gave in their votes, must have order out those still left at Fort Leavenworth been seen and heard to be suitably apprecia- and Fort Reilly, and give his whole time and ted. The spacious hall was filled to its ut- attention towards restoring good order and every State in the Union, and the singleness of purpose with which they were animated, soner in the hands of the Philistines, was at was glorious indeed to every lover of his coun- Kansas City on Monday. looking as well as Presidency. He is now about thirty-eight years of age. At present he resides at Lex-to Wiscousin, and from the great lakes to the " Hand grasped hand in cordial embrace; Gulf of Mexico went up a shout for James Bu- near the truth; but that outrages of the most chanan. All the divisions in sentiment which revolting character are daily committed by had previously existed, and personal prefer- both parties throughout the Territory, there ence for other men, were forgotten or thrown is not the least doubt aside in a unanimous determination to stand by the nominee and thus uphold the great principles of our organization.

"In a spirit of magnanimity and devotion to the Democratic cause, worthy of them. Messrs. Pierce and Douglas withdrew their names from the contest after it had been demonstrated that Mr. Buchanan was the choice of the majority, and most heartily confirmed it. Neither they nor their friends are willing to be p'a el in a position of factious opposition to the will of the majority.

"This generous conduct upon the part of our patriotic President and the distinguished Senator from Illinois will add another laurel wreath of fame to the bright chaplets which adorn their brows, and give them even a higher place in the affections of the party than they have hitherto enjoyed.

"President Pierce will retire from office with the grateful approbation of patriotic and Union-loving men, that, upon all occasions and in difficult emergencies, he has been faithfal to the Constitution, and with the certainty that his administration will occupy a good place in American annals.

"The Senator from Illinois is yet in the prime of life; a career of glory and honor is before him, to be crowned, at an early day, with the highest honors the American people can bestow. Such was the unmistakable sentiment and feeling of the Convention in regard to the illustrious Senator from Illinois. "The unanimous nomination of James Buchanan by the Cincinnati Convention settles the Presidential contest in our favor He will, in all probability, receive the electoral vote of nearly every State in the Union. The North and the South, the East and the West, will vie with each other in the cordiality of their support. All opposition to his election will be as idle as it would be to stem the terrent of Niagara. He will be berne into the Presidential Chair upon a wave of popular furore that will sweep everything before it.-Black Republicanism and Know-Nothingism will be literally 'crushed out,' and leave behind them not a vestige of their ancient vigor. The Committee of the National Convention and Mr. Buchanan. LANCASTER, June 13 .- The Committee appointed by the Cincinnati convention to notify Mr. Buchanan of his nomination, arrived here this morning in the early train, and proceeded immediately to Wheatland, where were also assembled several gentlemen from this city and State, among whom was ex-Governor Porter, Hon H. S. Magraw; State Treasurer, Col. J. W. Forney, of Philadelphia, and Col. Wm. Rice, of the Pennsylvanian, Col. Wm. B. Fordney, J. S. Reynolds, Esq , and others of

The gentlemen of the Committee present, were General Ward, of Georgia, Gov. Brown, of Mississippi, M. Forsythe, of Missouri, Mr. Preston, of Kentucky, Mr. Hibbard, of New Hampshire, Mr. Manning, of South Carolina, and Gov. Lawrence, of Rhode Island.

On reaching Wheatland they were cordially greeted by Mr Buchanan. General Ward then presented Mr. B. a letter informing him of his nomination, accompanied with a few appropriate remarks, which were replied to in a happy manner by Mr. Buchanan, who informed the Committee that a more full reply would be given them in writing.

The company, consisting of about fifteen persons, sat down to a sumptuous dinner pre- and will be the test at the North during the pared for the occasion, and the meeting continued to a late hour.

Kentucky would vote for Buchanan and ance be anticipated The South cannot and Breekinridge in November next, which a gen- will not consent to be considered inferior to tleman, who has the money to invest, reques- the North, both in their personal rights and statesman himself, by the correspondence of his friends, and by the direct statement of his own counties. Letcher was not able to be own chosen biographer.

Scott, Franklin, Jessamine, Woodford and been called for. Where are all the sanguine present with his youthful opponent at every the marks for the present, and will, at an early the marks for the present, and will, at an early the marks for the present, and will, at an early the marks for the present, and will, at an early the marks for the present, and will, at an early the marks for the present, and will, at an early the marks for the present, and will, at an early the marks for the present, and will are the money to invest, requestions to the marks for the present, and this doctrine sections to the marks for the present, and will, at an early the marks for the present, and will are the money to invest, requestions to the marks the money to invest, requestions to the money to invest, requestions to the marks the money to invest, requestions to the money to invest. "In Mallory's Life of Henry Clay, vol. 1, point. He would meet him every day at the page 138, reference is made to the charge against Mr. Clay and his friends of having ridge often would ride to some other precinct ceeds?—Louisville Courier.

FROM KANSAS.

The Excitement-Citizens Leaving the Torri-

The steamer "Polar Star" arrived at St Louis on the 12th from the Missouri River. Among her passengers were a number of persons who were abandoning their homes in Kansas, to escape the anxieties and troubles of the Territory. It seems that however peaceably disposed a citizen may be, he is in danger of losing his life and property from the attacks of lawless bands of desperadoes, with which the border is infested. The officers of the Polar Star state that a battle between the Free Soil and Pro-Slavery men was expected to take place on last Tuesday. It was reported at Kansas City that four hundred men of each party were in the immediate vicinity of Hickory Point, all armed to the teeth, and eager for the fight. Tuesday last was the day fixed upon, as far as could be learned, for the commencement of hostilities. On Monarmed and equipped for war, marched through Westport, to join the Pro-Slavery party at Hickroy Point. The company had with them flying as if they were marching to repel a bostile invader, who had taken unlawful possession of the soil.

The Territorial Investigating Committee, consisting of Messrs. Oliver, Howard, Sherman and others, were passengers in the Polar Star, en route for their bomes and the City of Washington Gov. Shannon was at Kansas City on Tuesday fast, but would start immediately for Fort Leavenworth, and adopt all the means in his power for the restoration of peace and quiet along the border. Major Oliver, whose information came directly from the Governor, stated on board the Polar Star, that Gov. Shannon, would, on his arrival at Fort Leavenworth, issue a proclamation requiring the disarming and disbanding of any and all armed parties, and in case of refusal the officers of the United States troops are to use discretionary power to fire upon those that refuses to do so.

Eight companies U. S. troops are now on peace in the Territory of Kansas.

II. C Pate who was for some time a priever The presumption is, that not more than Reeder on the Kansas War.

The Albany Argus and Atlas publishes & private letter from ex-Gov. Reeder to the Hon. Galusha A. Crow, which embraces a powerful exposure of the fact that the leaders of the rebellion in progress there are siming simply and knowingly to subvert the authority of the United States in the Territory. That while admitting among themselves that the Territorial government is the rightful authority there, and, that as such it should be obeved by all good citizens, they nevertheless have agreed among themselves to deny these facts when addressing the public, and to stimulate the vicious, thoughtless, and lawless, in the Territory to the work of laboring to uprooft the government by fire and sword. If any one doubt these facts let him read the following extract from Reeder's letter to Mr. Crow:

"As to putting a set of laws in operation in opposition to the territorial government, my oninion is confirmed instead of shaken. My predictions have all been verified so far, and will be in the future. We will be, so far as the legality is concerned, in the wrong, and that is no trifle in so critical a state of things, and in view of such bloody consequencese; to bring down the Missourians upon us in the assumed character of vindicators of the law. What consummate folly is there not in such a move? You will have seen Pierce's message. Suppose we had occupied the ground I wished of the mere adoption of the constitution and election of officers, only for the purpose of applying for admission, what ground would Pierce have to stand on, or how much of his message would have been left? He is not the only man who is backward and lukewarm towards us For this reason they say they can not sustain us in the position of resistance to the territorial government, and you will find think, that Douglas will also take that ground; but I want you to understand me distinotly that I do not speak thus publicly to our enemies. I may speak my plain and private opinion in letters to our friends in Kansas, for it is my daty; but to the public, as you will see by my published letter, I show no divided front.'

Gov. Reeder's sensible advice has been disregarded, and the consequence is that the Abolitionists have drenched the Territory in blood. It was the plain duty of the authorities to execute the laws at all hazards, in doing which they met with armed resistance has already become a civil war, the Abolitionists being now engaged all over the Territory as armed bands in plundering, burning and murdering all supposed to be opposed to their schemes who are supprised in a defenceless attitude.

An Important Developement.

The Wheeling (Va) Intelligencer, an influential Old Line Whig Journal, promises in a few days, to give in full its views of the Cincinnati Platform and the Democratic nominees. The Intelligencer says of the Platform, that " upon the great question at present dividing the country, it is eminently national, and proclaims, in its largest sense, the national and constitutional doctrine of non-interference by Congress in State, territory, and in the District of Columbia. This is the true doctrine, canvass. By it will be tried Northern sentiment, and by it must be determined the true position of parties with reference to the Union, Nor Taken Yer .- The $1,000 bet that for on this principle alone can its firm continu-