

An Overwhelming Reply.

In the course of a long, able, and withering reply to the oft-refuted slanders in regard to the Federalism of Mr. Buchanan, the New York Dag Book says:

"Now, the truth is, Mr. Buchanan 'never was a Federalist, in the true sense of that term.' A Federalist was an opposer of the war of 1812; Mr. Buchanan supported the war by his own good sword. 'Mr. Buchanan was elected to Congress, the first time in 1820 and as a supporter of Mr. Monroe's administration; yet as this administration was supported by the Federalists, the Clintonians, and Democrats, it gives his enemies a chance to say that he was a Federalist. The true way to determine what he was is to go to the record. Did he support Federal or Whig measures? Did he favor a strict or liberal construction of the constitution? By their fruits you shall know them. Now almost the first speech (and a most able one it was) which Mr. Buchanan made on the floor of Congress was in opposition to a bankrupt law. In this speech he showed its injustice to the laboring classes, and its wrong in granting special privileges to law."

"Upon other questions his record is equally Democratic. Party lines they were not drawn. The old Federal party had forsaken its principles, and made pretensions to the 'era of good feeling,' as it was called. When however, Mr. Monroe drew the lines in his celebrated message upon internal improvement and in the enunciation of the Monroe doctrine, the goats soon separated from the sheep. The former all at once became 'National Republicans,' and Mr. Clay, chagrined and disappointed, joined them. Where was Mr. Buchanan all through this? Did he go off after the strange gods of the Republican party, like so many pretended Democrats of the present day? Not at all. We find him unwavering in his support of Democratic principles from the day he entered on the floor of Congress until the present, and we defy his enemies to prove differently."

The Kill-em' Doctrine.

In the Pittsburg Convention, a few months ago, after prayer by the Rev. Mr. Lovejoy—

"The Rev. Mr. Brower, of Connecticut, said he was in favor of using fire-arms, and fighting for freedom in Kansas."

"Rev. Mr. Chandler said he believed that Sharpe's riders were the best peace-makers;—there was no danger too many of them would be introduced into Kansas."

"Rev. Mr. Lovejoy was willing to go either as a captain or private. He would use Sharp's rifles, and fire with good aim!"

In the North Church, soon after, the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher said:

"I hold it to be an everlasting disgrace to shoot at a man and not to hit him!"

On the same occasion the same reverend gentleman said "he had never heard of but one compromise which he thought was a good one"—and that was contained in an answer which he alleged Robinson, the bogus Governor of Kansas, had made to Gov. Shannon's demand for a surrender of the Sharpe's riders held by the people of Lawrence, which answer he stated to be—

"Well, sir, in regard to the rifles, I propose to compromise—we will keep the weapons ourselves but give you the contents!"

"That compromise"—continued Rev. Mr. Beecher—"I THINK WORLD WORK!"

SUMMARY OF NEWS.

Mr. Hocker who murdered young Davis at Williamsburg, Blair co., has been arrested and is now in jail at Hollidaysburg.

The Bellefontaine Gazette, of Logan county, Ohio, an old Whig paper, has come out Democratic and run up the name of Buchanan and Breckinridge.

READER FOR BUCHANAN.—After all the fuss the Black Republicans have made about Reader and his right to a seat in Congress he has openly avowed himself in favor of Buchanan. The Clevelander, published in Cleveland, says he announced that as his position in that city.

How do the Republicans like that?

Hugh Corrigan was removed from the jail of Allegheny county, to Greensburg, on Wednesday evening. He was much affected on leaving the prison, and wept bitterly. Many of the prisoners, who had made his acquaintance, were also in tears.

Robert C. Walker, Secretary of the State Agricultural Society, heretofore an active Whig, and once a member of the State Legislature from Allegheny, has given in his adhesion to the Democratic platform, and will give the nominees his best efforts.

THE Wrightsville (Pa.) Star says that it is the intention of Mr. Buchanan to take up his quarters and spend the summer at Wabank, a place of some celebrity as a fashionable resort for gentlemen of leisure, on the banks of the Conestoga river, a short distance from Lancaster city.

THE day fixed for the election of electors to elect a President and Vice President of the United States, is the first Tuesday after the first Monday, in November. It will fall this year upon the fourth day of the month.

THE Illinois Central Railroad is not yet all finished, but there is a large force of laborers at work on the uncompleted portion, and the progress made is very rapid, so there is no doubt of its being completed on or before the first of October. This will be in time for the farmers along the line of the road to use it for conveying to market their growing crops.

STRANGE EVENTS.—An exchange records the marriage of John M. Strange and Elizabeth Strange as a "strange" event. The next event will probably be a "little stranger."

An old lady in Pennsylvania had a great aversion to Rye, and never could eat it in any form. "Till of late," she said, "they have got to making it into whiskey, and I find that I can now and then worry down a little."

A lady making inquiries of a boy about his father, an intemperate man, who had been sick for some time, asked whether he had regained his appetite. "No, ma'am," says the boy, "not exactly, his appetite is very poor, but his drinking is as good as ever."

Never drink any water which you have not seen."
