

A Human Life Saved.
DOW AGUE, Mich., March 11, 1856.
J. A. RHODES, Esq.: Dear Sir—As I took your medicine to seal on consumption, "I no cure to pay," I take pleasure in stating its effects as reported to me by three brothers who live in this place, and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have received:

W. S. CONKLIN told me—"I had taken nine bottles of Christ's Ague Balsam, and continually ran down while using it until my lungs and liver were congested to that degree that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels, so that all thought it impossible for me to live through another chill. The doctors to did all they could for me, but thought I must die. Nothing did me any good until I got Christ's Ague Balsam, and after taking it once relieved me of the distress which at once relieved me of the distress and nausea at my stomach and pain in my head and bowels, and produced a permanent cure in a short time."

H. M. CONKLIN says: "I had been taking medicine of a good doctor as we have in our country, and taken any quantity of quinine and opiates without any good result, from 25th of August to 17th December. But seeing how nicely it operated on my brother, I got a bottle of RHODES' FEVER AND AGUE CURE, which effected a permanent cure by using two thirds of a bottle."

S. M. CONKLIN was not here, but both the other brothers say his case was the same as H. M. and the medicine he took from the same small quantity and I might so specify. Yours with respect,
A. HUNTINGTON.
The above speaks for itself. Good proof as it is, it is no better than the vast number of other certificates I have already published, and the still greater amount that is continually pouring in to me.

One thing more. Last year I had occasion to caution the Public in these words:—"I have taken one of my general excipients, substituted the name of my excipient for my medicine, and then with brazen impudence and their pamphlet with the exclamation:—"Let the proprietor of any other medicine say as much if he dares!" etc."
Now I take pleasure in saying that the Cause referred to the same "Dr. Christ's Ague Balsam" that is mentioned in the above certificate.

There are several other industrious people who are applying to their poisonous trash all that I publish as my own, and Ague Cure, or Anti-Diarrhoeal, except the Certificates of Cures, and the Certificate of the celebrated Dr. James R. Child of N. H. Christ's Ague Balsam, which is a harmless CHARACTER, which is attached to every bottle. These will always serve to distinguish my medicine from imitations.

J. A. RHODES, Proprietor.
