Democratic County Convention.

THE delegates and officers representing the different election districts in Cambria county, in the last County Convention, are respectfully requested to re-assemble on Saturday the 23rd August inst., at the Court House in the Borough of Ebensburg, at 2 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Prothonotary's office, made vacant by the death of Milton Roberts, Esq.

M. HASSON, Chairman,
14, Aug. 1856. County Committee.

The October Election.

It is to be feared that in view of the certain election of JAMES BUCHANAN, to the Presidency, the democracy of Pennsylvania are not as deeply impressed as they should be, with the very great importance of the October election, as well as the important political influence which the result of that election will exercise on the Presidential issue, not only in this State but throughout the Union. It is a well known fact, that whilst there are three Presidential candidates, Buchanan, Fillmore and Fremont, there are but two tickets for State officers to be voted for at the October election. One of these, is the Democratic ticket, composed of JACOB FRY, JR., of Montgomery county for Auditor General, JOHN ROWE of Franklin county for Surveyor General, and GEORGE SCOTT of Columbia county, for Canal Commissioner. The other ticket, headed by Darwin Phelps of Armstrong county, for Auditor General, B. Lupton of Bradford county for Surveyor General, and Thomas E. Coe of York county for Canal Commissioner, was originally nominated by the Black Republicans and subsequently endorsed by the Know Nothings, as well as by all the other factions opposed to the democratic party. To a superficial observer of passing political movements, it would appear that the landmarks of party difference, are as broadly and distinctly drawn between the friends of Fillmore and Fremont in this State, as they are admitted to be, between the supporters of those two gentlemen and the advocates of JAMES BUCHANAN. The friends of Fillmore through all the forms of a State Convention, have presented to the people of Pennsylvania for their suffrages, a full and complete electoral ticket, composed of men, who are vouched for, as the steadfast and unyielding friends of that gentleman. If this be so, and if, as Fillmore's adherents assert, there is an impassable gulf intervening between them and Fremont, over which they cannot and dare not pass, then the mountain must come to the mole hill, or in self defence, which is something potent in political warfare, the Black Republicans must nominate and support their own exclusive electoral ticket. Whether the Fillmore and Fremont leaders in this State are sincere in their present movements on the political chess-board, remains yet to be determined—one thing is certain that while they differ as widely as the poles, as to the merit, strength and capacity of their respective candidates, they are united as one man, in support of the same State ticket, notwithstanding the admitted fact, that each candidate on that ticket, is a Black Republican, of the deepest dye and is as warm and enthusiastic in his support of Fremont as he is bitter and vindictive in his opposition to Fillmore.

We say then to our democratic friends not only here but elsewhere, that they cannot too highly estimate the vast political importance of the October election. To Pennsylvania is ascribed by the enemies of JAMES BUCHANAN, the same honorable but responsible position, heretofore occupied by her, in many a well contested conflict—the battle-field of the Union. That battle will be fought not on the fourth day of November, but on the SECOND TUESDAY OF OCTOBER. Shall it be lost or shall it be won? Democrats! you have it in your power to make it a political Austertitz to the combined cohorts of Black Republicanism and Know-Nothingism.

Will you do it? Will you falter in your duty in this hour of peril, when the very existence of the Union is shaken from its centre to its utmost circumference? Shall the news be heralded with lightning speed, over the electric wires after the smoke of the battle shall have passed away, that Pennsylvania, under the lead of her gallant and accomplished son has faltered? that the once impregnable fortress of Democracy is in possession of the enemy?

We do not thus appeal to our democratic friends through any well grounded fear of the result in October, but simply to impress upon them the conviction, that they have a high and important duty to perform. We must fight the battle in October, as though we were contending against a foe worthy of our steel; for it is true in politics as well as in war, that to achieve victory, we ought never to underrate the strength of our adversary. Let us then prepare efficiently and vigorously for the October Election—let harmony prevail in our councils—let every democrat feel the weighty responsibility that rests upon him—but above and beyond all, let there be a firm fixed determination to succeed and the victory is already won. Let us say to our sister States, your confidence has not been misplaced—your hopes have been realized—we point you to Pennsylvania, firm and immovable as her own Alleghenias, in her devotion to the constitution and the Union. We can do so, with an honest pride: for Pennsylvania, from her geographical position, seems to have been designed by the hand of nature as a political breakwater, to check the angry waves of treason at the North as well as disunion at the South.

The Know-Nothing Ticket.

The Know-Nothing and Black Republican mountain, was seized with the pains of labor at Jefferson, on last Tuesday and brought forth a political monstrosity, which is neither a mouse nor yet a long tailed rat. The progeny, as our readers will perceive, is composed of black spirits and white, blue spirits and gray.

Assembly—John Pringle; Associate Judges—Moses Canan, Stephen Lloyd; District Attorney—Charles W. Wingard; Prothonotary—Howard J. Roberts; County Commissioner—Peter McCoy; Poor House Director—Obadiah Ward; Auditors—Abraham Good, John Van Sycok; Senatorial Conferees—James D. Hamilton, Howard J. Roberts, W. W. Harris; Congressional Conferees—Henry Ely, James S. Clarke, J. W. Campbell.

JOHN PRINGLE is a farmer of adermianic propensities; as a man and a citizen we have nothing to say against him. He was suspected of being a democrat, until the advent of Know-Nothingism when he joined the order and is one of the leading spirits of that political moloch in Summerhill township. His services at Harrisburg can be dispensed with for the present.

MOSES CANAN, is a whig of ancient merit and renown, it was rumored last fall, that he joined the Know-Nothings, but we cannot vouch for its truth. If he did we regret it, on account of his age and his amiable disposition.

STEPHEN LLOYD, is a respectable citizen, well advanced in years—of him it may truly be said, that his democracy never assumed a chronic form. We predict, that Moses and Stephen are not "destin'd for till rise," judicially.

CHARLES W. WINGARD, is decidedly the fastest young man in politics, in all these parts. In boxing the political compass, Tom Marshall of Kentucky is a perfect fool to him. Although a Whig he proposed a short time since, to stump the county for Buchanan—being relieved of that task, he can now stump it for himself. We would like to hear Charley on the hustings. We can picture to ourselves the admiring crowd as they listen to his ingenious explanation of how a man, who wants office can jump Jim Crow.

And still they gazed and still the wonder grew, That one small head could carry all he knew—Charles can carry at Jericho, until his beard grows longer.

HOWARD J. ROBERTS, is personally unexceptionable, and is well qualified for the office to which he has been nominated. We regret exceedingly to see him in such bad company. But he that soweth the whirlwind must expect to reap the storm.

PETER MCCOY, was a milk and water democrat, until three or four years ago. He has always been terribly afflicted with a wild hunt after office, but as the democracy could never discover Peter's strong points, he deserted and went over to the Black Republicans. He has made his own bed and in it he must lay. If the Allegheny Township boys don't give Peter a very neat and complete skinning, on the 14th of October, we will be somewhat astonished.

OBADIAH WARD.—We know very little of the political antecedents of this gentleman, except that he is a full blooded Know-Nothing, and therefore odious to the people of this county.—The same may be said of ABRAHAM GOOD and JOHN VAN SYCOK—they are all tarred with the same stick.

The Congressional Conferees were instructed to vote for JOHN BROTHURLINE, Esq., of Blair county, and the Senatorial Conferees for A. C. Mullen, Esq., of Cambria.

The ticket is almost exclusively composed of Know-Nothings. If there is any one candidate in it, has never crossed the threshold of a lodge, his cowardly fears alone prevented him—his sympathies and his votes were always on the side of the proscriptive order. Democrats of Cambria, the enemy is now fairly in the field—watch his movements carefully and let the democratic pass word be, "the second Tuesday of October."

How Goes the Fight?

Are the friends of the Union and Constitution in "Little Cambria" performing their duty, their whole duty, in the present campaign? The time for action has arrived.—"Now's the day and now's the hour." We therefore, sincerely invoke, every true patriot within the limits of the County, to at once buckle on his armor for the contest, if he has not done so already, and battle manfully for the right, until the glorious banner, inscribed with the names of Buchanan and Breckinridge floats in triumph. Buchanan can, and will, carry this County by one thousand of a majority, if his friends in the county so will it.

After reviewing the position, principles and objects of the three different parties, that have now their candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency in the field, we think no true patriot can hesitate with regard to the course which it is his duty to pursue. Every honest impulse of his heart must tell him, that James Buchanan, is the only candidate in the field for the Presidency, that stands on a thoroughly national platform, and to whose charge the destinies of this mighty Republic, can be safely entrusted.

What are the principles of the Black Republicans? Opposition to the principle of popular sovereignty; Opposition to the right of the people of the territories to regulate their own affairs, and adopt such a constitution as they may deem best calculated to promote their happiness, when applying for admission into the Union. Officious intermeddling with the domestic institutions of the southern States. The charge of sectionalism, which if true must render them odious to every national man in the country, they do not deny. They acknowledge that their party is characterized by "geographical discriminations," and openly proclaim a crusade against the southern states of the confederacy. Slavery is the "harp of a thousand strings" on which they are constantly playing, without ever stopping, even for a moment, to calculate the blessings of that union, which they are laboring to destroy. Actuated by the spirit of false philanthropy, they are constantly endeavoring to draw on themselves and their children, the horrors of a civil war, and to put deadly enmity between the sons of sires, who fought side by side, and shoulder to shoulder, in a common cause; the holy cause of American Independence.

The "Nigger worshipping" proclivities of Black Republicanism, are well illustrated by the following extract, from an article which recently appeared in the "True American," a Fremont organ published in Erie county in this State:

"This twaddle about the Union and its 'preservation' is too silly and sickening for any good effect. We think that the liberty of a single slave is worth all the Union's God's universe can hold."

So, according to the teachings of this Apostle of Black Republicanism, the Union of the States, cemented by the blood of American freemen, which flowed at Bunkerhill, Saratoga, Brandywine, Trenton, Eutaw and Yorktown, during the struggle that "tried the souls of men," placed on a firm and equitable basis, by the labors of Washington, Madison, Franklin, and kindred spirits, and which has made us a great, free and happy people, is nothing when compared "with the liberty of a single slave." True, the dissolution of the union would ring the death knell of the last free government on earth, true, anarchy and confusion would reign triumphant over the land, but all these things are as nothing, when compared with "the liberty of a single slave;" better that the Union should be torn into a thousand fragments, than that the principles of "false philanthropy," should not be carried out.

Freemen of Cambria, are you prepared to sanction the dangerous, the treasonable, the fanatical principles of Black Republicanism? If you are not, then your course is a plain one. Give your votes and influence to James Buchanan, the statesman and pure patriot, the candidate of the "party, that carries the flag, and keeps step to the music of the Union."

Huntingdon County.

The war between the Fillmore and Fremont branches of the opposition appears to be waxing warm in this county. The following account of the Convention of the Fillmoreites we copy from the last Huntingdon Globe:

THE EXCITEMENT IN TOWN YESTERDAY.—The Know-Nothing Delegate County Convention met yesterday afternoon, and after organizing, turned out every delegate who refused to pledge himself for Fillmore and Donelson. The Fremont delegates and applicants for office were all thrown overboard, and the following ticket put in nomination:—Senator, J. Sewell Stewart; Assembly, Dr. Wintrobe; Associate Judges, Benj. F. Patton and Benedict Stevens; Sheriff, Benj. Lytle; Prosecuting Attorney, Theo. H. Cremer; Commissioner, John Flenner; Director of the Poor, Henry Hudson; Auditor, Joseph Gibboney. All good and true, died in the wool Know-Nothings.

In the evening both factions held forth—one at the Court House and the other in the Diamond.—Speakers addressed both meetings. And considerable opposition towards each other stuck out about a foot, a foot and a half, and perhaps two feet, before they adjourned. At the Fillmore meeting, the ticket was ratified. At the Fremont meeting, notice was given that a County Convention of Fremont Delegates would be held in three weeks, for the purpose of putting in nomination another county ticket.

The Globe also says that the Democracy are up and doing, ready for action, and animated with the strongest hopes of success.

A pair of military companies are about being organized in Johnstown.

"Charley Moore, the fair thing."

It is said in one of Shakespeares plays, "The Tempest," that "misery makes a man acquainted with many strange bed-fellows." Political associations, especially when controlled by a morbid appetite for office, usually produce a like result. A short time after the adjournment of the Cincinnati Convention, the democrats of this place met at the Court House for the purpose of forming a Buchanan and Breckinridge Club. The present candidate of the Know-Nothings and Black Republican parties, for District Attorney, was present at the meeting and aided in its organization. He had been a whig as long as that party had a local habitation and a name, but when Know-Nothingism rose triumphant on its ruins, he sympathized with and voted for its candidates. Since the organization of the Club, he has frequently declared that Fremont was unfit for President—that he was a Buchanan man—that he would vote for him, believing him to be the man for the crisis—nay, that he would stump the whole county for him,—and yet this pure and immaculate patriot, has sought, and received a nomination for District Attorney, at the hands of the mongrel Know-Nothing and Black Republican Convention which assembled at Jefferson on last Tuesday. We congratulate the Democracy on the result, for the accession of any considerable number of such disinterested politicians to the Democratic ranks would have proved most disastrous, we venture to say, that with him the second Tuesday of October, will be a day, long but not pleasantly to be remembered.

A Fillmore Movement.

On Tuesday last, fourteen knights of the dark lantern, from the southern and western townships of the county, met in council at the Court House. In what capacity they assembled, whether as regular delegates for a definite object, or as outside barbarians acting on their own hook, we are not informed. We understand that an oath to support Fillmore, was the test of orthodoxy—that nine of the aforesaid fourteen swore themselves through, and that the remaining five refused to do so and retired in disgust. The whole affair appeared to be under the special care and supervision of Abraham Kopelin, Esq., of Johnstown.—Abraham is a very clever young man, and is a perfect trump in the Know-Nothing lodges—he entered the Know-Nothing cavern at a very late day, and now that his party is broken up and destroyed, he seems determined to make up for lost time. He is the head and front of the Fillmore party in this county and for this he deserves credit. It is an evidence that he prefers a candidate, who to say the least, is national in his views, to Fremont, who, besides his total incapacity, is exclusively the candidate of the northern abolitionists and fanatics.

From the statements of one of the seceders, a great deal of "noise and confusion," prevailed in the meeting. After a protracted session, the convocation adjourned. The only result of their labors was the appointment of Congressional and Senatorial conferees, with instructions to the former to support Kopelin. This is the beginning of a very interesting political fight.

Congress.

In pursuance of the joint resolution previously adopted, Congress adjourned at twelve o'clock on Monday last.

The session will be a memorable one, not only on account of the sectional feelings exhibited in the election of a Speaker at its organization, but for the fanatical and revolutionary course pursued by the Black Republican and Know-Nothing majority, in refusing to pass necessary appropriation bills for the defence of the country, unless capital could be made for "bleeding Kansas," for the little legislation they accomplished for the country, and for their swindling operations by which they voted thousands of dollars into their own pockets. To form geographical parties, array one section of the union against the other so as to bring about a dissolution of the confederacy, and civil war—to refuse to feed and clothe the army so as to compel its disbandment, are evils of no small magnitude to be inflicted upon the country, in order to enable the factionists to make the experiment of how "Americans should rule America." The termination of the session was in character with its commencement, and the members who were hastening from Washington rejoicing in their success to embarrass the government, we are glad to see have been recalled to their duty, and we hope they may have sense enough left to perform it. By the proclamation of the President it will be seen that an extra session of Congress will convene at Washington to-morrow the 21st inst., and it is to be desired that the public business yet to be transacted, may be speedily finished, so that the members may go home, and that we may see an end to the first session of a Know-Nothing Congress.

CAMBRIA TRIBUNE.—This little Know-Nothing sheet published at Johnstown in this county, which has had the flag of Fillmore and Donelson floating at its mast head for some months past, appears much dissatisfied that the Fillmore State Convention would not openly unite with the Fremont men in forming an electoral ticket, and it has accordingly pulled down its flag, which it is supposed will soon be followed by substituting the "Black Republican" flag of Fremont and disunion. Verily "Sam" has surrendered to "Sambo."

L. M. STURIFF, well and favorably known to our citizens, will visit this place during court with a large and handsome assortment of books, and among them will be found the biography of James Buchanan, Millard Fillmore and Col. J. C. Fremont.

S. S. BERNER has arrived with his large assortment of ready made clothing at the "Colonade Row." Persons in want of winter clothing by calling at the new store can be easily accommodated, either in the price or quality of Goods. Mr. B. says he is not to be undersold by any similar establishment. Call in.

Mass Meeting.

By an advertisement in our columns it will be seen that a Mass Meeting of the Democracy of Cambria county will be held in this place on Tuesday the 2nd day of September next. Whilst the masses are everywhere arousing themselves and preparing for the contest before them, we are glad to see that the Democracy of Cambria are determined not to be outdone by their brethren elsewhere, but to open the campaign with a demonstration that will be only an evidence of what they intend to do in November next. We hope therefore that the Democrats in every quarter of the county will endeavor to attend, so as to aid in stemming the torrent of fanaticism now rolling over the country, and which threatens the destruction of the constitution, and to involve us in the evils of a civil war. Let every democrat therefore buckle on his armor and prepare for the contest to be decided in November next. The issue is, shall the constitution and the Union stand or fall? Will you support Fremont the sectional candidate of the advocates of dissolution? Or will you rally in support of Buchanan the candidate of those who advocate One Country! One Union! One Constitution! And One Destiny!

Freemen of Cambria to your posts, remember that Democracy expects every man to do his duty,—resolve in the words of Jackson that "the union must and shall be preserved," and all will be well. Recollect the time of the meeting, and as it has been fixed upon court week a number of distinguished gentlemen from abroad may be expected to address the meeting.

JOSEPH CLARK, Esq.—This gentleman has been nominated by the Democrats of Armstrong, Indiana and Clarion for the State Senate. His nomination appears to be well received, as he is not only well known but highly popular throughout his district, and his election is regarded as certain.

ARKANSAS.—The late election in this State has resulted in the glorious triumph of the Democracy. Gov. Conway has been re-elected, and his majority it is said will reach ten thousand, which is a great democratic gain. Returns are complete from 24 counties and thus far 65 Democrats and 10 Know-Nothings are elected to the House, and 20 Democrats and 5 Know-Nothings to the Senate.—The legislature will thus be largely democratic, and the state certain for Buchanan and Breckinridge in November next by an overwhelming majority.

New York.

The Whigs of this State held a State Convention at Albany on the 14th inst., which was well attended. Hon. Francis Granger presided, and also addressed the Convention. He spoke in the warmest manner of Mr. Fillmore and a series of resolutions were adopted, in favor of Mr. Fillmore, but not endorsing the Know-Nothing platform. The expression of the Convention was decidedly opposed to FREMONT, as the following resolutions will show, and indicates the course to be pursued by the Whigs in that state.

Resolved, That we will oppose to the utmost extent of our ability the election of Mr. Fremont, believing that he is not qualified for the Presidency of this Union. We firmly believe his election would increase the internal strife, the party he represents being in spirit sectional, and inevitably tending to disunion.

Resolved, That in the election of Millard Fillmore, we find a sure guarantee that domestic agitation will be quelled, harmony between the States restored, peace with foreign nations secured, and the interests of agriculture, commerce and manufactures promoted, and therefore we will labor unitedly and earnestly for his election.

Resolved, That while thus lending our aid to promote the election of the American candidate, under the conviction that such is our solemn duty, we nevertheless retain inviolate the cherished Whig principles and organization, and as soon after the present contest as may be convenient, we will resume separate party action.

John C. Breckinridge.

The Hon. Colin M. Ingersoll of Conn., lately attended an immense Democratic meeting at Prattville, N. Y., and delivered a very strong and eloquent speech. After describing the rare statesmanlike accomplishments of Mr. Buchanan—his manly and patriotic characteristics, and his pre-eminent qualifications for the office of President, the speaker referred in the following beautiful and glowing terms:

"To the young and gifted Kentuckian, who is our nominee for the Vice Presidency. I may speak from a personal acquaintance of years, during which time circumstances brought us together upon terms of friendship, approaching at least, to familiarity. We entered Congress together in 1851, and served together, a part of the time upon the same committee four years. It was here I saw him daily, in his seat, quietly watching the ordinary course of legislation, his noble countenance beaming with intelligence, or else, with every face turned towards him, addressing the house; now, with features collected, in language terse with a meaning in each word he uttered, and now with the fire in the eye, dealing out his blows in sentences, bold, powerful and eloquent, taking his audience captive no less with the music of his voice, than the strength of his mind. It was there, I say, that I learnt to admire John C. Breckinridge,—the rose of American chivalry—the youthful statesman and Democrat of Kentucky—him whom the illustrious Clay called the young man of promise in the West—Breckinridge, whose character has no blot and whose patriotism has no selfishness—who sought not the honor of the nomination, but rose in the convention to decline it, when a sight of him was sufficient to bring out by acclamation his unanimous nomination with applause."

Representative Conference.

The Conferees representing the District composed of Cambria, Bedford and Fulton counties; met at the Bedford Hotel, in Bedford, on Monday the 18th inst., the following delegates composing the conference.
