

BUCHANAN and BRACKINRIDGE. A MASS MEETING OF THE FRIENDS OF JAS. BUCHANAN & JNO. C. BRACKINRIDGE.

WILL BE HELD AT EBENSBURG, ON TUESDAY THE SECOND DAY OF SEPTEMBER NEXT, TO COMMENCE AT TWO O'CLOCK P. M.

Let the unfettered Democracy of Cambria come forth in their majesty and strength—let the OLD LINE WHICS meet around a common council fire with their Democratic brethren, and strike a united blow for the CONSTITUTION AND THE UNION.

Let sectional and fanatical Abolitionism be sternly rebuked and the principles of our forefathers be firmly maintained.

Freemen of Cambria!! RALLY WITH ONE HEART AND ONE MIND around your gallant standard bearers and the great national and conservative principles which they represent.

A number of distinguished gentlemen from other portions of the State will be present and address the meeting.

By order of the Committee of Arrangement. Ebensburg, August 20, 1856.

"The Red, White and Blue."

For Buchanan—pride of the nation, The choice of the fearless and free— We join in a heartfelt ovation, And he shall our President be!

Our bosoms in throbbing commotion, Remember the statesman so true, Who sheltered our glorious Union, And stands by the red, white and blue!

From lands where the millions are yearning For freedom from tyranny's chain, Buchanan, in gladness returning, Beholds dear Columbia again.

His heart beats with freedom's devotion— His soul is yet steadfast and true; "He swears to the Union devotion," And stands by the red, white and blue!

No factions dissensions shall ever The hands that our Washington wrought; "The Union," unchanging forever, Is shrined in each patriot's thought.

Our love and our faith are not hollow; In strength they were nourished and grew, The chief we have chosen we'll follow, And stand by the red, white and blue.

Our voices are joined in communion— The stars of our flag are above; Huzza for Buchanan and Union! Huzza for the man that we love!

The old Union ship which he rides in, Is staunch in her timbers and true, And now through the States she is gliding, Her flag is the red, white and blue!

[From the Pittsburg Union.] Huzza for Buck and Breck. BY R. M. M'LUKE. AIR—"Carry Me Back to Old Virginia."

Fling out, fling out with song and shout, Our banner to the breeze; The same old flag—the stars and stripes— That floats o'er land and seas.

And write our standard bearers' names, Upon each fleecy fold; The brave, the just, the good and true, Who ne'er were bought or sold.

Chorus—Hurrah! hurrah for Buck and Breck, We'll give them three cheers more; And carry them up to the old White By fair Potomac's shore, [House,

We know no North, we know no South, We know no East or West, But for the whole United States— The land we love the best.

Then down with the Abolition crew, Who'd let the "Union slide"; And rally around old Buck and Breck, The noble, true, and tried!

A Manly Letter from Col. Benton. The following letter from Col. Benton, avows his determination to support Buchanan against Fremont:

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 10, 1856. To THOMAS L. PRICE, Esq.:

Dear Sir—I was disappointed in the result of your election, as the signs in the district as I went through it encouraged me in the belief that you would succeed. I was also disappointed in my own, but do not regret having made the canvass; nor do I consider as lost the labor in traveling and speaking which it cost me.

There is a design here, on the part of some, to put up an electoral ticket for Fremont, about which no one speaks to me, as I have character enough to keep at a distance all that class of persons, who, dishonorable themselves, could approach a man with a dishonorable proposition.

I was opposing the bringing out of Fremont for half a year before those who charge me with promoting it knew of any such design. There are cases in which public duty rises above personal consideration, though there are a great many people who cannot conceive it possible.

The full result of the Governor's election is not yet known here, but enough is known to determine the condition on which our electoral ticket is to be withdrawn.

I proceed to Washington immediately to gather up material for my "Abridgement of the Debates of Congress," and return in October, that being a work which I can carry on here.

THOMAS H. BENTON. The following article which we copy from the Martinsburg (Va.) Republican, contains about as much truth, as can be compressed in the same space.

Parties to the Contest. He mist indeed be wilfully blind who cannot see that the Democratic party is the only national party in the country.

The Black Republican party, which by the way is the only party with which the Democracy will have to contend in the coming battle, is of course a sectional party.

It repudiates the Constitution and would let the Union slide rather than to allow any opportunity to pass unimproved of trampling on our rights.

If it is defeated in the coming contest, it must be defeated by the great national Democratic party.

There are ten counties yet to hear from, which it is supposed will give Bragg about one thousand majority—thus swelling up his aggregate majority in the entire State to nearly 13,000.

JOSEPH HISS GOES FOR FREMONT.—The celebrated Jos. His, of nunnery investigation notoriety—and who raised such a dust in the Massachusetts Legislature a year ago, by taking a woman of doubtful reputation with him, on one of the excursions of a Legislative Investigating Committee to which he belonged, and charging her expenses to the State—goes for Fremont as the "best representative of the principles of the American party of which he, the said Joseph His is such a worthy and illustrious member.

Proclamation of the President. WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—The Cabinet held a meeting this afternoon, when it was decided to issue the following proclamation re-assembling Congress.

By the President of the United States of America: A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, While hostilities exist with various Indian tribes on the remote frontiers of the United States, and whilst in other respects the public peace is seriously threatened, Congress has adjourned without granting the necessary supplies for the army, depriving the Executive of the power to perform his duty in relation to the common defence and security, and an extraordinary occasion has thus arisen for assembling the two Houses of Congress.

In testimony whereof I have caused the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed, and signed the same with my hand. Done at the city of Washington, the eighteenth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty six, and of the Independence of the United States the thirty-first.

FRANKLIN PIERCE. By order. Wm. L. MARCY, Secretary of State.

Matters at Washington. The Cleveland Plaindealer administers some plain truths to the unprincipled factions which now bear rule in the lower House of Congress.

The 18th of August has been fixed upon by both Houses; as the day for adjournment. Good. This Fusion Congress has now been in session two hundred & thirty five days, and what has it done? Nothing but wrangle about dog fights and personal brawls' matters with which the American congress has nothing to do.

Slavery has not been abolished in the District of Columbia act is still in being! No proposition has been brought forward by the Black Republicans to do any of these things promised before the election.

They have voted away the public lands to Railroad corporations and other speculators, to the almost total exclusion of actual settlers. The result will show a session of little else than useless turmoil and endless extravagance. Its like we hope never to see again.

The Footsteps of Disunion. Disunion has begun its fearful march under the most appalling circumstances. The worst apprehensions of the Father of his Country seem to be on the eve of realization.

The work of the foreign enemies of our Republic has been taken out of their hands by men who declare themselves native-born, and falsehoods which no British writer has ever dared to urge and fabricate are hurled against our country.

THE SUMMER HARVEST OF THE DEMOCRACY.—Never before did a party reap such a crop of Victories, as the Democratic hosts have garnered in, within the last week.

ARKANSAS. MISSOURI. NORTH CAROLINA. are all safely gathered in by the Democracy, beyond danger of drought or wet, rot or worm.

Pennsylvania, too, is safe beyond a contingency; and she will prove it, by her State election, before the November contest comes on. Tennessee, too, is about to speak; and will be heard on the side of the Democracy.

From this time forward the Democracy will date a series of victories in the several States, which culminating in the election of Buchanan and Breckinridge, will terminate the existence of the Black Republican and Know-Nothing parties.—Allan Atlas and Argus.

NORTH CAROLINA. LECTURE.—A letter received in Petersburg from Raleigh, states that 72 counties have been heard from, which foot up as follows:

Bragg, 49,213. Gilmer, 38,463. Bragg's majority, 11,750. There are ten counties yet to hear from, which it is supposed will give Bragg about one thousand majority—thus swelling up his aggregate majority in the entire State to nearly 13,000.

So Did Judas. The notorious Rifeeman, Beecher, has changed his paper from a religious to a political journal, and says he "counted the cost before he came out for Fremont."

THE WHEELBARROW MAN.—Col. Fremont is commended to the Northern Republicans as a marvelous proper man for President, chiefly because he had explored and napped the Rocky Mountains.

Some years ago a man started from the Atlantic States with a wheelbarrow, and trudged all the way to California over those same Rocky Mountains.

A FREMONT KNOW-NOTHING.—At the State Convention of Republicans, held in Bloomington, Ill., some time since, the President of that body, John W. Palmer, made a speech, in which he said:

"I think that the privilege of living under the government of the United States, and enjoying the rights and privileges of a citizen of a free Republic should be sufficient for any foreigner, without the right to hold office."

APPLYING THE RULE.—A few days ago an Irishman was asked by a Beecher-revolving-bible disciple, if he was going to vote for Fremont, when honest Pat made the following reply:

"I am not in the country long enough to vote for Fremont. Why not, how long are you in the country?" inquired our friend of the black mixed political creed.

"Five years," replied Pat. "Well, that is long enough, if you have your papers," said Sam. "I know," said Pat, "that is long enough for a Buchanan voter, but you know it takes twenty-one years to make a Fremont voter, and he'll stay the time out before I vote for him."

"I have always been a Whig, but if the Whig party degenerates into a contemptible Abolition party, I will no longer be a Whig." —HENRY CLAY. "I will join myself to no party that does not carry the flag, and keep step to the music of the Union." —RUFUS CHAMPE.
