FOR PRESIDENT, JAMES BUCHANAN, OF PENNSYLVANIA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE, OF KENTUCKY.

OFFERS his professional services as a Surgeon of the Army and Navy. Office next door to Mr. Lytle's.

WANTED—Beef, pork, corn, buckwheat, wheat, etc., for subscription and advertising to the "Democrat and Sentinel."

Be Assessed. Democrats, be assessed this week, if you wish to vote at the Presidential election.

Error.—In the hurry of getting out our paper last week, an error in the Congressional vote of Blacklick township escaped our notice.

The Duty of Democrats. Our democratic friends throughout the country, must not suppose, that because they were victorious, on the second Tuesday, of October, their duties have therefore ceased.

John Fenlon, Esq., of Ebensburg next took the stand and made one of the most impressive, argumentative and patriotic speeches of the day.

S. B. McCormick, Esq., was next called upon and addressed the meeting in a very neat and powerful manner calling upon the lovers of our glorious Union, the Constitution of the States, the Star Spangled Banner, and the land that gave birth to Washington, Jefferson, Clay, and Webster.

The day for holding meetings has passed away: they were necessary in the late canvass in order to fight the enemy with their own weapons.

The Result. In another column will be found the vote for Canal Commissioner in the several counties of the State. The vote is official, with the exception of nine counties, which will not materially change the result.

State Legislature. Th: Democrats have carried the State Legislature by a considerable majority, and we will have a Democratic majority on joint ballot, thus securing the election of a Democratic United States Senator.

Indiana for Buchanan. WILLARD, dem., is elected Governor of Indiana by about 6000 maj; the democrats have also elected 7 out of the 11 Congressmen, and a majority of the Legislature.

Washington Township. It is not our intention at this time, to enter into a detailed notice of the merits of the various townships of the county, as exhibited by their vote at the recent election.

Democratic Pole Raising at No. 2 A. P. R. R. The Democrats of Washington township, assembled on Monday evening the 13th inst., and after raising a beautiful Hickory Pole which bears aloft (150 ft., above old mother earth) the proud symbol of the union of the States.

John F. Barnes, Esq., of Johnstown was then called upon and responded in a very happy style, giving his reasons for supporting the democracy in this contest with fanaticism bigotry and intolerance.

M. D. Magellan, Esq., of Ebensburg being loudly called for responded in his own inimitable style dealing his blows thick and fast on the heads of the Beef and Maraposa party.

John Fenlon, Esq., of Ebensburg next took the stand and made one of the most impressive, argumentative and patriotic speeches of the day. It was replete with common sense and patriotism, he called upon every lover of his country, every lover of civil and religious liberty, to be up and doing, vote the democratic ticket and nothing but the ticket.

S. B. McCormick, Esq., was next called upon and addressed the meeting in a very neat and powerful manner calling upon the lovers of our glorious Union, the Constitution of the States, the Star Spangled Banner, and the land that gave birth to Washington, Jefferson, Clay, and Webster.

DEATH OF JUDGE BURRELL. It is with feelings of profound regret that we announce the death of the Hon. J. M. Burrell, which occurred at his residence in Greensburg, on yesterday morning.

NEGRO COMPETITION WITH WHITE LABOR. We ask our mechanics, workmen, laborers, if they are prepared for an inroad of three millions of negroes from the South to compete with them in every department of industry?

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS.—MR. CHAIRMAN: I cannot, consistently with my sense of my obligations as a citizen of the United States, and bound by my oath to support the Constitution.

THE FUSION TICKET. The Executive Committees representing the Fillmore men, Black Republicans and North Americans, met at Philadelphia on Friday last and made sundry propositions to each other to combine the whole vote of the opposition upon one electoral ticket to defeat Mr. Buchanan if possible, in Pennsylvania.

THE GROANS OF THE BRITONS. We have been not a little amused to hear the lamentations of the Know Nothings and Republicans since the election at their overwhelming defeat in this country.

OHIO ELECTION. The Black Republicans have carried Ohio, as was anticipated. In the present Congressional delegation from that State the democrats had not a single member.

THE TRIUMPH COMPLETE. We have elected our State Ticket by SIX THOUSAND MAJORITY! We have elected FIFTEEN of the twenty five members of Congress!
