A Human Life Saved.
DOW AGUE, MICHIGAN, Dec. 11, 1850.
J. A. RHODES, Esq., Dear Sir—As I took your medicine to cure my ague, "no cure no pay," I take pleasure in stating its effects as reported to me by three brothers who live in this place, and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have received: W. S. CONKLIN told me—"I had taken nine bottles of Rhodes' Ague Balsam, and continually run down until my lungs and liver were congested to that degree that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels, so that although it impossible for me to live through another chill. The doctors to did all they could for me, but thought I must die. Nothing did me any good until I got Rhodes' Fever and Ague Cure which at once relieved me of the distress and nausea at my stomach and pain in my head and bowels, and produced a permanent cure in a short time."
H. M. CONKLIN says: "I had been long taking medicine as good a doctor as we have in our county, and taken any quantity of quinine and specifics without any good result, from 25th August to 15th December. But seeing how effectively it operated on my brother, I got a bottle of RHODES' FEVER AND AGUE CURE, which effected a permanent cure by using two thirds of a bottle."
S. M. CONKLIN was not here, but both the other brothers say his case was the same as H. M.'s. I sold the medicine to both the same day, and the cure was as speedy from the same small quantity, and I might as specify, Yours with respect, A. HUNTINGTON.

The above speaks for itself. Good proof as it is, it is of no better tenor than the vast number of like certificates I have already published, and the still greater amount that is continually pouring in to me.
One thing more. Last year I had occasion to Caution the Public in these words:— "Judge one firm who have taken one of my brothers, substituted the name of their own medicine, and, without the consent of the proprietor, and their patent with the exclamation, "Let the proprietor of any other medicine say as much if he dares." &c.
Now I take pleasure in saying that the Caution referring to the same "Dr. Rhodes' Ague Balsam" that is mentioned in the above certificates.
There are several other enterprising parties who are applying to their poisonous trash, all that I publish about my fever and Ague Cure, or Antidote to Malaria, except the Certificates of Cures, and the Certificate of the celebrated Chemist Dr.
James R. Chilton of N. Y., in favor of its perfectly HARMLESS CHARACTER, which is attached to every bottle. These will always serve to distinguish my medicine from imitations.
J. A. RHODES, Proprietor,
