WHITE & DEVINE, Editors and Proprietors.
EBENSBURG.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 10.
WANTED: Beef, pork, corn, buckwheat, wheat, etc., for subscription and advertising to the Democrat and Sentinel.

President's Message.

To the exclusion of much other matter, we this week publish the message of President Pierce. It is an able and Statesmanlike document, and will well repay a perusal. The condition of our domestic and foreign affairs are clearly set forth, and the condition of the government shown to be highly prosperous. The acts of the Black Republicans upon the slavery question, and their factious and treasonable course is well shown up as utterly destructive to the rights of the States, and to the equality of the States, and to the Union. We commend it to our readers, who will be able to judge of it for themselves; but we do not hesitate to say that it is one of the most able papers that has emanated from President Pierce during his administration.

Electoral College.

The Electoral College of this State, met in the Senate Chamber, at Harrisburg, on Wednesday last, and organized by choosing Hon. WILLIAM WILKINS, President, and WM. V. M'KEAN, Esq., of Philadelphia, and Gen. WM. H. MILLER, of Harrisburg, Secretaries. The College then cast the twenty-seven votes of Pennsylvania for JAMES BUCHANAN, and JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE. Mr. CANBY, of Butler, was chosen bearer of returns to Washington City.—Mr. OSTERHOOT to Judge KANE of the U. S. Court, Philadelphia—and Mr. M'NAIR to the Harrisburg Post Office. The Electors visited Wheatland on Thursday by invitation of Mr. Buchanan, and dined with him. The Lancaster Intelligencer says that upon their return to that City they all expressed themselves much gratified with their visit to Mr. Buchanan, and the courtesy and kindness with which they were welcomed to his hospitality.

SEVERAL CONVENTIONS.—The proceedings of the Convention of a large number of Surveyors who have been drawn to our town, and are now attending our court as witnesses in an important land case now being tried, will be found in our paper this week, to which we direct attention.

GEN. WHITEFIELD.—This gentleman who has again been returned as delegate to Congress from Kansas, was admitted to his seat on Tuesday last by a vote of 112 to 108, notwithstanding the factious efforts of the Black Republicans to prevent it. So ends the fight of Reeder and Whitefield, which may be considered as the last kick of Black Republicanism.

JOHNSTOWN.—This old borough is still improving—the Gas Works have been completed, and a new light introduced into the town. We copy the following notice from the Echo of the great event which occurred on Tuesday last, and which is worthy of record. We are glad to hear of the prosperity of our neighbors, and hope that the reign of "dark lanterns" in that region has come to an end at last.

THE LIGHTING UP.—Long before dark last evening our citizens were busily engaged in discarding candle sticks, lamps, &c., and making arrangements for the first appearance of gas in their respective establishments.—The anxiously wished for time for the "touching off" operation at length arrived, and the brilliant light of gas illuminated the business portions of Johnstown. Considering it was the first night of its introduction, the light afforded was clear and beautiful, and the expectations of the community fully realized. We understand it is the intention of the authorities to light the town with gas as soon as the necessary fixtures can be completed.

The New York Ledger, the great family weekly paper, for which the most popular writers in the country contribute, has now attained the extraordinary circulation of One Hundred and Ninety Thousand copies, and subscriptions are continually pouring in. See LEGER'S advertisement in another column.

The Home Journal.

The Home Journal always has been, and no doubt always will be, while under the editorial care of Morris and Willis, the most refined and elegant family newspaper extant. The series for 1857 will contain new attractions, new features, and new type. The editors will continue to devote their time and abilities to the work. N. P. Willis proposes, in addition to his usual picturing of home-life, and rural family sympathies and interests, out-does-and-in, to give more of his valuable "Letters on Health," which his experience enables him to write, and which have been so widely quoted, both at home and abroad, and also "a series of Portraits of Living Characters." General Morris, besides his usual constant labors upon the several departments of the paper will make it the work on which to brooder first the new sketches, songs, ballads, etc., suggested by the history and events of the passing time. T. B. Aldrich, the gifted young poet, whose productions have recently created such a sensation in literary circles, has prepared an original prose poem, entitled the "Rose of Glen Lodge," which will be published in numbers, from week to week. Genio C. Scott will continue his pleasant and popular papers on fashion, gossip, romance, etc., which have proved so "interesting to ladies." Besides these constant writers, the Home Journal has a corps of correspondents, wholly unsurpassed, in the society of New York, and through these gifted and refined "mediums," its readers are kept apprised of all that occurs new, charming and instructive, in the brilliant circles of city life. For the health, the moral improvement, and the religious culture of families, the editors watchfully gather every new suggestion, and carefully chronicle all signs of progress and utility. By increasing vigilance and industry, and by skill, acquired by long and successful practice, they will, undoubtedly, still keep the Home Journal undisputed as the best family newspaper in existence. The terms are two dollars a year, in advance. Address Morris & Willis, New York.

GODY'S LADY'S BOOK.—The January number of this Magazine is on our table—it abounds with the choicest reading matter from the pens of our first American Literary writers. The engravings are superb. The fashion plates and embroidery, are of the latest fashions. With the present number, in point of literary merit, no Magazine compares.

PROFESSOR ARNES' LECTURE.—The lecture of Professor Arnes, on the subject of Memory, was delivered before an intelligent and attentive assembly at the Presbyterian Church on Monday evening last. The lecture was highly instructive, and we are pleased to learn that quite a number of our citizens have joined his class.

Mr. P. Cook arrived at Washington on Sunday, from Arizona, the new Territory formed out of the Gadsden purchase from Mexico. He brings with him his credentials, and will claim a seat in the House as delegate from that Territory. He reports the population of Arizona at from ten to fifteen thousand persons, and that the Territory will make a State about as large as Pennsylvania.

MINNESOTA.—Gov. Gorham, in his message to the Minnesota Legislature last winter, stated the population of the Territory at 70,000, as shown by the census taken in the summer previous. At the opening of navigation in the spring it was estimated at 120,000, and now, near the close of navigation, it is set down by St. Paul papers at 200,000. At its present rate of increase Minnesota will have a population of at least half a million in 1860.
