[Cambria's First Choice For Governor.] HON, HENRY D. FOSTER

The Bedford County Meeting.

We have read the proceedings of a Democratic County Meeting, which was held at Bedford, on Monday, the 9th inst. The resolutions adopted at the meeting, are prefaced with an address as long as the moral law .--The first part of the address, is a mere recapitulation of the questions which were decided in the late Presidential campaign, and to all of which we heartily subscribe The author of the address, next proceeds to speak of the recent U. S. Senatorial election, and denouncos in unmeasured but richly merited terms, the three traitors, Lebo, Wagonseller and Manear. Referring to the course pursued by Henry D. Foster and his friends, in connection with the election of Senator, the following paragraph occurs :

"The conduct of these meu is in no way palliated by the fact that their candidate was a man of talent or one qualified to fill the place-nor by the fact that he had twice received our votes for a seat in Congress-nor by the fact that only last year both our members supported him in caucus for the same position-nor by the fact that he and his friends entertained the vain hope that their adversaries would eventually unite upon him to defeat the Democratic nominee."

The last sentence of the foregoing paragraph, contains a false and malicious imputation against Henry D. Foster. Every one who knows Gen. Foster, will acquit him of so grave and serious a charge, no matter by blow for blow. They know their rights, and still contend, that the engravings, de., are whom it may be preferred Such is not his character, nor is such the stuff of which he is made. High minded and honorable as he is universally known to be, he scorns anything like deception or trickery, and would be the very last man in Pennsylvania, to lend himself to such a base and disreputable purpose. as is attributed to him in the foregoing extract. The very reverse of the unfounded accusation is the truth. The idea was suggested by certain members of the opposition, that they might eventually cast their votes for Gen. Foster and that they, together with Gen. Foster's friends, would elect him. The very moment that such a contingency came to Gen. Foster's ears, true to the noble instincts of his nature, and ever mindful of his devotion to his glorious constituency, as well as to his party, he emphatically and openly declared, that neither he nor his friends, would ever cast their votes for an Anti-Buchanan candidate, and that if he were elected by a union of the Republicans and the Western Democratio members, who had stood by him. he would resign the office the very moment the Speaker of the Convention announced the result. This is what Henry D. Foster did say; it is just what he would be expected to say, by those who know the man. To impute to him, therefore, the base and unmanly motive of attempting to form, or even permitting to be formed with his knowledge and consent. a coalition with the Republican party, for the purpose of securing his own election, and thus defeating the democratic nominee, is a foul slander upon his fair reputation, both as a man and a politician. If the author of the address, who was in Harrisburg at the time, can sustain the charge, which he has seen proper to prefer against Gen Foster, we call upon him to do so-if he cannot, let him like a gentleman retract it, so that the bane and the antidote, may go before the people together.

solution, that the meeting held in Ebensburg, on the 31st January, was composed of "Know Nothings, Black Republicans and disappointed and reckless democrats," is simply ridiculous. We say to the author of the address and resolutions, that the meeting held in this place, was the most harmonious assemblage of the democracy, that has ever taken place in Cambria county. Although a severe snow storm occurred on the night previous to the day of meeting, which rendered the roads almost impassable, it did not prevent the unterrified democrats of the mountain, from fearlessiy coming up to the work. Many of the most active and efficient members of the party were present at the meeting, and took an active part in its proceedings We need not refer to them by name. We also know of more than a score of the very best democrats in the county, who were in town during the week, who called upon us and stated, that inasmuch as they could not possibly be present at the meeting, authorized the full use of their names, for the purpose of promoting the Li-to for which is was called. In a word it was composed of leading democrats and old line whigs, who by their untiring efforts during the Presidential campaign, gave Cambria county, " a local habitation and a name;" men, who aided and assisted in giving Buch anan and Breckinridge, the unprecedented majority of 1215 ! ! over the combined vote of the opposition, and by unanimous consent, gained for our small but glorious county, the proud appellation of " The Star of the West " The meeting was neither controlled by "Know Nothings," nor by "Black Republicans."-The democracy of Cambria have buried both these factions in the same political grave. Nor were there any "disappointed democrats" present. The democracy of Cambria, are not now and never were, remarkable for "a wild hunt after office." Whether there were any " reckless" democrats present at the meeting, we will leave their acts to decide. They are perfectly willing to assume the responsibility; they have heretofore known what was their duty, and have generally performed it, to the entire satisfaction both of themselves and the democracy of the State. Whenever they are assaulted, through their Representative, whose course they endorse,

THE USUBY LAWS -We are glad to see that in several of the States strong efforts are made. and with some prospect of success, to repeal the usury laws. New York, Rhode Island, Iowa and Wisconsin, will probably soon be rid of the old time absurdity, and leave the price of money like other commodity to be regulated by the relations of demand and supply. If there were no other reasons in favor of a repeal, the fact that such laws are never enforced, and never can be, is reason enough why they should be swept from the statute books. Laws that cannot be enforced, and are constantly violated are an injury.

Rev. W. S. H. Keys, late editor of the Tyrone Era, has been tried and convieted by the Blair County Court of assault and battery upon a young girl at Tyrone, and sentenced to three months confinement in the county prison. He was also indicted for an slanderous charges against clergymen not only of his own but of other denominations, but, we presume, he can now indulge in a little sympathy for the frailties of poor human na-ture. He is an object of pity.

By the way, is it not a remarkable fact that all these "Angel Gabriel's" turn out to be the worst characters. The Monk Leaby is now explating the crime of murder in a western penitentiary-the "Angel Gabriel," Sr., died in prison while atoning for his crimes -the imprisonments of Barker & Co., and the universal reprobation in which they are held, all denote something. The "Juniors' 5 have "illustrious predecessors" in whose footsteps to follow. Let them take warning -Huntingdon Globe.

Gov. JOHN BIGLER .- The Harrisburg Keystone of the 4th inst. says :- " After doing yeoman's service in his native State, where he happened to be on a visit, during the last Presidential campaign, this distinguished Demoorat returned to the State of his adoption. where he was received with such evidence of earnest attachment and high personal regard as show the utter groundlessness of the rumors that were circulated here, prejudicial to his standing in California. By the papers from that State, we are gratified to observe, 14 that his reception was most cordial and enthusiastic. A steamer was especially dispatched from Sacramento, the place of his residence. to San Francisco, crowded with personal friends to conduct him to his home Multitudes assembled at the wharf to greet him, headed by the Mayor of the city. Addresses were delivered, a public entertainment given, and every demonstration made, showing him to be a popular favorite whose return occasioned general gladness."

A TOAST .- At a Democratic celebration at Fitchburg, Massachusetts, the following toast was read :

Amongst the resolutions adopted by the meeting, were the two following :

Resolved. That we feel particularly constrained to condemn the course of G NEL-SON SMITH His conduct in regard to the election was sufficiently offensive to his constituents-his Protest was more so, and his letters and editorials villifying Gen. Bowman and other good Democrats are adding insult to injury, and proves that he feels the necessity of avoiding the true question and withdrawing the attention of the people from the true issue by a vain effort to raise false ones.

Resolved. That we will not hold the Democracy of Cambria county responsible for the insane resolutions adopted by Know Nothings, Black Republicans, and a few disappointed and reckless Democrats at Johnstown and Ebensburg.

The Standard.

It seems the Democrats of Cambria county have given umbrage to the Hollidaysburg Standard, in permitting those who have only been democrats two or three years to attend their meetings, and take part in their procedings. He does not understand our position up here in Cambria. For the last two years we have been inviting " Old Line Whigs" to come over to us, and they have come by scores, and by hundreds. Yet notwithstanding these accessions, since we have only increased our majority to some 1400 votes, we do not feel the least crowded, and are willing that the old whigs who have seen the error of their

Now, in Blair county the case is quite different The liberality of the Standard, and the Swiss Guard who surround it, has been such, that the ranks of the democracy in that county have become so crowded, that it is really inconvenient to have any fresh converts. And this overgrown strength of the party in Blair county, has no doubt suggested the idea of a 21 year law in politics; that no man who emigrates into the democratic ranks, shall attend a meeting of the party, until he has been 21 years a member. This, we doubt not, would be a good idea in Blair county ; and whenever the democratic vote in Cambria is as large as we want it, we shall adopt the same course.

But Fenlon, Magchan and Johnston did democrats of the county were there. The M'Donalds, the Myers', the Durbins, the Burks, the Porters, the Adams'. the Collins' the Douglass' were there ! In brief, the people were there in all their strength, and what is more, that vast assemblage spoke as with a single voice. It was not composed of a defunct club, or a Post office clique; its proceedings were not dictated by the who having just lost hold of the Commonwealth teat. are nosing the national udder. And the ' cool presumption" of these veterans may be rebuked, when the democratic party here looms up to the importance it has reached in Blair county-but not till then.

It may comport with the "usages of the party" to consider the least doubt in regard to the infalibility of the President elect on any question of politics and morals, and at the same time, in the same columns, to abuse the democracy of the State through the Canal Board, as the Standard does ; if the usages of the party require sycophantic adulation of the President, and gross abuse of the Canal

MESSES. EDITORS :- About two weeks since bill was read in the House of Representatives, by our member, Mr. Smith, entitled "An Act to create an additional Court in Cambria County." It was referred to the Judiciary Committee, and was subsequently reported by that committee, with a negative r commen lation, which, I presume, disposes of the matter, at least during the present session. I understand that the members of the not control the meeting. The gray haired Johnstown Bar, and perhaps others, charge that the members of the Ebensburg Bar, exerted themselves to procure the defeat of the bill referred to. This is entirely a mistake .--There is not a member of the Bar of this place, who knew anything about the Bill, until after it was read by Mr. Smith, and all that any one of them did, was merely to write to Mr. Smith for a copy of it, in order that it might be known what it contained. Before, or about the time the letter reached Harrisburg, the Committee had acted on it, and as I stated, reported adversely. There was no remots rance sent from this place against the passage of the bill, for the simple reason, that no person here knew what its provisions were, and of course could not with any degree of certainty, know what to remonstrate against. I have recently seen a printed copy of the Bill, and consider it a very lame and impotent affair. Such a Bill never could and never ought to pass the Legislature, either for this or any other county.
