

A Bill to repeal the Usury Laws has been introduced in the House by Mr. Bishop, which is similar in most of its provisions to the one presented some days ago by Mr. Crabb in the Senate, in regard to a repeal of the Usury Laws. It goes further than the bill of the latter gentleman. The bill of Mr. Crabb only includes promissory notes and acceptance and exchange. The former does not exclude any class of persons or corporations from the benefit of the right it gives to an interest negotiable paper at any rate of discount or interest which the drawer or addressee may agree upon, save Banks. The latter excludes pawnbrokers, as well as Banks from the privileges given to all others by the act.

A Slight Misconception—Young Gentleman.—I have never had the pleasure of seeing you before, sir, but I met your daughter at Saratoga, and she asked me to call upon her in town. Having just been able to get her address to-day, I—
Old Gentleman (indignantly interrupting)—Get her a dress! Who gave you permission, sir, to make presents to my daughter? I'd have you know that I'm able to clothe my children with out your assistance! There she goes, sir!

A church for the deaf and dumb is about to be opened in New York—the first institution of the kind in this country where divine worship will be conducted by signs.

WHITE TEETH, PERFUMED BREATH AND BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION—can be acquired by using the "Balm of Thousand Flowers." What lady or gentleman would remain under the curse of a disagreeable breath, when by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers" as a dentifrice, would not only render it sweet, but leave the teeth white as alabaster? Many persons do not know their breath is bad, and the subject is so delicate their friends will never mention it. Beware of counterfeits. Be sure each bottle is signed.
