

Buildings. Herds of banditti no longer lie in wait in every ravine for plunder and assassination. Invasions of hostile armies have ceased, and infuriated partisans, living in our midst have emphatically turned their swords into plough-shares, and their spears into pruning-hooks. Laborers are every where at work—farmers are undergoing rapid improvements—and mechanics are driving a thriving trade—merchants are pursuing with profit their various occupations—Real estate, in town and country, has increased in value almost without precedent, until in some places it is commanding prices that could never have been anticipated. Whether this healthy and happy change is the result solely of our Executive labors, or of the present cessation and perpetuity of the present prosperous condition of affairs, Guard it with increasing vigilance and protect it with your lives. Keep down that party spirit, which, if permitted to obtain the mastery, must lead to desolation—Watch closely, and condemn in its infancy every insidious movement that can possibly tend to discord and division. Suffer no local prejudices, to disturb the prevailing harmony. To every appeal to these, turn a deaf ear, as did the Saviour of men to the promptings of the deceiver. Act as a united band of brothers, bound together by one common tie. Your interests are the same, and by this course alone they can be maintained. Follow this and your hearts and homes will be made light and happy by the richest blessings of a kind and merciful Providence.

To you, the peaceable citizens of Kansas, I owe my grateful acknowledgments for the aid and comfort your kind assurances and hearty co-operation have afforded in many dark and trying hours. You have my sincerest thanks and earnest prayers that you may be abundantly rewarded of Heaven.

To the ladies of the Territory—the wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of the honest settlers—I am also under a weight of obligation. Their pious prayers have not been raised in vain, nor their numerous assurances of confidence in the policy of my administration failed to exert a salutary influence.

And last though not the least, I must not be unmindful of the noble men who form the Military Department of the West. To General Persifer F. Smith and the officers acting under his command I return my sincere thanks for many valuable services. Although from different parts of the Union and naturally imbued with sectional prejudices, I know of no instance in which such prejudices have been permitted to stand in the way of a faithful, cheerful and energetic discharge of duty. Their conduct in this respect is worthy of universal commendation, and presents a bright example for those exercising civil power.

The good behavior of all the soldiers who were called upon to assist me, is, in fact, deserving of especial notice. Many of these troops, officers and men, had served with me on the fields of Mexico, against a foreign foe, and it is a source of no little satisfaction to know that the laurels there won have been further adorned by the praiseworthy alacrity with which they aided to slay a destructive fratricidal strife at home.

With a firm reliance on the protective care and over-ruling providence of that Great Being who holds in his hand the destinies alike of men and of nations, I bid farewell to Kansas and to her people, trusting that whatever events may hereafter befall them, they will, in the exercise of His wisdom, goodness and power, be so directed as to promote their own interests and that of the beloved country of which they are destined to form a most important part. JOHN W. GEARY.
