Dr. Sanford's INVIGORATOR, OR LIVER REMEDY.

April 15, 1857. 4t.

S AN ARTICLE THAT EVERY BODY NEEDS WHO IS not in a perfect state of health, for the Liver is second only to the heart in our human economy, and when that is deranged the whole vital machinery runs wrong. To ind a medicine peculiarly adapted to this disease has been the study of the s has been the study of one of the proprietors in a Munster townships (contiguous to the Rail-road,) years, and the result of his experiment is the Invigorator, as a rever-failing remedy where medi-cine has any power to help. As a Liver Remedy it has no equal, as all testify who use it.

A lady, writing from Brooklyn, says " Would that I could express in this short letter the value your Invigorator has been to me in raising a large family of children, for it has never failed to relieve all affections of the stomach, bowels or attacks or worms. If mothers once had this remedy placed within their reach, and were taught how to use it, a fearful and untold amount of a larger tract of land of which James Smyth, agony might be saved."

One of our prominent bankers says, "Five or six years since, I found myself running down with a liver difficulty; resorting to your Invigor ator, was greatly relieved, and, continuing for a season, was entirely restored.

A clergyman called at our office the other day and said he had given a poor woman a bottle, who was suffering very sadly from Liver Com-plaint, and before she had taken the whole of it she was at work carning bread for her family. A gentleman, recently from the West, says, while at Chicago, he was attacked with a slow lingering fever, that buffled the skill of physicians but the Invigorator cured him in a few days. One of our city merchants said while on a visit to his room, he sent to the urug store for a bottle May, 1857, when all persons interested may atof Invigorator, took one dose, which relieved him so that he was able to attend to his business. An acquaintance, whose business compels him te write most of the time, says, he became so weak as to be unable at times to hold his pen. while at others, sleep would overpower him, but the Invigorator cured him. A gentlen;an from Brooklyn called on us a week with skin yellow, pale and deathlike. He had been for a long time suffering from Jaundice and Dyspepsia, and unable to attend to his business.
