Health Laws of health; effects of expo- the excitement of the contest for the Presisure to which farmers are liable; prevention Veterinary Practice-Diseases of animals ;

injuries. Entomology-Habits of insects useful and injurious, especially those injurious to vegetation; specimens in the museum; Breeds of Stock, Poultry, &c. Their peculiarities; points, &c., specimens. Feeding-Amount, quality, and preparation of food; experiments, soiling.

Training of Animals-Of horses, oxen, &c. Culture of the soil-Varieties of soils and conditions; instruments and processes applieable to various soils, ecops, and seasons.

Manures—Preparation and use of all home manures; experiments with foreign and artificial manures. Produce-Preservation and marketing of grain, meats, fruits, roots, &c.

Agricultural History-Condition in differcut nations, and at different periods, causes of improvement. Horticulture -The garden; the orchard;

the nursery; the yard; pruning, training, grafting, &c.; best shrubs, trees, flowers, fruits, vegetables; peculiarities of varieties as to habits and culture; decoration and love of Experiments-With mistures, processes, seeds &c., systematic trial; record; publication of results. Malpractice-What to avoid doing ; exposare of proved errors; trial of supposed er-

Very Respectfully, FRED'K, WATTS Pres't of Board of Trustees of Farm, High School. Carlisle, July 15, 1857

Sentine

H. C. DEVINE Editor and Proprietor.

EBENSBURG. WEDNESDAY MORNINGAUGUST 26.

POR GOVERNOR.

WILLIAM F. PACKER, EYCOMING COUNTY.

FOR JUDGES OF THE SUPREME COURT. WILLIAM STRONG. OF BEERS COUNTY. JAMES THOMPSON

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER. NIMROD STRICKLAND.

COUNTY TICKET. POR ASSEMBLY. G. N. SMITH. FOR REGISTER & RECORDER. MICHAEL HASSON FOR TREASURER. GEORGE J. RODGERS FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER. JOHN BEARER. DAVID O'HARRA. FOR AUDITOR. REES J. LLOYD.

COURT WEEK .- We have been informed by those who ought to know that our coming court promises to be unusually throng, which we hope will be the means of bringing all our subscribers and advertisers to town with their "pockets full of rocks." We have been indulging those who have been indebted to us for several years from court to court .--We are now hard pressed for money-we are indebted to our paper merchant, hands, merchants and mechanics generally, and they want their money and must have it, and so must we, in order to pay them. Subscribers and advertisers will be indulged no longer than court week. Those that neglect this notice must look out for breakers.

GEORGE W. BOWMAN.

The last number of the "Bedford Gazette." contains a communication from George W. Bowman its late Editor, which demands at our hands a passing notice. Before resigning the Editorial chair, George was graciously pleased to advise the Democracy of Cambria, through the columns of the "Gazette," to oppose the election of George N.

George acknowledges that in 1852, during ough and surrounding vicinity

dency, when it was the universal impression that the result of the great contest in November, would be foreshadowed by that of the State election in Pennsylvania in October, he struck the name of Searight the democratic candidate for Canal Commissioner from the mast head of the "Gazette," and counselled its readers to oppose his election. Pray George, was not Scaright the regular nomince of the party for Canal Commissioner, and was he not fairly and honestly nominated?

George is we believe correct when he as serts that the "Mountain Sentinel" endorsed his course in this matter. But the " Mountain Democrat," of which we were then one of the Editors did not. We then branded the charges against Searight, as vile and infamous falsehoods, and we venture to say, that there is not at the present time, a man in the Commonwealth, vile enough to say that we were not right. Now that the lamented Searight is sleeping beneath the clods of the valley, and the voice of slander is hushed, we can say without fear of contradiction, that he was as pure and upright a man as was ever presented to the people of Pennsylvania for their suffrages.

We would like George in his next "com munication" to explain, why it was right to oppose the usages of the Democratic party is 1852, and wrong to do the same thing in 1857. After naving denounced others as disorganizers, as violaters of the rules of the party, it is no wonder he makees wry faces, when he perceives "even handed Justice, commending the ingredients of the poisoned chalice to his own lips."

Having disposed of Capt. Smith, George turns his attention to the "Democrat & Sentinel," and calls us to an account for having in our paper of the 12th inst., called the attention of the Democracy of Cambria, to the mportance of extending a united and enthusiastic support to the county ticket; certainly no unpardonable sin. George quotes from our article to prove that we hold the doctrine, that it is the duty of Democrats under all circumstances, to support regular nominees, and then taxes us with inconsistency. Had he been disposed to do us justice, he would have quoted the following paragraph from

"We do not pretend to say, that a nomination procured by fraudulent and dishonest means should be regarded as binding on the was paid to Norcross. Atticks is a murlerer. party, but we do say, that if the man who refuses to support a candidate of the party fairly nominated, imagines he is a Democrat, face and sneered while lying. He told evrything less but truth. Little did he think, when he tesnation of George N. Smith procured by fran- God Almighty. If he don't repent beforche dies dulent or dishonest means? Prove this and we are ready to oppose him, but until you do so, we are bound and determined to use all honorable means in our power to promote his

The nomination of John W. Forney, for United States Senator last winter, was procured by the improper interposition of exceutive influence. The "Pennsylvanian," which at the time was even louder than the "Gazette," in denouncing Gen. Foster and his friends for the course which they pursued, has since acknowledged that Mr. Buchanan "interfered perhaps improperly," to secure the nomination and election of Mr. Forney for United States Senator. We would never have endorsed the course of Capt. Smith in this matter, had we believed that Forney was fairly and honestly nominated.

In conclusion we have only to say, that the Democracy of Cambria love Mr. Buchanan, and are disposed to give his administration an enthusiastic and united support. But they despise such cringing, fawning office seeking demagogues as George W. Bowman, and having the ability and manless to act for and having the ability and manless to act for me innocent, but God knows it, I care not what themselves, they will pursue the even tenor of the world thinks. God and myself know it. If their way, unawed by interest and unbought

The Farmers' High School of Pennsylvania.

We publish on our outside to-day, an address from the Trustees of this excellent institution. The brevity of the address and the importance of the subject to which it re- God with my murder. lates, should induce all immediately or remotely interested in the advancement of agricultural science to give it a careful peruagricultural science to give it a careful peru-life. I got a meal at a gentleman's house, not sal. It will be seen that the Legislature has Fleck's house. He scorned the idea of coming happriated fifty thousand dollars to aid in the project; but twenty-five thousand of this smount is payable only upon condition that a like sum shall be raised from some other quarter. An appeal is, therefore, made to the liberality of individuals and county agricultural societies to render this conditional appropriation absolute: an appeal which, we trust, will be responded to with alarcity.

retary of our County Society, that an election for Trustees of the Farmers' High School, Smith the regularly nominated candidate of will be held on the State Farm, on Wednes- murderer. the party for Assembly, because his course day, the second of September next. Our live been a United States Dragoon. I've fought during the last Session of the Legislature, Society has the right to appoint three electors, but I tell you of the dishonorable death that I did not meet the entire approbation of him and, for choosing them, the President has must die. Send to Washington for a record of the said George W. Bowman. Capt. Smith took occasion, a few weeks ago, to administer to this officious intermeddler, a castigation there be a good turn out of the members, and to washington for a record of the members. They know I'm a must die. Send to washington for a record of my conduct. I was promoted to Drill master. I served under Scott, Harney and Jenkins. They all know me. They know I'm a man that would there be a good turn out of the members, not cut Norcross' throat or beat his brains out that it was contrary to their wishes and advice with a club. Law innocent. I never fid it. The "communication" which we have now under consideration, is a weak attempt to re-

.

. .

f From the Altoona Tribune - ktra.

DAVID STRINGER M'KIM. POR THE MURDER OF SAMUEL TOWNSEND NORCROSS.

THE EXECUTION. About six o'clock this morning, the condenined man made an effort to commit suicide by attempting to open a vein in his left arm, immediately above the wrist, with a steel pen. He was balked in this attempt, however, by the watchfulness of his guard. Previous to making the attempt, be destroyed the manuscript of the speech which he had prepared, and which was said to cover some 40 or 50 pages of foolscap.

At an early hour the town began to fill up with people, drawn thither by a norbid desire to see or hear what they could of the horrible drama. At 101 o'clock, a train of 10 cars, all crowded, arrived from Altoona, containing between 500 and 1000 persons, together with the Logan Rifle Rangers and the Altoona Guards, accompanied by the Altoona Brass Band.

At 10 o'clock the prisoner's irons were taken off. Hymn 330, Watt's collection, was sung by him in conjunction with his spiritual advisers, Rev. Dr. Junkin, of Hollidaysburg, and Rev, O. O. M'Lean, of Huntingdon, after which a prayer was offered up by Rev O. O. M Lean. The coffin was then carried in-to the yard by the undertaker.

At 15 minutes to 11 o'clock the pisoner, companied by Rev. Dr. Junkin and Rev. O. O. M'Lean, ascended the scaffold The rope was adjusted by Sheriff Port. At 10 minutes to I1 o'clock the sheriff proceded to read the death warrant of the unfortunate criminal, after which he called over thenames of the jurors, as follows: Joseph Robison, J R. M'Farlane, F. Sellers, M. Runyan, C. R M'Crea, Id. M'-Graw, Jr., Stephen Hammond, Go. W. Reed, Dr. D. S. Hays, A. S. M'Cartney, John A. Lemon and Joseph Jones.

At 10 55 ,Dr. Junkin proceeded toaddress he had anything to say. He immediately commenced in a moderate tone of vice, as

Friends and Fellow Citizens : - I havestepped | May God Almighty bless you both is all I have on the scaffold as a murderer, but I am minno to say. cent man. I have been wronged out of my life on this scaffold, than that my countr's laws feeling for their fellow man. They have con He has sworn my life away and injured ny loving wife, my loving son, my aged mother, my 4 sisters and my brother. Yet he lookel in my tified, he would have to stand before the Judge, he'll be damned eternally for the fujury he inflicmr. Eaton, of Dunleith, is another. He told a long story. He said that a few days before starting I shaved Norcross with the razor withwhich I cut his throat. It is untrue. I never shaved him. It was not my razor. I never put a razor on my own face nor or any one else's since I zor is a black handled one and is at Long Pond Dr. Rumbold was another. He said before Noreross left that he was a dving man-q man present here knows it. Yet he came here and said he was getting well and that there was nothing the matter with him. At starting Nercross rode up in a wagon with trunks while Eaton swore he walked up with him. It was a lie. Jas. Warfel was another. I never saw War-fel, and never role on a sled with any one till I ng man I hope I may never see Heaven if I rode on a sled with him or any other man till I was 15 miles on the other side of Williamsport. He is one of those who put this rope on my neck. He swore so falsehoods in you Court House. But I forgive him, and may God have mercy upon him. But he never will unless he repents.

These are all no men. They haven't the hearts of men. May God Almighty bless them. I am an innocent man. I care not what the world may say about me, I tell you before God I am an nnocent man, before God I tell you as an American citizen. I must go either to Heaven or Hell this minute, but I never murdered Norcross, This is solemn talk and I know you will not believe all the blood of the innocent men who have been hung was collected in one pool, it would drown all the false men who swear their lives sway .-These men came to see the trial of M'Kim. They came expecting to pay expenses by getting a lit-tle money from Blair county. They were false men and swore link by link my life away. They were not right men, but God Almighty bless them. They are my murderers. They got this noose on my neck. They stand charged before

A man named Fleck said I took breakfast with nim at his house. This was proved false to his not to. teeth. I never took a meal in his house in my to Court and falsely swearing M'Kim's life away. f he had come into court and sworn I took break fast at his house, it would have been all right. I don't know his name. He was an Irishman .-His house was near the railroad; had a porch in front, which was white I think; when you went in the bar was in front, the dining-room to the left hand and the entry to right. Is that Fleck's house? Is Fleck an Irishman? May God save Fleck. He will not, however, unless he repent. He knows he is one of my murderers. If he here I want him to hear it. I would rather die on the gallows than be in Fleck's place. In a By the way, we are informed by the Sec- few minutes I must be launched into eternity, ei- turned round to his religious advisers, but ther Heaven or Hell. I'm going home to sweet impelled by some new idea, he suddenly tur

You will find out I am an innocent man. You able criminal, to which he seemed to pay strict will find some other man who is guilty. Murders will never lay. You'll find out yet I am in-nocent. An American citizen, I stand before you a believed murderer, I don't wonder at it. I don't blame you as God and myself know I am which was sung by the clergymen and the innocent. As a Chester county man, I am innocent. I was born in Chester county, on the Lancaster county pike, near the 48 mile stone.-I was born in Chester co. I won't deny my county. Others, who are from Chester county, may deny me, but I never did anything to bring me here. My life has been sworn away, as I am no murderer. As an American citizen I have a right to speak to you, and could not die happy unless I did. As a dying man every word I have spoken is true. I know I can't convince you, but it is so. I don't stand in the eyes of God as a murderer. As a dying man I am not the murderer of Norcross. I did not murder him.

I have fought and bled for my country. I have fought for the stars and stripes. I have taken the flag up to the muzzles of the cannon and the points of bayonets. Any man who kills his fellow being deserves hanging. I don't go in for hanging an innocent man. I admit I was not able to prove it. They swore everything against me just like a song. My counsel did their duty. They did everything in their power, in every manner, shape and form. They did their whole duty, in every manner, shape and form.

I have heard it said that I blamed the Honorable Judge for his able charge against me. It is not true. As a dying man I never blamed him. I would ask no man who was sworn to do his duty, to do anything wrong to save my life.

I have been chained nearly three months in jail. I don't blame the honorable sheriff for chaining me. I blame myself a little for it. You all know the reason why-for cutting the hobbles. I have been used like a gentleman by the honorable sheriff, the honorable Mr. Hammond, and the whole of them. They used me with respect. But one word I must say. By orders of Mr. Hammond I was handcuffed one night behind my back -the handcuffs were too tight and cut my wrists. asked the honorable sheriff to take them off, but he would not do it until he got another pair. I told the honorable sheriff that I would speak of it to-day, and I have done it. To the Sheriff-now I will say no more. The Sheriff-its all right.

Hon. Mr. M'Clure has been with me for about six months. He has been with me night and day. He has done his duty like an officer. He has always treated me well. Got me everything I wanted or should have, being a prisoner. Also his lady treated me well. I think he is one of those in attendance on the solemnity of the the foremost citizens of the place. You ought to occasion. His address occupied abou 5 min- be proud of him as the foremost citizen of the utes, after which the criminal was sked if county. He is a man of honor and respectability. He is a man I love. I wish you to look upon him with hour and respect. His wife is a lady. She has the tenderness of a mother. She knows how my old mother is weeping for me to-day-

A number of citizens have been very kind to me by my fellow men who swore my life away. As Mr. Junkin and Mr. M'Lean have been very kind a dying man whose soul will be in eternty in a to me. So has Mr. Clarke. I don't see him here few minutes, they swore falsely. First fall was to-day. The pious people of this place have at-Atticks. As a dying man I would ratherbe hung | tended on me like christians. They have kindly | it did not dislocate his neck. should be trampled upon. He (Atticks came to time after time within the gloomy walls of that Blair county and swore falsely. He toll every- prison. They have not been ashamed to read to thing but the truth. I never went to Atticks' me, and kneel in prayer within the gloomy walls with Norcross. I never was there when money of that prison. Mr. Junkin and Mr. M'Lean have come to escort me to the pinnacle of death. I choose them myself. They have saved my soul from Hell. I believe it. I believe they have been the instruments of saving my soul from Hell. A number of Methodist people came and held prayer there in the gloomy walls of that prison. They don't think too much of themselves. May God Almighty bless them.

> Citizens of Hollidaysburg, one and all, have used me with respect. I love them all, as good American citizens. You see me here pleading for truth. They had no rope round their necks, knowing that in the twinkling of an eye they wo'd be plunged into Heaven or Hell. If they had they would never have sworn my life away .-They never would. I have been charged with more crimes than this

I've seen it in the papers. But everything in them ain't true. I have been charged with murdering two more men. But they never said it till M'Kim was chained by the leg. They had me fast enough and could say what they pleased. God Almighty knows I am innocent and he will speak for M'Kim. I hope I may never see the ingdom of Heaven if I ever murdered any man. I have been charged with horse stealing. It is not true. I have never stolen anything. As a dying man I never did, no never, never, never, except fruit. I have stolen fruit, and ate it .-Who has not stolen fruit? But I never stole any thing else. Ain't it hard to be accused thus while chained? God Almighty has something to say concerning that. He knows I'm innocent .-I care not what my fellow men say-I am innocent. I could not die happy unless I expressed my opinion. As an American citizen I have a right to. I am an innocent man. I have nothing to fear. I am a happy man. I have made my calling and election sure. God knows it. 1 have put my trust in Jesus. I'll go to him as soon as the breath is out of my body. I'll go to Heaven. There I'll meet my aged mother, my aged father, who has gone before, my loving wife and son, my sisters and my brother. What need I care for this dishonorable death. My friends care nothing about it. Their characters are faultless. I am sorry that I am in this fix, to bring disgrace upon them, but it was no fault of mine. God Almighty knows it. My friends do not believe I am an innocent man, be cause they are christians. They know I know whether I am innocent or guilty of the murder of Norcross. As long as my heart continues to beat the fact, that it was ever his determination to and God gives me the power and will of delivery. I will contend for my rights. If I was guilty it would be wrong, but I'm innocent. Anything I ought to I will submit to, but not to what I ought

One thing I will submit to, I'll submit to all wrongs like a christian and an American citizen ought to. The Devil got hold of me this morning and forced me to try and deprive myself of life. I did it without thinking. I thought only of the disgrace to my friends, by this death. But if I had succeeded it would have been more of a disgrace than this rope. I believe in the Bible and I believe I would have been damned if I had. I never could have been saved when guilty of my own murder. My friends (pointing at M'Clure and the man who watches him) hindered me, and I gave up the weapon to them at once, I thanked God for it. May God bless you all. Here the prisoner ceased speaking, and Jesus. I'm no murderer, and yet I am to die a ned his back upon them. and faced the specdishonorrble death, when I know I'm not the tators, and spoke as follows: "I know you don't believe me innocent, but as a dying man well qualified to represent our agricultural interests.

In a minnocent. I never did it. I am a dying man, and if I die with a lie on my lips will go to Hell. I must die and lie in that coffin. My poor mother thought me to read the bible and have a place George in exactly the same position in which he is so anxious to place Cept. Smith; that of a disorganizer, and enemy of the cstablished rules of the democratic party.

STHAL & ROBERTS—This firm have again added to their already large assortment of Jewelry, &c. The new stock has been selected with an eye single to the interests of the "lads and lasses" of our bording of the cstablished rules of the democratic party.

George acknowledges that in 1852, during the communication which we have now under consideration, is a weak attempt to represent our agricultural interests.

well qualified to represent our agricultural interests.

well qualified to represent our agricultural interests.

STHAL & ROBERTS—This firm have again added to their already large assortment of Jewelry, &c. The new stock has been selections but such as a reward dying and it is a man adding the prisoner used parties' names on the scaffold, and made such that the prisoner used parties' names on the scaffold, and made such that the prisoner used parties' names on the scaffold, and made such that the prisoner used parties' names on the scaffold, and made such that the prisoner used parties' names on the scaffold, and made such that the prisoner used parties' names on the scaffold, and made such that the prisoner used parties' names on the scaffold, and made such that the prisoner used parties' names on the scaffold, and made such that the prisoner used parties' names on the scaffold, and made such that the prisoner used parties' names on the scaffold, and made such that the prisoner used parties' names on the scaffold, and made such that the prisoner used parties' names on the scaffold, and made such that the prisoner used parties' names on the scaffold, and made such that the prisoner that the pr ted with care, and with an eye single to the innocent man. I didn't murder Samuel Townough and surrounding vicinity have done wrong without confessing it. I am an innocent man. I didn't murder Samuel Townough and surrounding vicinity statements, Mr. M' Lean also confirmed the phans' Court of Cambria County, at the election in October next, and pledges bimiself, if elected, the said God above knew the truth or false-location in October next, and pledges bimiself, if elected, the said God above knew the truth or false-location in October next, and pledges bimiself, if elected, the said God above knew the truth or false-location in October next, and pledges bimiself, if elected, the said God above knew the truth or false-location in October next, and pledges bimiself, if elected, bood of the statements he had made. He then read the 5th chapter of Romans to the miser-location in October next, and pledges bimiself, if elected, bood of the statements he had made. He then read the 5th chapter of Romans to the miser-location in October next, and pledges bimiself, if elected, bood of the statements he had made. He then read the 5th chapter of Romans to the miser-location in October next, and pledges bimiself, if elected, bood of the statements he had made. He then read the 5th chapter of Romans to the miser-location in October next, and pledges bimiself, if elected, bood of the statements he had made. He then read the first of Cambridge in October next, and pledges bimiself, if elected, become a continued.

attention. He then read the 650 Hymn, Watt's collection, commencing

"Prepare to meet thy God," very much, yet he betrayed no other symptoms of excitement. After the bymn was finished the clergymen with the criminal knelt and Dr. Junkin offered up an earnest, fervent and appropriate supplication to the throne of grace in behalf of the unfortunate criminal.

After Dr. Junkin had concluded the prayer, he and Mr. M'Lean rose to their feet but the prisoner remained in a kneeling posture tor some minutes. His lips moved a little and he appeared to be engaged in earnest is large and well adapted for busi-prayer. After he raised himself erect again ness, Two lots of graund, with all

"Do you believe that if you die denying the truth, you will go to hell?" to which M'-Kim promptly replied "yes." The Dr. then addressed him in a few feeling words and bade him farewell; next D. H. Hofius, Esq. his senior counsel, went up and shaking hands with him bade him farewell; next in ordet was Mr, Hammond, the District Attorney, next the Sheriff, next an old acquaintance of M'-Kim's, and last of all Rev. Mr. M'Lean bade the wretched man a last farewell.

At 28 minutes past 12 o'clock, his arms were pinioned, the rope adjusted, and the cap drawn over the wretched man's face. The Sheriff then asked him if he had anything further to say, whereupon he spoke as follows:---

I die an innocent man. I stand an the pinnacle of death, but I die an innocent man freely forgive those who swore against me. I know you don't believe me, but you must think there is some reality in it in my protesting my innocence while standing on the pinnacle of death—the pinnacle of death. I be lieve the bible and I believe if I should die with a lie on my lips I would go to Hell. I believe the bible. God bless my wife and child; my dear old mother and sisters and my brother and I hope to meet them all in heav-

He had hardly ceased speaking before the drop fell. It was about 27 minutes to one o'clock. He fell about 4 feet. He seemed to die easy. His feet were slightly raised two or three times and his fingers were observed to twitch. The throbings of his heart were perceptible for about 5 minutes after the drop fell, and his pulse was perceptible some 10 minutes. We don't think however he was suscepitble to pain. We have no doubt he was rendered insensible by the fall, although of ground attached to the premises, on which will

After hanging half-an-hour at 1.04.P. M. he was taken down and placed in his coffin. He looked but slightly changed. His mouth was half opened and his tongue which protruded slightly, was covered with blood. His eyes were half closed, and his neck though pronounced by the Doctors as not being broken, bore the marks of the cord and in one place the skin was badly cut.

As soon as the body was put in the coffin. it was placed in a hearse and transported to the Poor House for burial. His friends having failed to come and claim the body as he expected, he was buried at the expense of the

The rope employed in the execution was a new one procured in Philadelphia, by the sheriff for the purpose. It cost $5, and is said to be the best quality of Italian Hemp. Within the last few weeks the sheriff has had about 2500 applications for admission as deputies, jurors, and from sheriffs of other

OBITUARY.

Sunday morning. August 9th, of disease of the heart, EDWARD EVANS, (TANNER,) in the 71st year of his age.

more than a passing notice He was born in Monmouthshire, Wales, in October, 1786; and first came to America in 1808. From thence until 1839 or 1840, he spent much of his time travelling through the United States and British Provinces, merely sejourning in our county at intervals. Since 1840, however, he has resided permanently in Ebensburg. He was in many respects a remarkable man. Although nearly fifty years of his life were spent within the United States, vet. during all that time, he never renounced ailegiance to his native government. This seems the more remarkable when we consider make America bis home. The reason which he assigned however, for not becoming a citizen was, simply because the word "forerer," used in the form of renunciation, would be of perpetual obligation; insomuch that he might never absolve himself, in case he desired to take up his abode in another gov-

Being endowed with an active and vigorous mind, he formed his own opinions on all questions of the day, and held those opinions with great tenacity; and although on many points his views differed widely from the prevailing sentiment, yet all who knew him will readily give him credit for an earnest desire to hold and uphold what he believed to be the truth. He was a warm and ardent friend, a kind and obliging neighbor; an affectionate husband; and above all, a sincere and devoted chris-

WIN, infant son of Hon. Harrison Kinkead, can be bought in any ot

aged 3 years and 7 months On Wednesday morning, 26th inst., Roserr Francis, son of Lewis and Mary Ann

To the Independent Voters of Cambria County.

Hoover, aged 4 years.

THE UNDERSIGNED OFFERS HIMSELF as an Independent Candidate for the offi-ces of Register & Recorder, and Clerk of the Or-

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE .- We refer the reader to the advertisement of this popular remedy. It is highly reccommended by all who have used it, and has effected wonderful results by its magic influence .-We know of gentlemen who have been almost bald for years, had their hair entierly restored to its former luxuriance and beauty, by the use of Woods Hair Restorative .- [Lagrange Bulliten.

For sale here by all druggists

Aug. 19-21-41 Tayern Stand for Sale or Rent. THE UNDERSIGNED OFFERS FOR SALE his Tavern Stand, situate in the borough of Loretto. The house prayer. After he raised himself erect again the cord was adjusted. Dr. Junkin again addressed the miserable criminal as follows:

| Two lots of ground, with all the necessary out buildings, a good well of water and cistern in the yard. If not sold thortly it will be offered for rent for a term of years.

Apply to the subscriber, living near the premi-Loretto, Aug. 26, 1857-42-

STRAY STALLION. AME TO THE RESIDENCE OF THE UN U dersigned, living in Hemlock, Washington A township, Cambria county, on the 17th inst., ONE DARK BROWN STALLION, blind of the left eye,
a little crippled in the left blind leg.
supposed to be about 13 years old. The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges and take him away; otherwise he will be disposed of according to law.

DAVID SHARP. Aug. 26, 1857 .- 42-8t.

ST, ALOYSIOUS ACADEMY.—STUDIES will be resumed in St. Aloysious Academy, Loretto, Cambria county, on Monday, Esptember 7th. It would be desirable that the pupils attend on that day so that the classes may be formed without delay.

ESTATE OF EDWARD EVANS. ETTERS TESTAMENTARY HAVING been granted to the undersigned up a the estate of Edward Evans, deceased, late of Ebousburg borough, Cambria county, Pa., notice is hereby given that all persons indebted to said estate, as well as those having claims against the same, to call on the undersigned for settlement. E. J. WATERS, Executor.

ELIZABETH EVANS, Excentr's. Ebensburg. Aug. 26-6t,-42. Town Property for Sale. THE UNDERSIGNED WILL DISPOSE OF his valuable property, situated on the Susquehanna & Ebensburg Plank Road, and adjoining the residence of Rev. David Jenkins, The property being beautifully situate', would make a good summer residence. The building is two story, and well planned, together with all the us cessary out-buildings attached. There are 4 acres be found a choice lot of fruit trees. Terms made

Ebensburg. Aug. 26, 1857-42-STOLEN.-FROM THE RESIDENCE OF Henry Alleman, in Clearfield county, Penna. on Friday, August 21st, 1857, a GRAY MARE. about three years old, fourteen hands bigh, having a narrow rump and feet very much work off. with no shoes on when taken-said mare belonging to Jacob Cordas. A saddle and bridle was taken at the same time. Any person finding, trading for or buying the above described mare will be handsomely rewarded.

Address JACOB CORDAM. Tipton, Blair ..., Fa.

or Jaynesville, Clearfield co., Pa. Aug. 26, 1857-8t-420 Young America Target Pistel.

IANUFACTURING THIS PISTOL IS INTENDED AS THE forerunner of the ordinary pistel and is designed for young men and boys whe wish to enjoy the exciteing sport of firing at a target, at the most trifling expense, and without any dayger of accident. The cheapest ordinary pietol is three or four times the price of this besides being dangerous in the hands of boys. This Pistol is oaded with the common Fire Cracker, which forms a complete cartridge, and will extry a ball ten or fifteen paces with the same precision as the ordinary pistol, but not with sufficient force to de the art by which our independence was recured. Hence this Target Pistol is exactly in time, and must meet with universal sale among our youth The deceased is deserving of something of the South and West. Its operation is perfectly simple, and is not liable to get out of order. A full description will accompany every case of Patols. The Pistols are put up at the Factory in cases of 50 each, ready to send by express to any part of the United States or Canada. RETAIL PRICE, 25 CENTS; BY THE CASE

FRENCH, HALL & CO.

EBENSBURG BRANCH RAILROAD.

people of Ebensburg ust received, at their store Mountain House," the lar-

Clocks, Watches & ever brought to this town. Their stock conde light day and Thirty hour, spring and weight Clocks, Fancy, Parlor and Bar-room Clocks, Gold Hunting case and open face Lever Watches, Gold Hunting-case detached Levers, Gold Hunting case Lepines, Silver Hunting case Levers, Silver Hunting case detached Levers, Silver Hunting case Lepines, Open face Levers, Lepines and Quartiers, Gold Guard, Vest and Feb Chains, Gold Lockets, Gold Seals, Gold Pencils, Bard & Wilson's celebrated Gold Pens,

Gold and Cameo Breastpins, Gold Kar-rings, ents Breastpins, Gold Finger Rings, Gold Cuff Pins, Gold Shirt Stude. Gold Sleeve Buttons, Gold Charms, Steel Watch Keyn, Gold, Silver and Gold Hooks, Gold Crosses, Silver and Silver-plated ea and Table Spoons.

Butter Knives, Silver Thimbles, Silver Gpard and Fob Chains, Spectacles, Port Monnais. Clock Keys, Accordeons, Vielins, Flates, ac., &c., &c., &c.

The above and many other articles, not men-On Tuesday morning, the 25th inst., ED- | tioned, will be sold as cheap if not cheaper than side of Philadelphia. CLOCKS, WATCHES, JEWELRY, ACCOR-

DEONS, &c., repaired with promptness and at low rates. All goods sold, and articles repaired, warranted.— Confident that they cannot be undersold, the subscribers would respectfully solicit a continuance or the patronage of the public. STAHL & ROBERTS.

Aug. 26, 1857. 42-tf. UST received at the store of EDWARD ROB

1,000 lbs Cod Fish, 10 half Bris Herring, and 10 half Bris Macken; Feb. 6, 1856. former grader beet to brue