The Devil's Tactics. It appears that the world progresses, not only in Scientific Discovery, and in morel

he drills his emissaries in this lower world. In fact his followers are becoming so well deilled that serious doubts are now entertained the election of Mr. Zahm, can or will save among them, whether there is any longer the country. We have no desire to curb the much use for a Devil.

famed Bowman of Bedford has exhibited his a bushel and let it shine before men." but as other matters, and leave Cambria county small hoe:" wholly under his supervision.

Among the infernal crew there appears to have been originated, a plot to get out two getts of Democratic Candidates, and thus to create as much dissension as possible, and then secretly to run in an entire Know-Nothing ticket. They intend to adopt the tactics that were approved when the order was in its infancy, and to present no public ticket but to distribute their tickets by councils, under an eath of secreey, and thus astonish the people by turning the election by a secret strategem. They have, however, improved upon their former plans, by persuading a few Democrats to run as volunteers and thus divide the Democratic forces. A part of the plan has leaked out of one of their own order, whose oath would not hold water I would thus appear that the secret order is not dead, but yet living, active and busy, and this fact is strengthened by another which appeared some time age in an Eastern paper. stating that the American order were about re-organizing their forces, with the view of carrying the present election for Governor. Be this as it may, there is no longer a doubt that they are now secretly re-organized in Cambria county and lead by one or two from the Democratic ranks. This will astonish some Democrats, but they will find on the morning after the election that what we state.

There remains then but one way to defeat their schemes, and that is for every Demoerat in the county to vote the whole ticket. If the opposition should ever obtain the ascendency in this county, they will maintain it, and then woe to freedom of Speech, and of the Press, and of Religious Liberty.

There may be men on the ticket that ar objectionable to many of our Democratic friends. This is the case in all nominations. There never was a sett of men nominated that gave entire satisfaction. Even General Washington was opposed by some. It is not expected that men could be selected who would please every one. This can not be done But the great principles of Democracy is that the majority shall rule; and whatever selections the majority may make must be sustained by the members of the party, or else they must repudiate their Democracy. The great party, which has controlled the doc trines of the Western world for so many years would soon been dissolved, if minorities would begin to disregard the acts of constituted majorities. The will of the majority was expressed through regularly constituted agents at the Delegate Convention, which formed the county ticket. And to deny their authorof Democracy, of a mail margified a little of the job work out to epidesoscolory layers majority was not so expressed. It is answered that the customs and usages of the party were observed and obeyed, and if people d not turn out to the Delegate elections, the fault was theirs and does not lie either, at the door of the Delegate system or of Democracy. And people who failed to put in their objections at that time, should yield them now, or forever abandon true Democratic principles. The ticket must be sustained and the candidate must be elected, or the Democratic party must break down under the troubles of uscless and profitless dissension.

Democrats of Cambria county, will you obey and observe Democratic usages? If so vote the whole ticket. If not, join the ene my of your long cherished principles and assist in elevating your opponents to pro-

Smith could fall. have made money by taking the other side of the question. But he chose to defend the tax-payer. What shall be his reward?

In fact the entire ticket has claims upon the party, and the party must and will support it, Mr. Bowman to the contrary notwithstanding Then, Democrats let your motto be, "the ticket the whole ticket and nothing Thug leaders, with inducements and "rebut the ticket."

Col. M. Hasson.

A few Know-Nothings who are extremely anxious to figure in polities, have been very active during the present week, in electionimprovements; but that the old Arch Fiend, eering among the persons attending Court, didate for Register and Recorder. Accordcording to their representations, nothing but commendable desire of the se Apost'es of Know-This is more especially the case since the Nothingism, to take their "light from under cloven feet, and horny protuberances. > There are a few reasons why every Democrat in the county should vote for Colonel Hasson, which our Know-Nothing neighbors will doubtless regard as trifles, light as air, but which we are confident will have no little influence among the " unterrified" on the seeond Tuesday of next October. For the benefit of Know-Nothing-would-be politicians, we will state them. Because he is the regularly nominated candidate of the party for Register and Recorder. That he was fairly and honestly nominated, even the meanest Know-Nothing in the county will not deny. Because he is well qualified for discharging the duties of the office, and will make a prompt and obliging officer. In the language of Mr. Zahm, "if elected he will discharge the duties of the office promptly and satisfactorily." Because be is and always has been, an active and efficient Democrat, faithful alike through good and evil report, in sunshine and in storm. Because his defeat would tend to disorganize the party, and enable the Know-Nothings to boast, that they had triumphed in the Democratic banner county of Western Pennsylvania. And finally because his opponent, George C. K. Zahm, although professing to be a volunteer, is really the candidate of the combined forces of Know-Nothingism and Black Republicanism, and they slandering the gentlemen whose name heads are the "Independent voters," on whom he relies to secure his election.

We are glad to perceive the Know-Nothng leaders so active in urging the claims of Mr. Zahm. He seems to be their pet, their favorite. But be careful gentlemen, act prudently, or Squire Palmer may become jealous. The old "National Democrat," is worthy of some consideration, and should not be entirely neglected. It is true he has not been acting with you quite so long as Mr. Zahm but remember new proselytes are always active and energetic in advocating the cause they espouse. Besides, they are both equally active in their efforts to disorganize the Democratic ranks, and if they are not succesful; the blame is not theirs. Besides, George N. Smith must be defeated. Lo, hath not George W. Bowman said it, and is it not to in doing their best to secure a respectable although he is running as a volunteer in op- her God. show, now that they are in the field, and their Know-Nothing friends are right in adhering to them. But we hope they will not feel at all hurt or surprised, if after all their efforts, they find themselves coming out at the "little end of the horn," on the evening of the second Tuesday of next October.

But it may be objected that the will of the The Candidate of the "National Democracy." We last week informed our readers, that hip, had announced himself a volunteer candidate for Assembly, in opposition to the regular nominee of the Democratic party We refer those of our readers who are anx ous to ascertain the Platform on which the Squire stands, to his card which will be found in our advertising columns. We are glad to find that the Squire is so popular, and that his friends are not confined to any particular locality. The truth is, the Squire has always been rather popular with the people, and this is not the first time he manifested a commendable desire, to occupy a "seat as Representative," in the State Logislature In 1855, previous to the Delegate The nominces of the party have always elections, be announced himself as a candidate for Assembly, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention, and la-Capt. Even though he shouldn't be elected to a " seat in the next Legislature" doubtless higher honors await him at the hands of his new friends, and there is no telling what the future may have in store for him. We are sorry the Squire has deserted his old friends, but if he prefers his present quarters to a place in the Democratic ranks we have no objections to urge, but are perfectly content to " leave him alone in his glory."

Thomas H. Porter, Esquis 417/

A favorite game with the Know-Nothings and Black Republicans, is their attempt to excite distrust and want of confi lence among the Democratic party, by circulating reports unfavorable to the levalty of prominent members of that party-they bave lately been this article, by industriously publishing that he was of posed to the Democratic ticket.

Now, as usual with Know-Nothing slanderers, there is not a word of truth in the story. Mr. Porter is a Democrat attached to the glorious principles of his party, and is in favor of the whole Democratic ticket, State and county. This base attempt of the Know-Nothings to injure a man who deservedly stands high, will recoil upon their own heads

One year ago Squire Palmer was, or professed to be, one of the strictest party men in the county. "Stand by the regular nominces of the party." was then his motto. But boot is on the other leg, and he is firmly imposition to Capt. Smith, the candidate of the party, fairly and honestly nominated.
