The Affection of the Horse.

Riding in a stage a short time since, over the hills of Western Pennsylvania I asked the priveledge of riding out with the driver.—This is a pleasant weather, and in a strange country, is my favorite seat. Many consider it a disgrace to sit out with the driver; but often I find philosophy guiding the horses of a public stage. If a passenger politely asks the privilege of riding out with the driver, it will be as politely granted; and no situation is so favorable for learning the local and most interesting history of the country through which a traveler is passing.

"That near horse," said I, "is a fine animal."

"Yes," said he "if I had his mate, money could not purchase them. How old do you think he is?"

"Probably eight or nine," said I.

"He is twenty-four," said he. "I have driven him nine years on this route. His mate was just like him; they have grown up together, and stood in the same stable. No person ever appeared to think more of a friend or even a child, than those horses did of each other. If one was absent for a night or day, the other whinnied, and looked and moved about the stable, calling for his absent friend. Last winter," said he, "his mate, died. Since then he has been constantly mournful and unhappy. He is constantly calling for his mate, when in the stable; he will not permit any other horse to occupy the place of his companion in the stable. In all other places he is quiet and gentle, but will allow no one to be a companion at the stable where he has so often enjoyed the society of his departed companion. But he is failing fast said my friend; "he is evidently pining away with grief, and poor old Jim will soon join his mate in another, and I hope and believe, a higher state of existence."

"Why," said I, "do you suppose a horse has a conscious existence after death?"

"Certainly I do," said he. "I have the same evidence of it I have that I shall exist. Have I love? So has a horse. Have I affection, sympathy, memory, mind, reason? So has a horse. Call it instinct, if you please—I call it reason. True, a horse has not the organs of mathematical calculation; but many human beings are as destitute of them as a horse; and certainly they are not necessary for a future existence. It is the moral faculties that will survive the grave. "In those," said he, "old Jim is pre-eminent. Does any one love his friend? Certainly not better than Jim does his. Does any one strive to do his duty? Jim is a pattern of dutiful obedience. Does any remember and mourn for his lost loved ones? Poor old Jim is going down sorrowing to the grave for his loved mate."

Here my companion brushed a tear from his eye, as he reined up to the post-office in Mercer county, and delivered his mail.—Prairie Farmer.

THE TRUE PLATFORM

As having a bearing upon the Kansas question, and as indicative of the creed of the State-rights party, we ask the attention of our readers to the follwing noble sentiments, which were published in the far far-famed address of the Southern members of Congress of 1849. This address was called forth by the questions touching the admission of California, and it was penned by Mr CALHOUN himself, and signed by such men as Hunter, Mason, Butler, Robert W. Johnston, Jefferson Davis, Jacob Thompson, Barnwell Rhett, Atcheson, and Wm. R. King. Read it.

"We hold the Federal Government has no right to extend or restrict slavery any more than to establish or abolish it; nor has it any right whatever to distinguish between the domestic institutions of one State or section and another. As the Federal representative of each and all the States, it is bound to deal out, within the sphere of its powers, equal and exact justice to all. We ask not—as the North alleges we do—for the extension of slavery. That would make discrimination in our favor as unjust and as unconstitutional as the discrimination they ask against us in their favor."

The Paducah (Kentucky) Herald says:—"This is the standard by which we shall judge the Administration of Mr. Buchannan. This is the test which State-rights Democrats will apply to it. If at the end of one year the gloriousold Patriot is found lacking to this standard, we shall not be slow to denounce wherewe now defend."

Another Political Clergyman Fallen.

One after another of the political clergy of the country are being exposed and are falling from grace. The last case we have to record is from the Celina (Mercer county, Ohio,) Standard of the 3d inst., which says that the Rev. Wesley Brock, who is one of the loudest "Black Republicans" in the North-west, an old minister and recently presiding Elder of the district, has been guilty of the crime of seduction, and that the lady whom he has ruined has commenced legall proceedings against him. The Standard in noticing the matter says:

We do not give publicity to this debasing crime of Mr. Brock with any intention of injuring the church. Far from it. Our sympathies have always been with the denomination of which he has been a leading, but now a fallen star. But we have always thought and still believe, that so long as the church permits its preachers to dabble in politics to the neglect of their religious duties, it is sinning against itself in not silencing the renegades immediately. By such a course the church would soon regain the ground lost in the past few years, and restore confidence among the people; but so long as political preaching is allowed, it will continue to suffer.

A BANK OF ENGLAND NOTE has some peculiar and interesting characteristics of manufacture, the paper being distinguished by its color which is peculiarly white, such as is neither sold in shops, nor used for any other purpose; by its thinness and transparency, qualities which prevent any of the printed part of the note baing washed out by turpentine, or removed by the knife, unless a hole is made in the place thus practiced on: by its characteristic feel, a peculiar crispness and toughness which those accustomed to handle it distinguish the true notes instantly: the wier or water mark, which is produced on the paper when in the state of pulp, and which is easily distinguished from a mark stamped on after the paper is completed: the three "deckel" edges—the mould contains two notes placed lengthwise, which are separated by a knife at a future stage of the process, this deckel or wooden frame of the paper would produce the peculiar effect seen on the edges of uncut paper, and this being caused when the paper is on the pulp precludes any successful imitation after the paper is made; also by the strength of the paper, which is from new linen and cotton. In its water leaf or unsized condition, a bank note will support thirty-six pounds; and when one grain of size has been diffused through it, it will lift half a hundred weight.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In our advertising columns is to be found an advertisement of this popular restorative. We know nothing of its merits save what we read, but that is sufficient. particularly when see such testimonials of its efficacy as the following, which we clip from the Ottawa Free Trader;

"Having tried successively sundry highly recommended 'hair tonics' on our own half denuded crown, we about lost all confidence in nostrums of that sort, until a week ago we met a distinguished politician of this State whom we had seen three years ago with thin hair, and 'gray as a rat,' but now boasting as fine a head of hair as one could wish. We demanded the secret of his improved appearance, when he readily accounted for it by ascribing it to the virtues of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative. We shall try that next.—[Rock River Democrat.]

It is a most undoubted fact that Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, or Liver Remedy is one of the greatest discoveries made in medicine the past century. It has been a study of the Dr. during twenty years' practice to find what particular organ, when diseased, caused the greatest number of ills or pains, and his conclusion is, that the liver is the greatest regulator of the system and the most liable to disease, while if kept free from disease is a preventative of Dyspepsia, Jaundice, general debility, &c., while last but far from least we mention consumption: for our experience is that more cases of consumption occur from diseased liver than from all other causes put together.

Taking this to be a correct hypothosis, we have but to find a remedy with which to correct the liver, and we have a cure of nearly all the diseases we are subject to by simply useing a preventative. That the Invigorator is such a remedy is beyond doubt to all who try it, for its virtues are such that for all complaints arising form liver derangements it is an unfailing remedy, while as a family medicine, for all diseases of the stomach or bowels, which are caused in a greater or less degree by liver derangement, it is the safest, surest and most efficacious remedy known.

Something for the Million!!
PROF. WOOD'S

WE CALL THE ATTENTION OF ALL old and young, to this wonderful preparation, which turns back to its original color, gray hair—covers the head of the bald with a luxuriant growth—removes the dandruff, itching, and all cutaneous eruptions—causes a continual flow of the natural fluids; and hence, if used as a regular dressing for the hair, will preserve its color, and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call, then, upon the bald, the gray, or diseased in scalp, to use it; and surely the young will not, as they value the flowing locks or witching curl, ever be without it. Its praise is upon the tongue of thousands.

Watertown, Mass., May 1, 1855.

PROF. O. J. WOOD:—Allow me to attest the virtues and magic power of your Hair Restorative. Three months since, being exceedingly gray I purchased and soon commenced to use two bottles, and it soon began to tell, in restoring the silver locks to their native color, and the hair which was before dry and harsh, and falling off, now became soft and glossy, and it ceased falling; the dandruff disappeared, and the scalp lost all the disagreeable itching, so annoying before and now I not only look but feel young again. Respectfully, yours, etc.

CHAS. WHITNEY.

New York, Oct. 2, 1855.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir;—After reading the advertisement in one of the New York journals, of your celebrated Hair Restorative, I procured a half pint bottle, and was so much pleased with it that I continued its use for two months, and am satisfied that it is decidedly the best preparation before the public. It at once removed all the dandruff and unpleasant itching from the scalp, and has restored my hair naturally, and, I have no doubt, permanently so.

You have permission to refer to me, all who entertain any doubt of its not performing all that is claimed for it.

MISS FEEKS, 263 Greenwich Av.

I have used Professor O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effects. It restored my hair where it had fallen off; it cleans the head, and renders the hair soft and smooth—much more so than oil.

MARY A. ATKINSON.

State of Illinois, Carlisle, June 27, 1856.

I have used Professor O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effect. My hair was becoming, as I thought, prematurely gray, but by the use of the "Restorative" it has resumed its original color, and, I have no doubt, permanently so.

SIDNEY BREESE,
Ex-Senator United States.

Among the many preparations now in use for the restoring, preserving and beautifying the hair there are none that we can recommend with more confidence than Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, now in general use throughout the States. This preparation possesses the most invigorating qualities, and never fails in producing the most happy results when applied according to directions. We refer our readers to the advertisement for a few of the innumerable certificates which have been sent by parties who have been benefitted by it, and who feel happy in giving testimony to its wonderful effects produced on them.

DR. SANDFORD'S
INVIGORATOR,
OR LIVER REMEDY.

THIS IS ONE OF THE GREATEST SCIENTIFIC medical discoveries ever made, and is daily working cures almost too great to believe. It cures as it by magic, even the first dose giving benefit, and seldom more than one bottle is required to cure any kind of Liver Complaint, from the worst Jaundice or Dyspepsia to a common head ache, all of which are the result of a Diseased Liver.

The Liver is one of the principal regulators of the human body, and when it performs its functions well, the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions. When the stomach is at fault, the bowels are at fault, and the whole system suffers in consequence of one organ—the Liver—having ceased to do its duty. For the diseases of that organ, one of the proprietors has made it his study, in a practice of more than twenty years, to find some remedy wherewith to counteract the many derangements to which it is liable.

To prove that this remedy is at last found, any person troubled with Liver Complaint in any of its forms, has but to try a bottle, and conviction is certain.

A compound has been formed by dissolving gums, and extracting that part which is soluble for the active virtues of the medicine. These gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the causes of the disease, and effecting a radical cure without any of the disagreeable after effects, felt by using Calomel or Mineral Poison, that are usually resorted to.

To all who will follow these directions a cure is positively guaranteed. Sick Headache can be cured by the use of two tea spoonsful taken as soon as the attack is felt.

The Invigorator never fails to cure sour stomach or the bad effects experienced after eating.

Bilious attacks yield readily to one bottle, and Chronic Diarrhœa, difficult as it is to cure, is never troublesome to those who take the Invigorator.

For Dyspepsia or Jaundice, nothing in the world acts so fully or cures so quickly as the Invigorator. It removes all yellowness and unnatural color from the skin.

For Night Mare, take a dose before retiring, and it is warranted a sure preventative.

For Female Obstructions it is a safe and sure remedy as it removes the cause of the disease.

Costiveness cannot exist where the Invigorator is freely taken, while Colic yields readily to a few doses.

It must be known that all these are Liver diseases, or caused by a deranged Liver, and to cure them needs a LIVER medicine and one of great power. The Invigorator is such a medicine; it has medicinal powers, never before discovered, that will cure all diseases of the Liver, no matter of how long standing or what may be their form. The active medicinal virtues extracted from the gums used is such as to be astonishing to all who see their effects, for none can use the medicine without receiving benefit. It acts as a gentle Cathartic, and should always be taken in sufficient quantities to operate on the bowels gently. The best way is to take it as to take the medicine in the mouth, and then take some water and swallow both together. In this way the medicine will scarcely be tasted.
