To the Polls.

We sincerely hope no Democratic voters of this county, will allow considerations of a personal or private nature, however important, prevent him from attending the election on next Tuesday, and laboring faithfully and zealously for the success of the TICKET, THE WHOLE TICKET, and nothing but the TICKET.

It is not only the right but the duty, of every American citizen to go to the polls and vote on the day of election, and the man who is too mean and selfish to give at least one day to his country in a contest of so much importance as the one in which we are now engaged, is unworthy to enjoy the blessings of free institutions.

We are confident, that it is unnecessary for us to pass any eulogium on William F. Packer, our candidate for Governor. The Democracy of Cambria know and appreciate his worth, and will roll up on next Tuesday an old-fashioned Democratic majority in his favor. There can be no doubt that when elevated to the gubernatorial chair, he will pursue such a course as is calculated to foster the best interests of our noble old Commonwealth, and command the respect of candid and thinking men of all parties.

The balance of the State ticket is composed of honest and talented men, who have always been faithful disciples of the Democratic party. Of course every Democrat in the county worthy of the name, will give them a cheerful and efficient support.

Every Democrat should be especially active on the day of election, in endeavoring to promote the success of the county ticket. Every man on that ticket, is entitled to the fullest confidence of the party, both as regards his honesty, capacity and political integrity, and consequently are entitled to receive the vote of every Democrat in the county.

Democrats of Cambria, remember that this no time to be caught slumbering on your cars. The time for action has arrived. Now's the day and now's the hour. Do not SCRATCH a single name on the ticket, and especially be on guard against Know-Nothings in the disguise of Democrats who will endeavor to induce you to oppose a portion of the county ticket. Remember that William Palmer and George C. K. Zahn, are really the candidates of the Know-Nothing party, and that the election of either of them would be proclaimed to the world as a Know-Nothing victory on the soil of little Cambria, the "Star of the West."

Every Democrat should go to the Polls with the determination to be true to the doctrines and practices of his party, and by his vote testify his undying devotion to its great principles, which are inseparably interwoven with dearest interests of our country, and the only safeguard of the Union.

A Vile Slander!

The Know-Nothings in this county are becoming desperate, and of course like "drowning men will catch at straws." We have learned from a reliable source that they are now, industriously engaged in circulating in various parts of the county, a report that George N. Smith the Democratic candidate for Assembly, received eight thousand dollars, from Simon Cameron, for refusing to attend the Democratic caucus to place in nomination a candidate for United States Senator. It is unnecessary for us to say that the charge is false—as false as PERJURY. No man who knows George N. Smith will even for a moment believe that the charge is worthy of a moment's consideration other than that of contempt. George N. Smith is a poor man, but if he had been mean enough to accept the bribes that were tendered him while a member of the Legislature, he might now be rolling in wealth. His honorable poverty is the best evidence of his purity and integrity while a representative of the people.

We have also been informed that Squire Palmer is assisting in circulating this vile slander. Can it be possible that he has stooped so low in order to gain votes? If so he is a Know-Nothing indeed, and eminently worthy to rank among the "Vipers that hiss, Where men disdain to crawl."

THE KNOW-NOTHING COUNTY TICKET.

Assembly. WILLIAM PALMER, Register & Recorder, GEORGE C. K. ZAHN, County Treasurer, RICHARD H. TUDOR.

When we stated a few weeks ago, that the above named gentlemen were really the candidates of the Know-Nothing party for their respective offices for which they are named, and that the entire Know-Nothing vote of the county would be cast in their favor, it was boldly asserted by themselves and friends that we lied. What we said then we repeat now, and if the election returns do not sustain us in our charges, we are willing to stand convicted of falsehood.

The "Cambria Tribune" is the organ of the Know-Nothing party in this county. It is edited by a Know-Nothing, and since the first appearance of "Sam" on the political arena, it has been the steady unwavering advocate of his dangerous and pernicious principles. The last number contains an Editorial article with regard to the Local politics of this county, from which we intend making a few extracts for the special edification of our readers. After stating that he has frequently been requested by his country friends to give his opinion with regard to the proper course for the members of the Know-Nothing party to pursue in the present contest, the Editor proceeds to say:

The question is put because of the fact that the American-Republican party of the County has placed no ticket in the field in opposition to the locofoco nominees; and these citizens who entertain sentiments adverse to those nominees desire to know for whom they shall vote. Without wishing to set ourselves up as an oracle, or to interpose our advice in opposition to older and wiser politicians, we will state the causes which led to the abandonment of the canvass so far as a County ticket was concerned, and will venture to suggest what we think to be the proper course for all opposed to FRANCISCAN-PRIAR, FOR RIG N-COURTING, SLAVERY EXTENSION, LOCOFOCOISM TO PURSUE.

In the first place it was deemed utterly useless, in view of the overwhelming defeat which we suffered last fall, and which again looked us in the face this fall, to go through the formality of a nomination, and thereby subject our friends to the expenses of a campaign. And again: it was evident, soon after the Portage Railroad faction in this County made their nominations, that if we put no ticket in the field another ticket would be presented by the dissatisfied Democrats who had been chiseled out of their rights in the nominating convention. It was therefore thought best to stand out of the way, and let the Democratic fight go on, until we would see what we would see, in the hope that the second Democratic or Independent ticket would be composed of honest men, for whom we could vote, in opposition to the whiskey-drinking, Railroad-robbing, gas-speculators, and anything-for-money locofocos.

And such is now the condition of the fight, and such is the character of the combatants before us. THE HONEST PORTION OF THE DEMOCRATS OF THE COUNTY, WHO COULD NOT SWALLOW THE NOMINATION OF SUCH A TRAITOR AS SMITH NOR BE LED BY THE NOSE BY HIS BACKERS, HAVE CALLED OUT WILLIAM PALMER, ESQ. OF JEFFERSON, FOR THE ASSEMBLY, WHILE GEO. C. K. ZAHN, ESQ., OF EBENSBURG, AND RICHARD H. TUDOR, ESQ., OF THE SAME PLACE, OFFER THEMSELVES AS INDEPENDENT CANDIDATES FOR THE OFFICES OF REGISTER AND RECORDER AND TREASURER. Between these gentlemen and those of the regular ticket we of the opposition have but one choice, and that is either to vote for the former or not vote at all. NEITHER THE AMERICANS NOR REPUBLICANS OF THE COUNTY OWE SMITH ANYTHING BUT HIS MERITED OPPOSITION. He has black-guarded, misrepresented, and slandered both parties at all times and places, publicly and privately, in season and out of season, nor has his tongue ceased to wag nor his pen to write in defamation of them and their principles. His most notable act during his first winter in the Legislature a pertentious endeavor to secure special and unusual privileges to a secret order of foreign mendicants within the limits of our county; and the Americans must remember that he would do so again if he had the least hope of success. And last winter, when his influence was sought in favor of establishing a District Court in Johnstown, he declined to act, because such legislation would increase the value of the real estate of sundry Black-Republicans in this end of the County.

Nor has the balance of the ticket anything to commend it to our support. Paddy Hasson, for Register and Recorder, as everybody knows, is an imported Irishman, who pretends to know more than anybody else in this county.

George J. Rodgers, for Treasurer, is a renegade Whig, and received the nomination in consideration of that fact, in order to rally that portion of the new Democracy around him. As for the rest, they are all ultra modern locofocos, and of course do not deserve and cannot expect our support.

Thus, so far as our county ticket is concerned, we have no choice but to vote for the volunteers, and thus assist the weak in their struggle for the right, or to not vote at all, and thus permit unscrupulous men to trample opposition in the dust.

Democrats of Cambria, having perused the above extracts carefully, we ask were we not right in publishing William Palmer, George C. K. Zahn and Richard H. Tudor as the candidates of the Know-Nothing party? Were we not right in declaring that they relied on Know-Nothing votes to secure their election and that the leaders of the Know-Nothing party were their friends and supporters?

Remember Democrats of Cambria, that the "Cambria Tribune," from which we make the above extracts, has during the last three years, been weekly freighted with column after column of the vilest, the loathsomest calumnies that the minions of Know-Nothingism could invent, in order to fan the flames of religious bigotry, and render men outcasts in the land on account of their Religion, or the place of their birth. And remembering this, remembering that William Palmer, George C. K. Zahn and Richard H. Tudor, are really the candidates of the Know-Nothing party, and are supported by the organ of that party, if you cast your votes in their favor, you will do so with the full knowledge and conviction, that you are acting the part of renegades, and contributing your best efforts to secure the triumph of that party, which has openly proclaimed a crusade against everything that renders us proud to acknowledge ourselves American citizens.

Glorious Meeting at St. Augustine. The gallant Democracy of Clearfield township, met at the house of Henry Harber, on Thursday evening, October 1st.

The meeting having been called to order, John H. Douglass was President, Jos. Gill and John Nagle V. P's. and W. Ryan and Jos. Craten, Esq., Secy's.

Richard White being called upon, addressed the meeting upon the issues of the campaign, and introduced G. N. Smith, who addressed it in eloquent terms. Mr. Smith in the conclusion of his remarks which were received with much applause, invited Wm. Palmer who was present to define his position.

Mr. Palmer then endeavored to explain his course. A discussion took place between him and Mr. Smith.

P. S. Noon, Esq., made an eloquent speech, and was followed by Dr. Wm. A. Smith, who reviewed at length the issues of the campaign. Daniel Litzinger, being called upon, made some happy remarks.

The proceedings of the meeting were enthusiastic in the highest degree, the speeches were frequently and heartily applauded, and the meeting adjourned with three cheers for the whole Democratic ticket, and three more for George N. Smith.

It is evident that old Clearfield is all right. Her intelligent citizens cannot be blundered by the intrigues of the so called—"National Democrats," but will roll up more than their usual majority on the second Tuesday of October for the whole ticket.

Chest Township Around! The unwavering Democrats of Chest township met on Friday, 2nd inst., at the House of Michael Echner.

That veteran Democrat, Joseph Gates presided, with Matthias Dietrich and Anthony Gill, Esq., as Vice President.

The meeting was addressed in the German Language, by Wm. Herman, who, with much ability, defended the principles and candidates of the Democratic party.

George N. Smith was then called out, and made a speech marked by much eloquence. He concluded by requesting Wm. Palmer, the opposition candidate for the office, who was present, to speak. Mr. Palmer undertook to defend himself, but without success.

Richard White being then called upon, addressed the meeting in the German Language, and at the close of his remarks, the meeting adjourned with three hearty cheers for George N. Smith and the Democratic ticket.

The greatest enthusiasm prevailed, and there was every evidence that Chest township was up and doing and would give a good account of herself on the 13th of October.

Allegheny Township Wheeling into Line! On Wednesday evening, September 30th, the hardy Democracy of Allegheny assembled in respectable numbers at the house of that true patriot, Philip Hertzog, in the borough of Loretto. The meeting was organized by the appointing of PETER CHRISTY President, P. Brauff and P. Sweeney, Vice Presidents and Jerome Mehlor and W. Kuff, Secretaries. Richard White stated the object of the meeting and introduced George N. Smith, whose appearance was the signal for an outbreak of applause. In an able speech he exposed the treacherous intrigues of the Know Nothings and Black Republicans. He was followed by C. D. Murray, Esq., who made an interesting speech.

Mr. Hermann, being called out, addressed the meeting in the German Language. He proved the soundness of the soundness of the Democratic party, and unmasked Wilmo's treachery.

Col. Patrick H. Shields then made sensible remarks. It being understood that Wm.

Palmer, the opposition candidate for Assembly was present he was called upon, but did not appear. Richard White, being again called out, made an appeal in the German language, to rally in support of the principles and men of the Democratic party. The meeting adjourned with many cheers for George N. Smith and the Democratic ticket.

The old Democratic fire is lighted in Allegheny. Every man is determined to do his duty.

After the adjournment, Mr. Smith was serenaded at his lodgings, by those capital musicians and sound Democrats, the Loretto Band. In a neat address he expressed his sense of the honor intended him.

Carroll Township in the Field! The gallant Democracy of this noble township, met in Carrollton on Saturday, Oct. 3. The meeting selected FRANCIS BEARER, Esq. as President, and R. McCombe, John Fleck and David Smith, Vice Presidents, and Geo. Riddle and H. Scanlan, Secretaries. After the President had, in happy terms, stated the object of the meeting, it was addressed by R. White and G. N. Smith in English, and Wm. Hermann in German. They explained the position of parties, and exposed the secret designs of the K. N's. and B. R's., who are opposing us under the disguise of "National Democrats," and were received, particularly Mr. Smith, with much enthusiasm.

The best feeling prevailed, and the meeting passed off well. The right spirit is aroused in Carroll. The industrious patriotic German farmers who compose the bulk of her population will show that they understand the true interest of the country by rolling up on next Tuesday, a glorious majority for Packer, Smith and the Ticket.

EBENSBURG, October 3, 1857

To the Editor of the Democrat & Sentinel and all other Papers.—I wish you to understand that I cannot support a paper that justifies the present Administration, with all its errors. Let the Democrats return to their first principles, I will go hand in hand with them as hereafter.

To get at the true principles of Democracy we must go back to the framers of the Constitution in A. D., 1787. At that time slavery agitation was as high as it is at present, the contending parties could not agree without making a compromise, (it was better to make a compromise than split,) viz: That all the then existing States that were in favor of slavery, were to retain their slaves. And also they were permitted to import slaves until A. D., 1808, giving Congress the power to impose a duty of Ten Dollars on each head if they saw fit. Agreeable to this compromise; it is as plain as day-light that this put an end to the extension of slavery, and after 1808 agreeable to the Constitution, Congress commenced to put a stop to the extension of slavery by enacting heavy penalties against their importation. On acquiring new Territories, Congress had full power by the Constitution to prohibit the extension of slavery into them. And to the praise of the Patriots of the State of Virginia, they considered themselves in duty bound to live up to the said compromise when they succeeded that part of their western claim to make new States of their prohibited slavery to be extended into them. Had the balance of the slave holding States as much regard to fulfill their engagement in living up to the compromise of 1787, there would be none of this fighting to put a stop to the extension of slavery. I am no Abolitionist, I want to leave slavery alone where it exists. And my word for it, it will cut itself out in time.

I remain yours with due respect, STEPHEN LLOYD, Sr.

An old maid recently died in England, leaving considerable property. She was all her life time getting ready to be married, and had stored up one hundred and eighty-two sheets, sixty-three coverlets, fifty blankets, twenty-seven beds, with one thousand and twenty pounds of feathers, fifty-four pillows, fifty-two handkerchiefs, and numerous other articles.

There are plenty of young gentlemen as well as plenty of old ones whose heads are turning grey, which gives the former a great deal of uneasiness, and exposes the age of the latter. To avoid these little perplexities we advise each of our readers to use Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, which will in the course of a few weeks, change the hair to its natural color. It does not dye the hair like the most of the hair restoratives, but produces a gradual change of color from the roots of the hair to the final end, and gives it a fine and glossy appearance. We have seen many who have used it successfully, and pronounced it the only invention which has come up to their idea of a "cure for grey heads."

We commenced using it about two months since, and if we are any judge of age and beauty, it has made us at least ten years younger, in fact we are beginning to look quite young and feel very much like getting a young wife. The change is miraculous, and it would be as difficult to find a grey hair now as it would find an idea in the head of the Duke of Buckingham. We know several old maids and some young widows whose looks are just beginning to assume a silvery hue and who have been talking seriously about resorting to this remedy, and we advise them not to delay any longer. It never fails.—[St. Louis Herald.] For sale here by all druggists.

The old mail bag in which, eighty years ago, the whole mail between Hartford, Middletown, and New Haven was carried, is still preserved in the room of the Historical Society of Hartford. It is about eight inches wide by fourteen long, and will hold three or four quarts.

A mermaid again appears upon the surface of a provincial journal. We read that two fishermen, while fishing off the Argyleshire coast, "distinctly saw an object about six yards from us in the shape of a woman, with full breast, dark complexion, comely face, and fine hair hanging in ringlets over her neck and shoulders. It was above the surface of the water to about the middle, gazing at us, and shaking its head."

There is nothing in the whole list of medicine creating such a stir among invalids as Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy. It gives such quick relief as to convince the patient of receiving benefit almost as soon as the medicine is taken. We do not know of a single instance where it has been taken without benefit, and in nearly all cases a complete cure is effected by its use. It has acquired its wide popularity simply because it does what it is recommended to do. It is constantly enlarging its circle of friends, carrying healing on its wings, and joy to the hearts of those suffering from Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia or general debility.

MARRIED. At Summitville on the 6th inst. by the Rev. C. M. Sheehan, EDWARD GLASS, Esq., of Ebensburg, to Miss MARY ANN, daughter of Mr. David Brawley of Cambria township.

We tender our friend Edward our heartfelt congratulations, on his escape from the gloomy vale of celibacy, into the happy state of matrimony, with a beautiful and accomplished companion, to brighten all his future joys, and soothe his sorrows. The happy couple will please accept our best wishes for their future happiness and prosperity, and sincerely do we hope, that at each annual return of the anniversary of their wedding day, they may be able to say with truth;

"Thoughtless spurn Hymen's gentle powers, We, who improve his golden hours, By sweet experience know, That marriage rightly understood, Gives to the tender and the good, A paradise below."
