. I don't believe in this feeding the poor from the public crib. I always noticed when we used to feed the hogs from the crib down in Virginia, two or three big hogs got all the corn and did well, and the rest got lean, but they all staid in the lave where the corn was thrown, and never put their noses to the ground to help themselves the whole winter. But those that were turned out and not fed from the crib, went off to the woods, and in the spring were all as fat as butter, and their tails curled so tight that they could hardly get their hind legs on the ground,"
